STUDENTS TO PRESENT PLAY FOR ARBOR DAY

In commemoration of Arbor Day, April 22, a group of students from Adams, under the auspices of the Exchange Club, will present a tape recording of the play, "Johnny Appleseed," tonight over radio station WSBT.

The cast of characters is: Ronald Kroger, narrator; William Clark, Johnny Appleseed; James Worley, James; Joyce Sando, Susan; Maris Kruck, Mary; Richard Wallace, the settler; Barbara Neff, Mrs. Worth; William Swintz, Mr. Worth. The dramatic director is Mrs. Hazel McClure. The story was prepared from material collected by John Barnthouse of the pupil personnel department of School City and was produced by Galon Miller.

The cast will be the guest at the Exchange Club luncheon this noon and will take part in the program.

Bands to Compete At Ft. Wayne Contest

On Saturday, April 18, The John Adams, Jefferson, and Nuner school bands, under the direction of Mr. Cecil Deardorff, will compete in an instrumental contest at Fort Wayne with other schools from Northern Indiana.

Adams is in Class AA which is composed of schools with a population of 750 to 1,200 students. In the past two years, our band has shared a first division rating with Hobart, national champions for approximately thirty years.

Each band plays one warm-up and two other selections. The Adams group has chosen "Liberty Bell" by Sousa, "Suite in E-flat for the Military Band" by Holst, and "Vanguard Overture" by Curzon. Based on performance, each band may earn a rating of superior, excellent, good, fair, or poor.

OUR CHILDREN

BOYS AND GIRLS, PLEASE DO not accept the idea that you can get what you want for nothing. That is far from the truth, because the law of life says it will never be so — By the sweat of your brow you shall earn your bread; bread for body and soul.

Everything you enjoy must be paid for by yourself. When you earn what you want, it brings joy; when you try to cheat the low, the end is always grief. Pay may often seem hard, because it demands self discipline.

You want to stand at the head of your class? That means steady application to your books and in turn that means giving up something like a party, a hike, a show. For everything you get, something has to be given. You must decide whether or not you will give what is necessary.

You want to be loved? What are you willing to give for that? The price is high. It demands service to others, a giving of yourself that someone else may be made comfortable and happy. It means thinking away from yourself toward other people and again, that is not always easy.

You want a fine position after your education is completed in the schools? Then you must qualify for that place. It will not be handed to you. Perhaps there is someone who can give you the place you want and does. Then you must prove capable enough of holding it. Nobody can give a ransom for you in this life.

Work is your only way to win what you want most, whatever that may be. Work demands your time, your effort, your will. Only by work can you win things you want. Your teachers, parents and friends can instruct you, but, in the end, only your personal effort, your own work will serve you.

What will you buy then? Your future lies in your own hands. Increase your working hours; cut out hard drink; do less smoking; spare time to help someone else; go along with your parents. Pray for strength to pay the price for a good life, always remembering that you get nothing for which you do not pay in one way or another.

—Angelo Patri.

March 25, 1953

Mr. Russell Rothermel, Principal
John Adams High School
South Bend, Indiana

Dear Mr. Rothermel:

We of Central High School want to thank you and the Adams student body for the support you gave us throughout the state tournament.

The telegrams were greatly appreciated; the flowers were the main source of decoration for the assembly on Monday and for the basketball banquet on Tuesday. But not unnoticed were the large turn-out and the wholehearted support which your students and band gave us Sunday afternoon at the team's reception, in spite of the doubtful weather. They helped to make the ceremonies into a real parade and a real celebration.

Again, our thanks to all of you at Adams.

Sincerely,
BILL BARRETT, President, Student Council
JUDY MELLOW, Secretary, Student Council

Junior Amazed at Senior Intelligence

World Literature is a class for seniors. Some way or another I landed in there third hour. Since I'm just a junior with not much experience with life, I'm a little awed by these intelligent seniors.

They come out with some answers and statements the like of which I have never heard before. Of course there are some seniors with average intelligence, but even they make you believe they're "brains."

After everyone is seated, the first question heard is, "Well, who's loaded today?" (Now this will amaze you!) About ten or more hands go up. How or where these students get the courage to raise their hands is beyond the reasoning of a mere junior like me. This is one reason why I'm looking forward to being a senior. I am sure I too will be fearless and not afraid to express what's in my heart. After one of the sage seniors is called on and walks steadily to the lectern, he reads an inspiring selection from the literature book; something like this—

POVERTY

A begger to the graveyard hied
And there "Friend corpse, arise," he cried;

"One moment lift my heavy weight
Of poverty; for I of late
Grow weary and desire instead
Your comfort; you are good and dead."

The corpse was silent. He was sure
'Twas better to be dead than poor.

—Arthur W. Ryder.

Then the senior tells us his feelings from the standpoint of "I'm never wrong, but it seems to me."

"It seems to me that this poem was written by a brokenhearted lover." Or he suggests that the begger had just been discharged from a discontinued government bureau.

After immensely enjoying the reading, the listeners can add their usually brilliant comments. For instance: "It seems to me that the author of this poem wishes he were dead;" or "Maybe his basketball team just lost out in the tournament." And so on into the night.

Yes, I enjoy hearing the seniors in action.

—Jana Borecky.

Epidemic Spreading Through Senior Class

Altho you'd never know it
For the weather doesn't show it
We all feel that Spring is in the air.

I see Senior A's hobnobbin'
With the disillusioned robin
"The sight of you," say seniors,
"makes us feel gayer."

So, in study hall they sleep
In their classes teachers weep
What has happened? Once they were so bright.

But although they now seem ill
I am quite sure they will Recover fully on graduation night.

—Barbara Fine.

If you've been seeing a lot of new faces around here, there's a good reason — we've had eight additions in the past few weeks. Bill McNab, 10A, and his sister Betty, 12A, formerly attended Redford High School in Detroit. Kay Conley entered 11A from Wabash High School. Ronald Clark, 9A, has made a short journey here from Mishawaka. Another brother and sister team, Ervin and Maria Hall, have come to us from Tucson High in Arizona. However, Maria isn't a total stranger, as she left Adams for Tucson just a year ago. Carroll Tarvin has entered 9A from Arlington Heights in Illinois. Robert Collings, who left us a year ago, has returned.

Birthdays wanted department: one of April variety, to be traded with Patt Pask.

Did you know that Maggie Zombik and Corky Crose (Three Rivers) will be married in just eighty-six days? Our congratulations!

A pat on the back to the girls' ensemble of the glee club. They gave a fine performance at a recent meeting of AAUW, according to one of our faculty members who had the pleasure of hearing them. Special mention for Julie Harris, who presented an outstanding solo.

Stardust Cafe is certainly something that will be remembered for a long time. Among the oodles and oodles of people seen there were Shirley Jester and Ed Tam (North Webster); Jean Haefner and Bill Yerks (Mishawaka); Norma Myers and Phil Lee (ND); Janice Henson and John Kostinas (ND); Dixie Nidiffer and Jim Halterman; Linda Busser and Jim Nace; Gloria Chambers and Jim Hegedus; Virginia Campbell and Harry Butler; Mary Lou Baker and John Collis (ND); Myrna Cordtz and John Pence; Ed Thompson and his Riley steady, Pat Klopfenstein; Sue Armstrong and Paul Elliott; Sally Buchanan and Jack Sostack; Pat Connolly and Ed Swartz (ND); Sharon Reber and Steve Gumz; Sharon Coe and Don Reygeart (Mishawaka '52); Alice Barry and Larry Butcher (Riley); Pat Moynihan and Jim Worley; Sally Stoops and Bob Johnson; Lenore Dymak (Central) and Bob Shula; Janet Burke and Jack Brandt; Mary Lou Clark and Dick Sanderson; Karan Connett and Dick Bauer; and Marilyn Wood and Virgil Cooper.

Spring vacation has brought about a number of couples in the "Broken Strings" department — Punky Crowe and Tom Goldsberry, Sue Angus and Jerry Thompson, LaMar Stitzer and Jim Riddle, and Maggie Sue Reed and Dick Shaw.

Nikki DeRose had a week-long holiday during the recent vacation. Her parents were in New York, her sister in Florida, and her dog tied up????

The Week's Eagle

Lorena Pearl Rose, born on March 15, 1935, went to McKinley and Jefferson schools before coming to Adams. She is 5' 6" in height, weighs 115 pounds and has brown hair and eyes.

Lorena is a member of the Drama Club and was the student director for the play "Summer is A-Comin' In." She is a member of the Glee Club and serves on the executive committee. She works on the ALBUM and TOWER staffs and serves on the Senior College Guidance Committee.

Lorena has not definitely decided about the future, but she would like to work with the Diplomatic Service. To prepare for this work she will attend Purdue University and major in foreign language.

Outside of school, Lorena is a member of the Sunnyside Presbyterian Church, the Junior Progress Club, the Rainbow Girls, and the Presbyterian Players. She also belongs to the Youth Council of South Bend.

Even though Lorena is very busy she still finds time to be "just plain lazy." In her spare time she likes to listen to "Hold Me, Thrill Me, Kiss Me" and dance a slow "fox trot." Her favorite movie is "Gone with the Wind" and her favorite TV program is "Arthur Godfrey and His Friends." Roast beef and cherry pie are at the top of a list of a long variety of food favorites. Lorena likes a fellow to wear navy blue trousers, a yellow sweater with an open collared shirt, and white "bucks." To Lorena a person with an outstanding personality must have this qualification — friendliness to everyone. She dislikes a person who "puts up a big front."

EAGLES AND MAROONS TIE 3-3 IN OPENER

The Adams Eagles opened their 1953 baseball season with a 3-3 tie against the Mishawaka Maroons at Mishawaka last week. Adams was never behind as they scored once in each the first, fifth, and seventh innings.

In the first inning Jim Riddle opened with a single and moved to third on Jerry Flanagan's sacrifice and Lynn Brown's ground out. Jack MacMillan then drove in the first Eagle run of the year with a single to third. Jim Halterman then popped out to the first baseman to end the inning.

In the bottom of the first Jim Riddle got three of the eight strike outs he was to register in the four innings he worked.

The next three innings were scoreless affairs as the Eagles put the men on base but couldn't move them across the plate. Riddle struck out five Maroons over the three innings to run his total to eight. At this point the Eagles had put eight men on base to the Maroons four.

The Eagles scored again in the fifth as Flanagan led off with a single to left. Brown sacrificed him to second and MacMillan drove him in with a single to center. On the play MacMillan was out trying to stretch his hit into a double.

Mishawaka scored two runs in the bottom of the sixth on four singles and an error.

In the seventh the Eagles scored after Brown doubled, moved to third on MacMillan's sacrifice, and came home on an overthrow to third. In the bottom half of the inning Cantzarite of the Maroons hit a home run to tie the score and end the scoring.

Neither team threatened to score in the eighth inning as Goldsberry struck out all three Maroons to face him.

Eagle Tracksters Beat Michigan City 58 to 51

The John Adams Track Team opened their outdoor season on April 8 at Michigan City in a dual meet. Sparked by the running events, they won the meet by a 58 to 51 tally. The runners who placed and secured points for the Eagles were: Wedel, 1st in 100-yd. dash and 1st in 220-yd. dash; Jones, 1st in mile run and a tie for 1st in 880-yd. run; Jurgovan, tied for 1st in 880-yd. run; Kreitzman, 1st in 440-yd. run; Duggan, 3rd in 44-yd. run; Bock, 1st in high and low hurdles; and Gibson, 2nd in the high and low hurdles.

The mile relay team composed of Duggan, Sonneborn, Jurgovan, and Kreitzman, ran the distance in 3:54.2 to cop the blue ribbons. These running events and the hurdles accounted for 50 of the team's 58 point total.

The other eight points were taken in the field events. These winners were: Thompson, 2nd in the high jump; Scott, 3rd in the high jump; Troeger, 3rd in the shot put and 3rd in the broad jump; and Grimshaw, tie for second in the pole vault.

For Michigan City, they were paced by Donaldson, who won the three events he participated in; the high jump, the pole vault, and the broad jump. The only running event that the Red Devils won, was the half-mile relay.

The meet was run under considerably slow conditions, resulting from chilly and windy weather. Scoring for the meet was as follows: 5 points for a 1st place, 3 points for a 2nd place, and 1 point for a 3rd place.

On Wednesday of this week, the Eagle runners competed in a dual meet at LaPorte, and tomorrow they will participate in the Goshen Relays.

SIXTEEN RECEIVE AWARDS AT ASSEMBLY

Sixteen boys were presented awards at last week's awards assembly for winter sports. Receiving awards for basketball, presented by Coach Seaborg and Mr. Rothermel, were: Tom McNulty and managers Jack Brandt and Dick Hoffman, sweaters; Larry VanDusen and Tom Goldsberry, chevrons; Rocky Ferraro, Dale Gibson, Larry Kedzie, Joe Kreitzman and Jerry Thompson, certificates. Kedzie received the captain's star, Thompson the Monogram Club award and Kreitzman the Kiwanis Award and free throw trophy.

Sweaters for swimming were presented by Mr. Laiber and Mr. Rothermel to Norman Grimshaw, Bob Heiland, Jerry Jennings, Bob Johnson, and Jerry Wiseman. Roger Jurgovan received a chevron and the captain's star.

Four cheerleaders received white sweaters which were presented by Miss Bauer and Mr. Rothermel. They were Nancy Locsmondy, Shirley Maciulski, Jack Moore, and Marguerite Zombik.

Mr. Rothermel also expressed hope of adding wrestling to the winter sports schedule.

Jones, Thompson Cop Firsts

After finishing fourth in the city indoor meet; the Eagles moved up to 6th in the conference meet the following Wednesday. The Adams barrage was led by Jones, who copped the blue ribbon in the mile run with a time of 4:50.2; and Thompson, who also scored a first with his jump of 5' 10½" in the high jump. He was tied with Murray of Elkhart.

These points, together with the additional points picked up by Olshefsky and Jurgovan in the 880-yard run with a second and a third. The mile relay team also tallied to make our total 16 points. Although this was far behind the Redskins of Fort Wayne North Side who won the trophy with 57 points, it moved us in front of both Washington and Central of South Bend. A summary of the standings at the end of the meet are as follows:

1. North Side ----- 57
2. Elkhart ----- 38½
3. LaPorte ----- 27
4. Mishawaka ----- 26½
5. Riley (S. B.) ----- 24½
6. Adams ----- 16
7. Washington (S. B.) ----- 15½
8. Goshen ----- 14
9. Michigan City ----- 12
10. Central (S. B.) ----- 11½

The meet was run indoors in the Notre Dame Fieldhouse on March 25. It was scored with a 5-3-2-1 point system. In the relays, the scores are doubled.
