TEACHERS EAT AND PLAY AT THIRD ANNUAL OUTING

Wednesday night, September 24, the John Adams faculty and their families had their third annual picnic-outing at the private lodge of Mr. A. M. Russell, near Edwardsburg, Michigan. Everyone brought some of the food. A large, juicy ham was prepared in the Home Economics modern kitchen by a staff of student experts headed by Miss Minniear.

Before the dinner, recreation to receive sore muscles was indulged in. This consisted of such sports as softball, horseshoes, and believe it or not, football. After darkness had fallen, games were played.

The group that planned this year's outing was made up of Miss Bennett, Mr. Dickey, Miss Minnear, and Mr. Weir.

WEISSERT WILL ANNOUNCE ON "TEEN TIME"

Wyman's is sponsoring a new feature on "Teen Time." It is high school news, to be presented by a member from each of the South Bend high schools and a few other surrounding schools.

On Monday, September 22, try-outs were held at WSBT for a John Adams announcer. Jerry Freels, Joan Inglefield, Bob Gross, Joan Partritz, John Weissert, Adeling Nilhean, Tom Smithburger, Joann Wine, and Bob Welber were chosen to try out for Adams. Each person was given a script to read which contained two pieces of Adams news and a commercial. The judges in the control room were the only ones who actually heard the broadcast. When all had finished it was announced that John Weissert was chosen as our announcer and Joann Wine as alternate. All, however, did a fine job, and were told that they, with practice, would make good radio announcers.

"MURDER" REHEARSED: CAST ALMOST COMPLETE

Rehearsals have started for "Murder at Blossoms" which will be presented on October 21. Student actresses and actors are performing in after school rehearsals, under the able direction of Mr. James Casaday and Mr. Donald Dake.

Mary Troub has been selected to star with Nancy King and David Gibson, by portraying Mrs. Woodman. A minor role, the deaf lady, was given to Judy Riggs.

This completes the casting of the play with the exception of the murderer. When the part is filled, his identity will be kept secret. Who Knows! You may be sitting next to a murderer in your English class!

LEAD GLEE CLUB THIS YEAR

Pictured here are this year's glee club officers. They are Bill Gooley, president; Nancy King, vice-president; Phyllis Nelson and Nancy Ferragan, secretaries; Jerry Weinberg, Tower representative; and Martha Craig and Katherine DeLong, accompanists. Laurette Canter, also an accompanist, was not present when the picture was taken. Mrs. Lawrence T. Pate is the glee club director.

GLEE CLUB REHEARSING FOR FULL FALL SCHEDULE

Hearing music coming from the Little Theatre is proof that the glee club is preparing for its fall engagements. It takes not just a voice, but also, a strong backbone and a determination to work on the part of every glee club member, to cover the schedule planned.

The glee club programs are as follows:

- October 8—
School Assembly
- October 23 and 24—
North Central
- October 29—
St. Paul's Church
- November 6—

DAY BY DAY

Don't lose faith in humanity. Think of the hundred ten million people in the United States who have never played you a single nasty trick.—Elbert Hubbard.

Club News

Debate—The Debate team will have its first meeting sometime in the middle of October. Officers will be elected then.

Drama Club—The Drama Club had its first meeting Wednesday, September 24. The newly installed officers are:— President, Bob Waechter; Vice President, Joan Wine; Secretary, Barbara Clayton; Treasurer, Jerry Wienberg; and Sargent-at-Arms, Jim Long.

The Club is having its annual "Coke" to welcome in new members tonight at 3:30 in the Little Theater.

The first project for the Drama Club this year is to help with all school plays.

Hi-Y—Selection of new members occupied most of the time at the first meeting of the Club.

It was announced that a Hi-Y conference would be held on Thursday, Sept. 25 at Elkhart. Bob Waechter, district secretary of Hi-Y, and a group of interested Adams members attended.

Library Club—The Library Club has as its President this year Bob Welber. The Vice President is Delores Grenert and the Secretary is Shirley Gorsuch.

NATIONAL MECHANICAL DRAWING AWARDS GO TO ADAMS' BOYS

The Scholastic Magazine recently conducted a "National Industrial Arts Fair" which was a "trading place" for new ideas, methods and designs. Students representing 105 cities from twenty-nine states competed for approximately 500 prizes valued at more than $2300.

Among entries in the different classes of Mechanical Drawing were four from Adams — Bob O'Reilly, Bill Carter, John Ruffner, and Irwin Whitehead, who submitted work in the Machine Drawing division. The latter two received honorable mentions. Ruffner also received honorable mention in the Architectural Drawing division.

Adams' four representatives in the fair are in line for congratulations in the light of their fine showing in the nation-wide contest. A particularly low bow is due Mr. Thompson, demon of the drawing board, for the help and encouragement he offered as his part in the saga of four Eagles at the Fair.

MANY ASPIRE FOR CHEERLEADERS' JOBS; STUDENTS WILL DECIDE

Cheerleaders have a duty to get the student body to support the team. A group of twenty students aspire for this privilege this year. Under the direction of senior members of the cheerleading group, Nancy Flickenger, Punky Kint, Joan Goffney, and Jerry Freels, these students practice regularly at 3:30. At a pep assembly in the near future, these students will display their talents. Both old and new cheerleaders will be voted upon by the student body at that time.

GROW UP BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE

Is today the big day? Are you sixteen now? If you are that means you are growing up. How are you facing this fact?

Joseph is in the class with you and his thoughts run like this. "Boy, this is wonderful. I'm grown up now and I can do just as I please. I'll tell you one thing — I'm never going back to school again. All of that hard work and where does it get you? All my pals will be "lugging" books home and "slaving away" while I'm going to be out having fun."

In a few weeks he became rather bored. He didn't seem to have anything to do and didn't have any money to do it with. He decided to get a job. After five weeks of searching, he finally found a position with a very small salary. He started thinking and slowly growing up, although he little realized it, when the answer to his every plea had been. "I'm sorry but this job requires a high school education." He stayed on this job for about 5 months and quit with $10 to his name. He decided that this would gain him no success and sincerely faced the fact that he wasn't really happy. He realized then that he must have a high school education, and he even wanted to go to college.

It took him six months to be able to think with an adult's mind. How long is it going to take you?

OPPORTUNITY IS KNOCKING

Now at the beginning of a new school year it is time for many of us, particularly the new students at Adams, to ask ourselves if we are taking part in all of the activities we should. So many opportunities are presented: glee club, drama club, debate, Hi-Y, G.A.A., band, orchestra, dance band, football, cross country, tennis, golf, basketball, boxing, track, baseball, library club, Ushers club. Each student at Adams has the opportunity to take part in any or all of the activities if he or she will show a little initiative. Any upperclassman or teacher is ready and willing to help you make your first contact.

The happiest people are those who touch life at the greatest number of points.

Remember, wisdom is knowing what to do next, skill is knowing how to do it and virtue is in doing it.

Facts that are not frankly faced have a habit of stabbing us in the back.

Many of us spend half our time wishing for things we could have if we didn't spend half our time just wishing.

If a fee of fifty cents were charged to see the sun rise, nine tenths of the world would be up in the morning.

If ignorance is bliss, there must be a lot of happy people in the world.

TELEVISION
FOR BETTER OR WORSE

Along with the new scientific inspirations comes television. Ah! What a thrill to think of it! It can lead us through a whole day of exciting enjoyment.

First we stagger from bed to turn on the set for a program that will wake us up. "The Jumping Downbeat," seems as if it would be a good selection. The sunny-voiced announcer is a red-eyed, sleepy-looking man who chooses for the first selection, "Down in the Deep Cellar".

But now it's time for everyone's hero—Superman! There he is, that superhuman—little guy with the slipping padded shoulders, who is reclining in an easy chair. Then comes the Lone Ranger, who passes out from fright when he sees a picture of a pony on the studio wall. Next there's Dick Tracy, who is standing on a chair to reach the microphone.

Now we turn in on a program with Mozart in person, only to see a record spinning on the turntable. What a disappointment!

Then comes the soap-box opera, "I saw a Ghost." All we see for three quarters of the program is a box of 'Sudzy Dudzy' the sponser's product.

This is quite enough! So we fall into bed while listening to "Serenade for Drowsy Dreamers" playing "Furious Father" as we fall asleep, convinced that our motto is now "Down with Television."

AIN'T IT SO?

Fellows who drive with one hand are usually headed for a church aisle. Some will walk and some will be carried down it.

Here is just a peek from behind the sofa for all of you kiddies who are curious.

A summer romance still continuing is that of Dick Worth and Susie Schwier.

Alex Fuller seems to enjoy Barbara Brecht's company.

Certain girls are going to be a little lonely with their men away at college this fall. For instance:

Jane Buchanan — Jack Pfaff

Nancy Flickenger — Rod Million

Nancy Gradecki — Dewey Moore

Pat Lord — Curt Heckeman

Changeable as the weather: Delores Allison and Tom Barth, Ruth Keb and Jack Chedister.

Jim Nevins certainly must have something. There are about a dozen girls who think so.

Ed Morris has been seen with a "Nancy" from Central lately. Harry LaPlace and Elaine Rolfe seem to be getting along pretty well too.

Norma Shultz was out with former Adams student, Dick Trim, a few times this summer.

You can add Phyllis Spradlin's name to the list of the engaged as of last July.

Joyce Campbell's main interest at the present is a certain Vernie, Central Alumni.

Myra Roberts has had John Horning's ring (Central) for quite some time now.

Norma Tully is having a hard time deciding between "Dick" and "Ted." Sure would be nice if we could all have such baffling problems.

Shadows still seen when the lights are low:

Sue Slabaugh and Bernie Brekrus (Wash),

Marilyn Bendit and Jim Wilson

Ann Ulrich and Jerry Ohlman

"Rosie" Fragomeni and Frank Dawner

Bernice Pfeifer and Ned Mastak

Nancy Chappel and Jack Michels

Any time you have a couple hours to spare ask Nancy Helvey about Jim Purge of Wheeler, Indiana.

Jim McClusky is reported to have his eye on a certain dark haired Sophomore A in home room Library. How about that Jim?

Ben Jurcik — Marilyn Dedrich

Tom Marsh — Rosemary Kelly

Keith Hall — Georgianna Jennings.

Dick Foster — Jenny Jackson

Hank Hukill — Nancy King

Now you've had enough for a while, but you can have another look next week (5c a squint).

Math Professor: "Now, if I subtract 25 from 37, what's the difference?"
Pupil: "Yeah, that's what I say. Who cares?"

BACK IN CHAINS AT ADAMS OR NO, NOT THE GUILLOTINE

As summer vacation is once more brought to a screeching halt with the beginning of school, we find all our scholastic-minded little Adamites (with the exception of those poor souls who either graduated or quituated to become "men and women of the world" or who are now making their debuts at the local P. U.; that famous new university brought to us through the generosity of our most noble, The Honorable Senator Phogbound) rising early each morn (Yawn) and trudging wearily on their way "Back to the mines."

But upon reaching our destination, we find that a great change has taken place at our old Alma Mater! Morons have become students; students have become scholars and scholars have become geniuses; while the famed Professor Krider has been elected president of the South Bend branch of the Little Below the Knee Club. (At this point, all those students who are taking English VII will please bow to the floor three times and sigh, "Oh Master, thou art so handsome"). Thus being assured of at least one "A" on our report cards, we continue on our way.

As we sashay by the different home rooms, we note with amazement that here, too, a great reform has taken place. No more need our sponsor teachers screech the bulletins from their deck tops or wake up all their lovely little up-and-coming pupils through the use of atomic power. (This year each teacher is equipped with his own private P.A. system and we students (?) are kept wide-awake with the help of specially constructed desks, equipped with several well-placed tacks. These desks were devised and constructed through the genius of our beloved Professor Thompson—any person wishing to express his thanks to Mr. Thompson may do so in the drafting room. (Any amount you can give will be greatly appreciated).

While meandering down past the study hall, we find that students in this room have also turned over a new leaf. No longer must "Coach" swing back and forth on the chandeliers cracking his whip over the heads of the students, while shouting at the top of his lungs, "You came here to study! If you don't study; sleep. If you don't sleep; study." (Yes, this year it is different. We here at JAHS have learned our lesson well, and as Coach Crowe sits serenely at his desk — everyone sleeps).

Just as we are leaving the study hall, we trip over a body lying cold, stone dead by the door. Our tears flowed freely till we read the inscription on the tombstone, in memory of Central.

"He heard we had a football game, He doubted we would win. Alas! He didn't know what hit him. But Brother, it wasn't a mere rolling pin."

Quickly drying our tears, we sat down to rest for a minute on one of the many luxurious lounges,

NEWS FROM OUR NEIGHBORS

WASHINGTON—Out Washington way a poll on the length of this years' dresses was taken. Seems as though the boys are definitely against them. The girls like the longer length though, just so they aren't too drastic. Which should it be Adamites, long or short?

CENTRAL—Central held an assembly September 16 for the purpose of interesting new students in joining school clubs. Along with the usual extra-curricular activities offered, Central has some clubs that are quite novel. For instance, there is a Magicians Club for anyone who is interested in the mysterious art of Magic. The Handy Andy Club promotes and advertises all the school activities. Then there is the S.P.U.R. Club that serves a good purpose in helping new Soph's feel at home in Central.

scattered over the room. Upon inquiry we found that they were placed there by the students for the convenience of the football team, the motto of the study-hall classes this year being, "We love our coach, but oh, you football players." (Sigh!)

Continuing on our way, we notice that no longer do students slide up and down banisters or lock the bodies of others in their lockers — this year our school is equipped with escalators and we have been provided with three large cremating furnaces for the disposal of those many bodies that are found cluttering up the halls after a particularly grueling gym class.

Just as we are leaving the building, the bell rings. Oh, horror of horrors! As we declare ourselves "Ready for Freddy", we are swept off our feet and carried along with the mad rushing all different directions to catch busses, appease their appetite at "The Greasy Spoon" or rush home to pump the "Ole Man" for answers to the coming geometry test. "Ah me! At least there's on thing that hasn't changed at Adams."

EAGLES SCALP REDSKINS 20-0 FOR THIRD WIN

The never say die John Adams Eagles gained their third win by trouncing the Goshen Redskins 20 to 0 on the latter's home field. The victory was Adams second conference win in two tries. The Eagles are now tied with Mishawaka for the league lead. The game was Adams all the way as they piled up 16 first downs to only 3 by the Redskins. Adams with their brilliant backfield strategy did not have to punt in the entire game. Next week Adams should hold an undisputed first place in the league, if they defeat Riley and if Washington beats Mishawaka. Adams kicked off, but Goshen was forced to punt, and the Eagles took over the ball on their own 31 yard line. Then within 16 plays the Eagles drove to the Goshen 1-yard line where Joe Howell circled the end for a touchdown. Bill Gooley place kicked the oval between the up-rights and the Eagles lead 7 to 0. The rest of the quarter went by without any scoring. The second quarter saw Adams driving for another touchdown but failed as Larry Lewallen intercepted Joe Howell's pass on the Goshen 1-yard line. Goshen kicked out of danger and the rampaging Eagles still lead 7 to 0. Goshen kicked off in the third quarter and within a few minutes the Eagles were on the Goshen 6-yard line. At this point the hard driving Bill Roberts crashed over for the touchdown. Gooley again made good the extra point and the Eagles lead 14 to 0. In the fourth quarter a Goshen punt was downed on the Redskins' 46-yard line. Again Adams put on a tremendous drive and wound up on the Goshen 4-yard line where "Moose" Barritt went over for the touchdown. The extra point was wide. The game ended with the Eagles victorious by a score of 20 to 0. All 27 players that made the trip saw action.

ADAMS HARRIERS PACED BY BUSSERT; SCHEDULE LOOKS TOUGH

The cross-country team, now in its second season at Adams will be trying to raise its average to that of 500 when it takes on Fort Wayne South Side, September 25.

Led by Mac Bussert, who has placed first for Adams in the three meets thus far, the team is now sporting a 1-2 record. Adams went to Goshen for the opening of the season and came home victorious by a score of 25-31, but met a different fate in its next two meets losing to LaPorte 25-30 and to powerful Mishawaka 18-41.

Other members expected to help Bussert bring home the bacon are: Dick Foster, Phil Layman, Jim McClusky, John Keller, Lamar May, Carlisle Parker and Dave Gibson.

SCHEDULE

September 29—Washington	.....	Here
October 6—Central	.....	There
October 9—Elkhart	.....	Here
October 13—Riley	.....	Here
October 21—Conference Meet at Erskine Park

GOLF TEAM'S PROSPECTS LOOK GOOD

Coach Thompson's golf team looked very good as they defeated Central and LaPorte the first week back to school. Paul (Byron) Buman and Dick Worth shot 83's in the Central match, which proved to be the best scoring for Adams.

Last spring at LaPorte there was an all-state invitational golf match at which the Eagle golf squad won and brought home the big gold trophy. Also on May 24 Adams participated in the all state high school golf playoffs in which 43 high school teams entered. In the state meet Adams placed seventh, with Paul Buman shooting a 79 and tying for fourth.

Returning letter men from last year's great team are Paul Buman, John Weissert, and Dick Worth. Other members on the team are George Swintz, runner-up in this summer's city junior golf tournament, Bob Mamby and Dick Brotherson.

HIGHLIGHTS BY HIGHBERGER

Darwin "Monk" Miller really did himself up right at Goshen. He didn't stand around and wait for his slow interference, he just took off down the side lines. In two games now, Miller has an average of over six yards per try.

Central's Pat Hagerty sure does get shoved around a lot for a six foot five giant. Adams and Washington both gave him the run around.

Adams should give Mishawaka a battle. As I look at it, "Moose" Barritt will be hitting his peak running form by that game, and the rest of the boys will be ready and willing.

Weaver, Goshen's all-conference center was a one man line against Adams. He was in on most every tackle. I wonder how many Lewallens they have in Goshen, there has been one on the team for four or five years now.

Look out for Morrie McFarland; the first time he carried the ball this year, he scored a point. The "Little Giant" claims his strict training rules keep him in the pink of condition at all times.

Suell David Turner, that blonde bombshell from Oklahoma, that ladies' man with the southern accent, owns a $45 pair of cowboy boots. Though many believe it is true, Dave was not sent here by the Tulsa Chamber of Commerce as a propagandist.

B's WIN SECOND STRAIGHT GOSHEN VICTIMS

With Bill Dougherty, Don Parker, and Morrie McFarland scoring, the Adams Reserves won as they pleased over a weaker Goshen squad 25 to 12. Dougherty scored three times, once on an eighty yard run and twice on short scampers. He passed to Parker for the other score with "Bulldozer" McFarland crashing over for the Eagle's only extra point of the game on Dougherty's last touchdown run.

COX, WITT LEAD TENNIS TEAM

September 16 Central out-played the Adams team by beating them 4 to 1. Sophomore Dick Bennett who starred in many summer tournaments won the only match for Adams.

September 18 Goshen journeyed here only to be thoroughly trounced by a stronger Adams team 4 to 1. The team played their best brand of tennis thus far this year.

The team is coached by Mr. Reber.

The remaining Eagle tennis matches read as follows:

October 2	.....	Michigan City (T)
October 7	.....	Elkhart (H)
