JOHN ADAMS HIGH SCHOOL — SOUTH BEND, INDIANA

April 26, 1957

Juniors Hold "Stardust Cafe" Tonight

15 Students Competing In State Contests

Fifteen Adams students will leave South Bend at noon today, April 26, to go to Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, to compete in the State Achievement Tests in mathematics and languages. These students had to first qualify in the local, district, and regional contests before competing in the state contest. They will return to South Bend on Saturday. Mr. Volney Weir, Mr. Richard Zook, and Mr. Morris Aronson are driving the group to Bloomington.

Those competing in the mathematics contest are Jerry Hobbs, Jim Weir, and Carol Ann Schiller, algebra; Richard Peters, geometry; Jim Daniel, Ken Dinges, and Barbara Keller, senior division of comprehensive mathematics; and Duke Hobbs, Tom Price, and Norman Moyer, junior division of comprehensive mathematics.

Five of the students will compete in the languages contest. Linda Harvey will compete in the Latin-Vergil contest. Burke Jackson who placed first in the regional contest will compete in the state contest for Latin. Elinor Svendsen who placed second in the regional contest will also compete in the Latin state contest.

Joyce Ressler and Ronnie Medow who are first-year Spanish students will compete in the Spanish state contest.

Soci Students Go On Last Chicago Trip

Twenty-nine sociology students departed on the third and last sociology trip to Chicago today, April 26. The group will make the same visits on the same itinerary as the two previous groups who went on March 26 and April 12. This last group will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Goldsberry and Mr. and Mrs. James Roup.

Those students who left this morning for Chicago were Judy Allen, Judy Baum, Carol Boroz, Barbara Dickey, James Fox, Sue Gaunitz, James Gondek, Jeannette Griman, Pat Hansen, Margaretta Hemphill, Carol Hertel, Dan Hoyt, Judy Hunt, Sally Hunt, Yvonne Hutchins, and Joan Jacobs.

Others also going on the trip were Libby Jester, Hal King, Janet Leach, Alice Lloyd, Gordon Marks, Beth Musser, Bernice Overton, Mary Quealy, Jo McCreight, Millard Thompson, Ron Weaver, Helen Williams, and Ray Woodward.

FRESHMAN CIVICS GROUP TAKES A CITY TOUR APRIL 2

Spring vacation was shortened by one day for several members of Mrs. Elizabeth Schmidt's Community Civics II class as they spent one day of their vacation, April 2, on a tour of the city.

Members of the group visited the City Hall where they were able to witness the city court in action. The most interesting trial was one involving two sisters in a criminal slander case.

Following lunch, the group visited WSBT-TV Broadcast Center where they saw television production in action. (Cont'd on page 4, col. 2)

Health Classes to Use Audiometer Next Week

Adams sophomores will be using an audiometer from April 29 to May 3 in the health classes. An audiometer is a device to test hearing.

On April 30, during 5th and 6th hours, Mr. Kenneth Foulks, School City Hearing Therapist, will check the faculty and maintenance men for hearing defects. Mr. Foulks will also retest student failure on May 7.

April Designated As 'Cancer Control Month'

Among the many significant things about the month of April is that this year the month of April is "Cancer Control Month." The Cancer Society of St. Joseph County in cooperation with the senior class has placed a number of displays with available literature on cancer in each homeroom.

Two large displays depict the seven danger signals of cancer. In the homerooms, smaller displays have been placed, each with one of the six lessons on cancer on it. Various folders of literature have been placed in the displays and are at the disposal of any student who wishes to take them.

Ken Powers and Quintet To Play Music for Little Theater Dance

Tonight, April 26, marks one of the highlights in the junior year of the Class of 1958. The annual Junior Class Stardust Cafe will be held in the Little Theater from eight to eleven o'clock this evening. The music will be furnished by Kenny Powers and his Quintet.

The theme of the dance is Stardust Cafe, and the decorations are centered around blue stars and silver stardust.

Dave Hartenbower is the general chairman of the dance. He is being assisted by the chairmen of the various committees who are Mary Kay Kindt, tickets; Ann Frank, entertainment; Phyllis Plotkin, publicity; Bob Chreist, decorations; and Peppy Hirou, clean-up.

Delbert Byers will be master of ceremonies for the floor show which will consist of four tentative acts. Those students who will participate in the floor show are Jerry Colatz, playing the piano; Sue Stoner, doing a tap dance; Merrylin Priest, twirling the baton; and Bill Esterline, Jim Downs, Dave Janneson, and Peppy Hirou, who comprise a quartet from junior homeroom 109.

SENIOR PROM TICKETS ON SALE APRIL 29

Tickets for the Senior Prom, "Under Paris Skies," will go on sale in the senior homerooms starting Monday, April 29. Tickets will be sold by representatives on the ticket committee which is headed by Danny Hoyt. Senior representatives are Margaretta Hamphill, 102; Terry Conley, 101; Beth Musser, 111; Bill Wiley, 215; and Judi Sheets, 210.

Tickets for the prom which will be held Friday, May 17, at the Indiana Club are two dollars per couple. Toni Rulli and his orchestra will provide the music.

The invitations committee headed by Linda Rogers and Carol Weldy are busy sending invitations to parents of the senior class officers and cabinet members, members of the faculty, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rothermel, Dr. and Mrs. Alex Jardine, and parents of members on the prom committee.

'Letting George Do It'

"I'm busy right now, and anyway I don't feel like doing this or going to the game so just let George do it," is the attitude becoming all too popular among all of us. In our rush, rush, hurry-up-mode of living it is more natural than ever to hear the remark "let George do it." We are forever sluffing off in our work and becoming more dependent "on the other fellow." In school work and school support we have the "I don't care, let George do it" attitude.

Our track and baseball teams are coached and primed to get the job done. Each man on the team works for the good of the team to get good teamwork and co-ordination and it is likewise the job of the student body to work together for good school support of these spring sports. Each man on the team is asked to do a job and he does it without telling the other fellow to do it because he's too busy.

Let's all get out and support the teams ourselves and forget about George. The team gets along without him and so can we. We at Adams should be very proud of the past athletic records and should show our appreciation by supporting the teams, win or lose.

ATTENDANCE RATINGS

The attendance ratings for the third period were recently compiled by Mr. Nelson. The ratings consist of the homeroom and grade rankings. Each room has been rated percentage wise in comparison to all the homerooms. The homerooms were rated as follows:

LETTERS WE DOUBT EVER GOT WRITTEN

From The Father

Dear Son:

You requested $320 in extra spending money for the I-F Weekend. I've enclosed a check for the above amount. About borrowing the car for the weekend, I spoke to the Ford Motor Company in Indianapolis. Go down there and pick out any model you want. Don't bother returning it; you can keep it as you will probably need it for some other weekend.

Be careful,
Dad.

From The Dean

Dear Ronnie:

During the past deficiency period your grades were below passing in 30% of your work. Forget it... it's the other 70% that counts.

This letter is written to advise you of the situation and to let you know that I, my secretary, and the other office staff are behind you.

Please call upon me so that I may introduce you to several of the co-eds who are doing just as wonderfully as you.

Very truly yours,
W. B. Jones.

From The Library

Dear Ronnie:

Our records show that the book you took out, card No. 2-48569, titled "The Subnormal Behavior of the Amoeba," is long overdue. Can we positively count on your not returning it? We've been trying to lose the book for quite some time.

Sincerely yours,
Gertrude Appleway
Tracer of Missing Books.

From The Date

Ron Darling:

You don't know how much it means to me to be invited to I. U. for the I-F Weekend. I want to thank you for getting a reservation at the hotel for me, but you shouldn't have done it. I don't need television in the room, and besides there's no reason why you should have to spend the money to put me up in a hotel. I can foot the bill.

Going to dinner Saturday evening at the Ritz is definitely out. The steak dinner there is over five dollars!! Saturday evening I'll cook dinner for both of us.

All my love,
Sue.

From The President Of The U. S.

Greetings:

Your friends and neighbors have chosen you to represent them at a social tea being held at City Hall on June 1. You have thirty days to settle your personal problems and get a date.

Sincerely,
The President.

From Ronnie

Dear Dad:

Remember the money you sent me for I-F Weekend? Well, I only spent $10 of it so I'm returning the $310 balance.

Love,
Ron.

From The Draft Board

Dear Ronnie:

It has come to the attention of your

Sincerely,
Local Draft Board.

Seen at the Monogram Sock Hop: Bev Thompkins and John Holdeman (Central), Bob Fischer and Malinda Gaylore, Marti Brannan and Bob Nelson (Wabash), Sharon Wickizer and Dave Getzinger, Jeanne Weiss and D. J. West, Gwenne Flack and Jim Leichty (Western Mich.)

After the second soci trip, four girls decided to turn Chinese. After an hour's preparation, including eye make-up, goatees, mustaches, braids, Chinese hats, chop sticks and tea, the flash bulb didn't go off. It just happened to be the last picture.

Attention!! Attention!! We would appreciate information for Mr. Rensberger's new book "Party Games That Teenagers Play." Please hand in your constructive suggestions to room 210.

Hear tell we have a very unusual situation in the Fefferman household. Isn't that right grannie Shellie?

What's this about an urge of four senior girls that was satisfied a few Saturdays ago? The first try was quite successful but what happened to the second time.

"C" lunch hour is the only time Judy Jacobson and Larry Thompson have a chance to talk. These lunch hours are short—huh kids?

Tonite's the big night for the Juniors. Hope everyone has a date and has loads of fun.

Mr. Krider has been elected Group Philosopher for the National Honor Society, thanks to John Ross.

While many of you are buzzing around in your convertibles this afternoon, Becki Wetter, Marilyn Rainer, Rose Griffith, Gayle Heyn, Wendy Fischgrund, Janet Light and Dave Hartenbower will be busy with scissors and glitter—the Junior Dance is coming up—fast!!

Those who weren't at the Drama Club meeting Tuesday really missed a great show emceed by the ever popular John Ross. Don Rowe stole the show, looking very much like "Sideburns" King of comic strip fame.

Congratulations to Gayle Heyn who was chosen to represent Adams in the summer A.F.S. summer exchange program.

The seniors are starting to count the days and hours 'til the Prom and the big, big day,—graduation.

April is set aside for Cancer control month. Be on the lookout for the danger signals of Cancer.

local draft board that your academic work at I. U. is below standard. Don't worry about it!! Cut as many classes as you feel necessary. As a matter of fact, take off a week or two and go home.

If you prefer to remain here, take some time out from your studies to relax a bit.

Mr. Stangl is a graduate of Mishawaka High School and a student of biological science at I. U. When asked what he thought of John Adams, his reply was, "It is a nice school with good facilities and a fine teaching staff." He also said he enjoys working with Mr. Litweiler. His favorite food is porter house steak and his favorite sport is fencing.

Mr. Stangl's future plans are: getting married on June 11, going to I. U. summer school, and becoming a teacher.

Eagle of the Week

This week our Eagle of the Week is Carol Weldy, an eighteen year old senior from homeroom 215. Carol is 5' 8½" tall, has black hair and brown eyes. Carol's hobbies are skiing, swimming, music, reading, and sewing in her few bits of spare time.

Carol is treasurer of the National Honor Society, secretary of Thespians, accompanist for Glee Club, on the Student Council and Drama Club boards and a member of the band. Outside of school, she is vice-president of the Junior Progress Club. Carol is also the salutatorian of this year's graduating class.

Carol likes to watch Playhouse 90 and listen to songs from "Oklahoma." Her favorite foods are steak, French fries, and pizza.

After she graduates, Carol plans to attend Ball State Teachers College and become a teacher.

Students Attend Guidance Sessions On Personal Appearance

A series of five group guidance meetings this nine weeks of the semester are being attended by 9A and 10B students. The boys' part of the program involves three large group sessions which began Tuesday, April 16, with Mr. Stanley Gilbert discussing, "Clothes Make the Man." Student chairman John Bella was in charge of the meeting.

On Tuesday, April 23, the boys heard Mr. Edward Arsenal, a local barber, who discussed "My Outer Shell," a brief study of hair and skin care. Dave Guillon acted as student chairman.

The final boys group session will meet Tuesday, April 30, when they will hear Mr. Joseph Koloszar from the St. Joseph Bank and Trust Company. Mr. Koloszar will discuss, "Pardon Me, My Manners Show."

CLUB NEWS

Student Council

The Student Council assemblies committee and the faculty assemblies committee have recently held meetings for the purpose of setting up the assembly program for the 1957-58 school year.

To prevent having an over-crowded assembly program next year, the two committees decided to schedule only two paid assemblies in advance. The two which have already been scheduled for next year are: Don Lonie, an inspirational speaker, and J. C. Albrecht and his nature films.

The members of the Student Council assemblies committee are Carol Weldy, chairman; Sandy Weaver, Terry Gerber, Jerry Rose, Marcia Hoelscher, and Bob Ziker.

The members of the faculty assemblies committee are Mrs. Hazel McClure, chairman; Mrs. Lawrence T. Pate, Miss Mary Jane Bauer, Mr. William Brady, Mr. Volney Weir, and Mr. J. Gordon Nelson.

Booster Club

The Booster Club elected its board members for the 1957-58 year. Next year's board consists of one boy and one girl from each class. The senior members are Dave Brownell and Judy Jacobson, and the junior members are Fritz Aichele and Sue Altman. Jerry Hobbs and Sue Nelson will represent the sophomore class. The freshman representatives will be elected next fall. The new officers and board members will conduct the rest of the meetings for this year.

Orchestra

The John Adams Orchestra received a first division rating at the State Orchestra Contest which was held in Griffith, Indiana, on April 13. The orchestra was conducted by Mr. Ronald Walton. "String Quartette" by Stamitz, "Shepherd King Overture" by Mozart, and "The March of the Meister Singers" by Wagner were the selections which the orchestra chose to play for the contest. The orchestra also participated in a sight-reading contest.

Y-Teens

The members of the Adams Y-Teens, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Hammond, held a Mother and Daughter Banquet on April 24 in the Adams Little Theater. The banquet included refreshments and entertainment, and the initiation of new members.

The food and decoration committee consisted of Sandy Bryleski, chairman; Sue Woodward, Anita Oberle, Carolyn Messmore, Janet Messmore, Jean Frisbie, Pat Wozniak, Mary Kay Kindt, Trully Thompson, Carolyn O'Meara, Mary Beth Davidson, and Diane Kovatch.

National Honor Society

The members of the National Honor Society elected officers for the 1957-58 school year at the monthly meeting, April 17. Results of the election are: Jim Daniel, president; Brenda Barritt, vice-president; Linda Harvey, secretary; and Sandy Weldy, treasurer.

Spring Sports Teams Face Busy Week

TRACK, BASEBALL AND GOLF TEAMS TO SEE ACTION

Hi, sports fans —

Today, April 26, the track conference trials are to be held at Tupper Field in Mishawaka. There will also be a baseball game with Michigan City to be held on the Adams diamond at 4:00 p.m. Let's all get out and support the baseball team. The best tonic for a team is to have a cheering, appreciative crowd.

On Tuesday, April 30, there will be a track meet with Washington-Clay, at Clay. More and more students are finding excitement and entertainment at the track meets. Also, on the 30th, there will be a baseball game with Goshen at Goshen. The golf team will take on Michigan City and Elkhart at Elkhart.

May 2 finds a track meet on the agenda. This meet will be with Central and will be held on the Adams track.

On May 3, the baseball team will attempt to start another winning streak of Central games. (Until the recent defeat, Central had not beaten Adams in six years of play.) This contest will be held on the Adams diamond at 4:00 p.m.

"SEE YOU AT THE GAME."

'Cancer Control Month'

The senior class has aided the Cancer Society this year through the class project, "Adams Hours." Girls in the senior class have prepared dressings and folded cancer literature for distribution and mailing.

The Cancer Society is urging everyone in the community to donate any white materials that they might have for the use in preparing dressings. White materials include worn-out sheets, table linens, and other plain white material. The society is currently giving out about fifteen to sixteen thousand dressings a month. Anyone who has these things to donate, please bring them to room 101 before or after school.

tion. The tour of the center was very interesting and informative.

The group then moved on to the Tribune Building to see the process of publishing a newspaper. This tour had many valuable aspects as the group viewed the making of color pages, advertisements, comics, and the actual running of the presses. All of this was a good climax to a study of propaganda and the part that television and newspapers play in putting ideas across to the public.

Mrs. Schmidt's 9B and 9A community civics classes are very happy to have Mr. Thomas Keiser, a student teacher from Indiana University, with them in their classes this nine weeks of the semester.

Positions Open for Tower Sports Writers

The TOWER staff wishes to be more extensive in its program of covering sports. However, to do this, they need help. Help from you, the sports fans. In order to print accurate and complete articles on all of the sports events, the TOWER needs interested writers.

Writing sports events is one of the most interesting phases of the putting out of the TOWER. Even so, it is work. To give an accurate picture of the event, the writer should be familiar with the sport and be able to attend most of the home or in-town games.

Anyone interested in writing sports or working in some way with the sports program of the TOWER should contact Miss Mary Walsh in room 205 before the end of the school year.

No special qualifications are required other than that the student be interested, dependable, and have a reasonable command of the English language and an understanding and knowledge of what he is writing about.

Chaperones for the dance will be the junior homeroom sponsors who are Mr. A. T. Krider, Mr. A. E. Goldsberry, Miss Mary Walsh, Mr. Floyd Dickey, Mr. Joseph Devine, and Mr. Warren Seaborg. Other guests invited are Miss Gwendolyn Kaczmarek, Mr. J. Gordon Nelson, and Mr. Russell Rothermel.

Guidance Sessions On Personal Appearance

Sam Purdy will preside as student chairman.

The girls will also be having group guidance sessions on Tuesday mornings. On April 16, Miss Patricia Hunt, director of the Northern Indiana Conservatory of Modeling, discussed "A Lady's Mental Posture." Sandy Marrs presided as chairman of the meeting.

Beauticians Ollivene Morris, Sharon Catherine, Kelley Keb, Doris Toh, and Victor Roquett worked on the subject of hair care in a session entitled, "My Crowning Glory," on April 23.

Five local nurses, Marguerite Cooney, Frances Fick, Alice Hixon, Sylvia Kercher, and Helen Manuszak, will help the girls with a discussion on "Oh, To Be a Lady," on April 30. Student chairmen for the latter two meetings were Pat Bezerey, Marjane Ritter, Rose Kasa, and Pat Boyer.

The final session for the girls will be held May 7. Miss Patricia Hunt will again speak with, "What Shall I Wear," as her topic of discussion.

These five weeks of group sessions were planned by the home room teachers of these students.
