CLOTHING CLASSES TO PRESENT DRESS REVUE

Girls Will Give Reasons
For Choice Of Style
And Material

Miss Puterbaugh and Miss Stitt have announced that the Clothing I and II classes will present a Class Dress Revue of Styles during their regular class periods on Friday and Monday, January 21 and 24. The garments shown will be those made by the girls this past semester. Mothers of the girls are being invited to attend the showing.

An explanation of the objectives of Clothing I and II will be given and as each girl models her dress she will offer an explanation of why she selected the material, why she chose the style and design of pattern she used, and any other fact about the garment that she feels will be interesting to the audience.

USHERS CONTINUE WORK WHILE OTHERS ENJOY VACATION

The Ushers Club held its bi-monthly meeting January 12. Assignments were made to the boys who were to work for the South Bend Symphony Concert on January 16.

Even though some of us were enjoying the much awaited vacation the ushers were on duty for all the basketball games and the Civic Music program.

Neighboring News

Central—Wanted: A Widow! If you are interested in a widow and there definitely is one wanted, plan to go to Central January 19 or 20. The Dramatics club members are staging "Wanted, A Widow", a comedy by Dion Bauecicailt.

Another production on which the Ceneral dramatists are working is "A Musing." This will be produced February 10 and 12.

Riley—The Rileyites are still going strongly for the Austrian Drive and the school they adopted. The Student Council is planning a dance whose proceeds will help the Austrian adopted. The date of the dance is yet indefinite.

SENIOR COUNCIL AT WORK

Utmost in the minds of the council is the All School Prom to be held at the Palais Royale, Friday evening. The group has just finished taking orders for invitations for Commencement.

The officers, Joe Howell, president; Bob Manby, vice-president; Artie Grant, treasurer; and Connie Hudson, secretary, keep busy with their inherent duties. The council representatives were each nominated chairman of a special senior committee. Ona Apeltgreen, 106, is in charge of Invitations and Calling cards; Bob Miller, 206, will help plan Senior Day activities; Pat Haley, 101, will organize the Senior Play; Betty Granat, 208, is chairman of the prom; Bob Zenzinger, 210, will work on Commencement plans; and Jim McClusky, 204, is responsible for Baccalaureate.

Representatives Discuss Problems Of School And Industry

Representatives from several industries in South Bend, as well as members of the Board of Education, Superintendent Allen, the Office Practice teachers of the four high school and one senior from each school who is majoring in stenographic work were guests of the South Bend chapter, National Office Management Association last Thursday evening in the Bronzewood Room of the Hotel LaSalle.

The meeting was directed toward creating a better understanding of the problems of industry and the schools, and toward helping the schools plan courses of study that will better meet the needs of industry.

A feature of the program was a panel discussion covering questions asked by the senior pupils dealing with such subjects as opportunities in the business field and the preparation needed.

Miss Roell and Norma Shultz attended from Adams.

PROM FRIDAY NIGHT

Seniors, this is your last opportunity to get your date for the All-school senior prom to be held at the Palais Royale, Friday evening, January 21. Bud Simpson's orchestra will play. The tickets are on sale in room 101. All Adams Alumni are invited to attend.

Tower Sponsors Assembly Welcoming The New Sophomores

The Tower will sponsor an assembly to welcome the new 10B's on January 27 at 1:00 p.m.

The seventy-two new sophomores will meet in room 106.

Lois Warstler and Betty Granat will introduce the teachers at Adams and talk on the variety of extra-curricular activities in which the Adams student may participate.

Mr. Sargent will talk to the group and prepare them for their new life here at Adams.

The students will then pass to their home rooms. Miss Tash and Miss Bauer will be the home room teachers for our new friends.

DEPAUW OFFERS RECTOR SCHOLARSHIP TO YOUNG MEN

In 1919, Mr. Edward Rector of Chicago created one of the largest singly endowed scholarship foundations in the United States. Each year the Foundation has awarded scholarships to DePauw University to young men of outstanding ability ranking in the upper ten per cent of their graduating classes. Last year fifty-five Rector Scholars were selected from several times that number of applicants. These scholarships pay up to $1600 in the four years at DePauw University. The sum is applied on the tuition in the University during four consecutive years.

SENIORS LEAVING AND EXAMS MARK END OF THE TERM

Tuesday Afternoon And
All Day Wednesday
No Classes

Examination time is almost here again. Tests will be given for all students, senior and underclassmen, on Monday afternoon, January 24, and Tuesday morning, January 25.

Tuesday afternoon and all day Wednesday there will be no classes. Teachers will grade examination papers and prepare final reports for the end of the semester. Thursday morning report cards will be given out and an opportunity to pay fees and purchase supplies for next semester will be provided. Regular classes for the second semester will begin on Friday.

New 10B's will be welcomed at an assembly Thursday afternoon at 1:00 p.m.

The 12A's who are graduating this January are:

Ralph Barnes, LeRoy Barritt, Robert Brugh, Jerrill Cassady, Richard Everts, Roger Haverstock, Anna Marie Horvath, Harold LaPlace, Dale Litherland, Miriam Jones, Ronald McFarland, Patricia McHugh, Robert Manby, Ruth Ortt, Thomas Patterson, Harriett Plotkin, James Radican, Lenore Tucker, Ann VanderBeek, and Norma VanHove.

The students remaining for 13B will be placed in Mr. Reber's home room.

SOME LAST MINUTE ADVICE

Here it is, almost the end of another semester, and you know what that means, exams! This is our last chance to dust out those cobwebs and replace them with some "learning." Of course there is not much that can be done now to change the impressions that our teachers have of us, but this is definitely not the time to fold up the school work. Instead, it is the time to make a final push to get those lessons. For some, who are on the border line, it may mean to which side the semester's grade will fall. If you have fallen down this semester, take a lesson from it and improve the next time.

So, as a last note of advice I say, don't buckle up; buckle down!

JEANNE INGRAM

THE PURPOSE OF A SCHOOL PAPER!

I believe that the purpose of a school paper is to bring to the students some idea of the activities that are going on around the school.

A paper should be democratic minded. It should also practice citizenship and good sportsmanship by not writing slandering articles against any opponent.

A school paper should have interesting articles and also have a bit of humor mixed in. Jokes, gossip, and articles written on the humorous side should occupy an important place in the paper.

Another thing a school paper should do is to inform the students that are ill of the things happening at school. Those that are unable to attend the games can also read first-hand accounts of the events.

The school paper should be written by the students, printed by the students, sold by the students and last but yet important should be read by the students. They should be the critics because it is their paper.

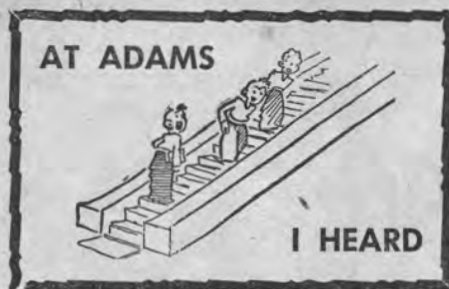

Now that I have told you what a school paper should be like, I'd like to give my opinion of the Tower.

It has most of these qualities. It tells about the activities of the school satisfactorily. I must commend it for not printing any slanderous articles. But, I do believe a few improvements can be made. There should be more and better articles of humor and the gossip column could be much better.

23RD PSALM OF A GEOMETRY STUDENT

I have a geometry teacher; I shall not pass.
 He maketh me to show my ignorance before the whole class.
 He giveth me more than I can learn; he lowerth my grades.
 Yea, though, I walk through the valley of knowledge, I do not learn.
 He fireth questions at me in the presence of my classmates;
 He annointeth my head with problems; my eyes runneth over.
 Surely angles and triangles shall follow me all the days of my life,
 And I shall dwell in Nelson's class forever.

Well, this week ears are obsolete, as the "eyes" seems to have it — and, as you've probably noticed, those third finger left hand "sparklers" which Santa gave to so many of our girls are not hard to look upon.

If you've forgotten just what a diamond is, why not ask Joan Stombaugh, Marian Driver, Norma Van Hove, or Joan Honer to show you her left hand!

Speaking of engagements we can also add Bonnie Jean Fortin's name to the list. The lucky man is Bill Swan.

Many of our Adams' graduates were seen at the Christmas formals: Fred Wegner and Nancy Flickinger, Bill Gooley and Pat Kissinger, Joanne Wine and Bill Reinke.

Also seen at these same holiday dances:

What's this we hear about Marva Tanner sporting a Hi-Y pin? We didn't even know they allowed girls in the club, let alone making them presidents.

Donna Miller (the soph) and Bud Schwalm celebrated their first anniversary January 10 (going steady of course).

Rumor has it that Sharon Cotherman has joined the "steady" ranks. Who's the lucky man?

Lois Beck and "look" have now patched things up. It must be love.

Virginia Holland is justifiably proud of the Notre Dame locket "Santa" gave her, we hear. We wouldn't be too sad if all Santas looked like hers, would we?

FACTS ABOUT THE FACULTY BY FEARLESS

There's probably only one person at Adams who really knows the actual meaning of the title of that hit song, "Cuanto Le Gusta." That person of course is nuestra profesora de espanol, senorita Helen Law. She has one of the most colorful rooms in school with Mexican posters all over, conversaciones, y cines acerca de Espana y Mexico.

Not so long ago an interesting and minor feud arose between the Misses Law and Bennett. It seems there was a current events article on the events map in Civics all about the starving people in Mexico. Miss Law said our neighbors south of the border are capable of eating twenty times a day and they are devouring all they are capable of. To prove her argument, she has collected some articles which state the Mexicans are abounding in health. Miss Bennett on the other hand had to stand by her current events map and she also has been collecting articles to support the map's statements. At the last count our own Miss Law had thirteen articles and Miss Bennett had twelve. For the final results of this world shaking contest, keep watching this column.

Last summer Miss Law and her roommate, who teaches French and Spanish at Central, took a trip through Mexico. They traveled all the way down to Mexico City and had first class bus accommodations. They both soon wished they had instead bought second class tickets since ticket holders of this class got to sit in the laps of those in the first classification whose additional pesos rated the seats. Miss Law's roommate didn't have it too bad, but nuestra heroina had for a lap mate, one of those well fed Mexicans she is arguing with Miss Bennett about.

They really did have a wonderful time though, that is for one little embarrassing incident. You see when one gets through the port of entry into the United States the customs officials must check 10% of the traveler's baggage. Well, it just so happened Miss Law's inspector looked through the wrong suitcase, naturally. You can just imagine her embarrassment; she still gets red even talking about it. That nasty official took all those pink and white lacy things right out of the case so that all the people around could see them. Golly, wouldn't you blush too if some fellow exposed every one of your last year's valentine?

Miss Law really makes a fine Spanish teacher though because she knows that language, but well. In fact she has it down so pat even Spaniards sometimes have trouble understanding her.

I don't believe any other high school has a principal like our Mr. Sargent, who does everything to help the students. He furnished the dillies for the Christmas Tea decorations.

Miss Stitt was so touched when she received an orchid from the Foods II Class at the tea that all she could say besides "thank you" was "I think we need some more sandwiches on the table."

Another one of Adams students has turned to radio — Dave Gibson gave his T. B. speech over WSBT.

Congratulations to Laurette Canter for winning a first prize at the South Bend Symphony auditions contest. Laurette will play with the Symphony in their regularly scheduled concert February 20th.

OLD MAIDS AND WIDOWS WILL FACE SENIOR PROM TIME

With the senior prom coming up in two days it's probably about time that the poor widows and old maids got down to business. The old underhand methods of the stranger ones, and the shy ways of the weaker may have been all right for getting a date a few years ago, or even last year, but it's about time for a revolution around here, led by the poor mistreated women.

As we march on toward victory (we'll plan the campaign later) our symbol will be a flag of black to show our deep determination. When our battle is won, the men at last will be at the mercy of the merciless women. We will then form a union with a constitution which will at last protest the rights of women.

There will be laws to fit each occasion, union hours, and a limit to the number of stag parties that the men may have.

This is a new revolutionary idea. Does anyone have enough courage to carry it out?

LOOK FOR THE LOG FRONT

I FINALLY OPENED IT AND THERE IT WAS . . .

One beautiful morning, during vacation — I can't quite remember what it was called, it was so, so long ago, I was gazing through the unopened mail. No, I didn't expect anything. I was just looking, as I had regularly been doing for the past few weeks. Please believe me. I really wasn't expecting anything. Just looking.

Suddenly I realized I was gazing upon a small envelope that was addressed to me. My eyes could hardly believe me. I mean, I could hardly believe my eyes. I looked again at the name and address to make sure it was really for me. Sure enough it was, anyway, the name, address, and city was identical to mine.

This was really an occasion, my first Christmas card. In order to enjoy it to the "nth" degree, I, first of all, sat down. Such an important happening in anyone's life should not be taken in an upright position.

After many minutes of imaginary thinking about what glad tidings the card might bring I finally mastered enough courage to open it, the long awaited envelope. Rip . . ., it was opened. Now, at last, I had reached the climax, the reading of Merry Christmas or Happy New Year or other similar glad tidings. However, what appeared to my eyes was neither of those phrases but, "Sorry you're sick at Christmas; Get well, etc."

There it was, my first Christmas Card, a get well card. To top it off, I had never felt better in my life. Oh, well, mistakes do happen. At least I sure get my share.

'THE PEN OF TIME WRITES AND HAVING WRITTEN MOVES ON . . .

It is all over but the shouting — the preparation of term papers, I mean. Of course, there are some individuals who will be complaining forever about the grade Mr. Krider or Miss Johnston gave their masterpiece. There are others who are thanking their lucky stars it is all over and they didn't get an "F". Now, I come somewhere between the two. I am glad that I have completed my initial paper and know what to expect in college, but I still remember the fun I had writing my research paper and the fun I had doing something completely different.

To the juniors and sophomores who have been hearing about research papers, I urge you to forget about it and take English VII anyway. After all, the term papers consume only three weeks out of eighteen.

ADAMS TOPS 'DEVILS' IN FIRST WIN OF CONFERENCE

Adams piled up a nine point half-time lead and then staved off third and fourth period rallies to defeat Michigan City's Red Devils 46-44 last Wednesday. It was the Eagles first win in five conference starts. Their non-conference record shows four wins and three set-backs.

The first period pace of the Eagles was comparable to the one which they set in the initial stanza of the Mishawaka game. With Dick and Don Truex, Joe Howell, Dick Bennett, and Marlin Miller all contributing tallies, Adams piled up a 14-6 quarter lead. They increased this to 25-16 at the half. "Ben", who was high scorer for the game with 15 points, scored exactly half of these during the second period. Adams maintained leads of 26-20 and 32-30, early in the second half, but the Red Devils "bangers" found the range and pulled even at 34-34. Don Truex's jump shot put the Eagles two points to the good as the period closed. Miller and Dick Truex combined to move the ledger to 39-35, but again "City" tied it at 41 all. Then Miller sank two free throws and added a two-hander from the side to put the Eagles ahead for keeps. In addition to Bennett's 15 points, which included 5 for 5 at the charity line, Miller scored 11 (five of six free throws) and Don Truex, 10.

Cavemen Hang Red And Blue In Overtime Thriller

A red-hot band of Adams Eagle cagers had Mishawaka's vaunted Cavemen on the "ropes" for thirty-one minutes and fifty-eight seconds before finally succumbing in an overtime, 56-50. Until Mishawaka tied the game at 47 all in the closing seconds, they never had been able to keep pace with the Eagles' blistering assault. Adams lead reached from seven to nine points on several occasions. With only a minute left, the count was 47-39. Then the Cavemen scored eight straight points; the last two coming on Vernasco's charity tosses just before the gun. Don Truex took the ensuing pass-in, and hit a long one-hander from past mid-court, but the double-bang of the scorer's gun had just preceded it. Adams never led after that, although Dick Bennett's three points moved the score to 50-51. (It's a good thing that Frank Crosier wasn't there to broadcast, or he doubtless would have fractured a tonsil). Don Truex's two long set shots and two free throws rushed Adams to a 6-0 lead, and after Joe Howell's pivot shot, Don added four more points to put the Eagles in command 12-8. The score was 27-18 at the intermission, largely through tallies by Truex and Bennett. Mishawaka narrowed the lead to 34-32 early in the final period, but Adams jumped away again into leads of 40-32, 43-34, 45-38, and the aforementioned 47-39. Even as many Mishawaka adherents moved toward the exists, figuring that it was all over, the Cavemen came back to tie and win.

EAGLES TAKEN FOR RIDE BY ROUGH CHICAGO TEAM

The John Adams Cagers, after playing a red hot first half, wilted under East Chicago Roosevelt's fast break and the sharp-shooting of Ray Pavechevide.

The Eagles started out slowly in the first quarter trailing at the end of that period 14-10. Roosevelt increased their lead to 17-10 before Adams, led by Hank Hukill came to life. Henry scored all five of his points in the second quarter. Also contributing to the second quarter drive were a pair of buckets by Dick Truex, and one by Joe Howell and Marlin Miller. The score at halftime was 23-23.

East Chicago virtually won the game with a 16 point third quarter, while all Adams was able to gather was an anemic 5 points for a 39-28 deficit at the 24 minute mark. Roosevelt stretched its lead to 45-31 in the fourth quarter before Adams started whittling away the lead. The Red and Blue pulled up to a 52-45 score, but the gun sounded with the 7 point deficit. Adams outscored the Rough Riders 17-13 in the fourth quarter, but it was too little and too late.

Ray Pavechevich led all the scorers with 19 points. Dick Truex was second with 13 points. Coach Koss substituted freely, clearing the bench of subs, with all but one of the players scoring.

EAGLES WIN AFTER XMAS HOLIDAY VACATION

The Eagles of Adams came through with a win from the Central Catholic Lions before a mezzanine filled crowd. The game was played the day before classes reconvened after the Christmas holidays. The Central Catholic five was blessed with an extra amount of height but apparently the score gave little way to this advantage. Andrezejewski and Dick Williams were the chief factors for the Lions' 24 points. The score was fairly proportioned in the first quarter with the board reading nine all. Don Truex and Dick Bennett were the two main point getters in the second quarter as they pushed the Eagles into the lead 17-13 at intermission time. The second half the Lions were completely out of the picture and the Adams team went on to victory 45-24.

As a team, the Eagles were excellent on rebounding and shooting. The Truexes were outstanding on rebounds, and Don's 21 tallies almost broke the Mishawakans' backs. "Ben" Bennett had a good night, scoring 13 points. Joe Howell added three fielders, and played a stellar defensive game, guarding both the Cavemen's guards.

"B" TEAM DROPS THREE OUT OF FIVE

PLACE FOURTH IN TOURNAMENT

December 28, 1948: One miserable day on which Adams seemed to have lost all basketball charm, they slipped two games in the pockets of their swarthy opponents, Washington and Riley, in the annual "B" team tournament. We might attribute their bad form to the 2 by 4 gymnasium they had to be in or the rotten floor they were forced to scuff over, but the others had to do this also, so we'll just say they had an off day. The tournament was held at Riley with Adams, Washington, Riley, and Mishawaka participating. Adams dropped a hard fought game to Washington in the morning by a score of 23-20. Bob Pfaff, Don Oakes, and Dick Moore were the hot rods of the Adams spark but all proved to be in vain. Mishawaka dropped their game to Riley in the morning also and returned to play Adams in the consolation game in the afternoon. Something certainly was wrong with Adams in this game for Mishawaka beat the team who had paced over them so smoothly on their own floor not too long before this. The Cavemen swallowed the Eagles 30-24. The Eagles showed signs of recovering several times during the game but this failed to materialize. We know our league leading Eagles are good; we'll forget about this slip and think about another tournament next year. Riley emerged the victors of the tourney.

CHICAGO TEAM NIPS JOHN ADAMS

January 4, 1949: It appeared that our mighty Eagles had not yet recovered from their tourney defeats as they trailed all the way behind an East Chicago five who needed no recovery. The Eagles, however, threatened to win in the last part of the ball game and came quite close to doing it as the Chicagoans slid through to a 26-24 victory. Several of the Adams boys were hot on scoring but Bob Reinke and Bob Pfaff take net honors, each with 7 points.

EAGLES WALK OVER CAVEMEN

January 7, 1949: The Adams "B" squad took form again and walloped a confident Mishawaka five 25-17. Mishawaka never had a chance as the Eagles sparked mainly by Marty Weissert walked off with an easy decision. Adams led in scoring and floor play throughout the game and proved to be the team we know they can be if they play hard. Marty Weissert netted 16 big points in toto with Kenny Dillion netting 4 points for second place honors. Congratulations "B" team for showing us you can win.
