SENIORS ATTEND DE PAUW CONFERENCE

DePauw University again sponsored a College Conference for High School Seniors on the DePauw Campus September 26 and 27.

John Adams seniors who attended were: Jean Woolverton, Lorena Rose, and Jim VanHorne. They met with guidance counselors from DePauw, Purdue, and Indiana University, as well as high school faculty and guidance personnel, and college student leaders. The student delegates analyzed the problems of selecting a college intelligently, and viewed many of the major adjustments college freshmen need to make.

The Friday program included registration, dinner in the various housing units, and evening entertainment and orientation in the Memorial Union Building. The regular student conferences were held Saturday morning.

"HE TREATS SHE"

The faculty picnic was held last Wednesday evening at Russell's cabin, near Granger.

As the headline implies, the men treated the ladies to a barbecue supper. During the evening, cards and games were enjoyed.

Approximately 65 staff members, their wives, and children attended.

Bulletin from U. S. Treasury Department

For the benefit of investors many changes have been made in the laws covering the new Defense Bond Series.

E BONDS—The interest rate has been increased from 2.9 to 3 percent. The new bond matures in 9 years and 10 months instead of the former 10 years. A $75 investment now matures to $100 in 9 years and 8 months, but if held for the full ten year period grows to $134.68. This is an increase of 80 percent on the original investment. This new extended maturity rate applies to presently held bonds if maturity is reached on or before May 1, 1952.

J BONDS—This is the same bond as the former F bond except the investment yield has been increased to 2.76 per cent on the 12 year maturity. The bonds are available in the same denominations as before. The cost price is 72 per cent of the maturity value. The new bond does not differ from Series F in provisions as to registration, redeemability, places of issue, or income tax liability. Presently held F-bonds are not exchangeable for Series J.

K SERIES—This is the same bond as the former G bond except that the investment yield at 12 year maturity has been increased to 2.76 per cent. Presently held Series G bonds are not exchangeable for Series K.

JURGOVAN CHOSEN CLASS PRESIDENT

On September 9 the members of the Senior class had the opportunity to compile a ballot for the election of officers. Every student was allowed to nominate any class member he wanted. It was: President, Dick Shaw, Roger Jurgovan, Don Pearson; Vice-President, Joe Kritzman, Dick Sanderson, Lynn Brown; Secretary, Karol Hudson, Nancy Kenady, Colleen Callsen; Treasurer, Judy Hunneshagen, Joyce Swingendorf, Susan Peterson.

On September 15 the class held the election and the following were chosen: President, Roger Jurgovan; Vice-President, Joe Kritzman; Secretary, Karol Hudson; Treasurer, Judy Hunneshagen. Working with these officers will be the senior cabinet. They are: 101, Lynn Brown, Colleen Callsen, Barbara Crow; 207, Dick Shaw, Dick Sanderson, Joyce Swingendorf; 102, Judy Hunneshagen, Karol Hudson, Pat Holland; 107, Joe Kritzman, Roger Jurgovan, Nancy Kenady; 210, Don Pearson, Susan Peterson, and Joe Drake.

SENIORS PLAN GUIDANCE PROGRAM

In an election held in Senior home rooms, Tuesday morning, September 23, delegates were chosen to the Senior Guidance Planning Council. Those elected were: Robert Beale, Colleen Callsen, Judith Hunneshagen, Jerry Jennings, Nancy Kenady, Thomas McHenry, Dale Vermillion, Jean Woolverton, Richard Hendrickson, and Susan Peterson. This group met in room 106 at 3:30, September 23, to outline the Guidance program for the year.

Two major units were agreed upon: "College Information" and "Bound Elsewhere." Robert Beale and Jean Woolverton are co-chairmen of the committee composed of one representative from each of the five senior home rooms and a home room teacher to formulate plans to give the college information.

Thomas McHenry and Dale Vermillion are co-chairmen of a similar committee to bring to the group information about opportunities elsewhere than in college.

WITH MY COMPLIMENTS

The time for the physical examinations to be given at school is on hand. Students in the ninth and eleventh grades will have their examinations on September 29, October 6, 13, and 20. Few, if any, realize the importance of such examination. We do not fail to notice, however, that twenty-five cents of our fees pays for some physical exam.

For many students this may be the only examination they will have all year; yet, you hear them say, "Aw there's nuthin' the matter with me. I feel fine. Why anyone knows there's no sense in going to a doctor if you feel fine." Of course, we don't stop to think that just because we aren't broken out in a rash or don't have a fever, we're the picture of health.

The examination is given by a staff of doctors and dentists and is quite thorough. Last year, as a result of the examination, three students were found to have diabetes and numerous cases of heart murmurs and high blood pressure were found. These are things of a more serious nature that need immediate attention. The purpose of this examination is not to find things that are wrong, but is as a prevention. Whatever defects may be found are reported and you take the report home to your parents. If you need immediate attention, you are requested to see your family physician. Make a habit of having a physical examination once each year. You'll live a longer, healthier life.

Afterthoughts: See you at the Pep rally tonight at 7:30. . . . Seniors, do you have a date for the class party October 18? . . . Avoid being a "dummy"; wear school colors to Civics class. . . . Do you have any information you would like printed in the Tower? What has your club been doing? Give details to a member of the staff or to Miss Roell.

How NOT to Apply Proverbial Advice

If you believe in proverbs, heed my advice. It is said that proverbs come from someone having an experience and passing a saying on to help people in the same situations, so here goes.

The book on the shelf of my dad's library looked very interesting so I proceeded to leaf through it and what do you think it said "A rolling stone gathers no moss!" I never thought of that. Gee, this book would come in handy to help me with my own problems so I started to read on and happened to think there's my chance to date a lot of boys instead of just "faithful Freddy. When I finally cast Freddy off I sat faithfully by the phone for a week, but nothing happened. Then I met "him" at school, my dream man, Spike. He called that evening and even knowing nothing about him I consulted my proverbs and found that "He that is over-cautious will accomplish little."

Saturday night showed up but Spike didn't. Again the book came out and I found the saying "leave no stone unturned." Down to the drug store I marched, and I found Spike with Sally, my best friend. Boy, did I tell her what I thought of her right then and there, and when I turned to leave I nearly fainted to see Mom standing there, magazine in hand, shocked at my behavior.

When I reached home with Mom, I tried to reason with her. Making me stay at home would never accomplish a thing because my book says "The world does not grow better by force or by the policeman's club." Leave it to Mom to get the book and open it to a page which reads "Let punishment be equal with the offense." Wait! What's this? On the same page appears "A rock that has moss is more secure than a pebble that rolls!" (Oh why did I break up with faithful Freddy?) "Look twice before you leap" (Why did I say I would go out with Spike when I barely knew him?) Last of all I found the answer to all my questions "Look not for trouble. It will find you soon enough."

Know what happened to that book? It went in the furnace but I'll always remember one thing "Read, mark, learn and inwardly digest." I'll consider everything before I listen to any more proverbs. —Patt Pask.

Seniors Have Pictures Taken for Album

Work has started on the "senior" section of the 1953 Album. Pictures of the graduates are being taken by the Priddy-Tompsett Studio. Nancy Kenady, senior editor, is making appointments for these pictures. This phase of the work will continue until all have had the opportunity to examine their proofs and make a selection.

"Can you read the third line?" the oculist asked his patient.

"Sure," answered the man. "CWDKB. I'm no good at pronouncing it, but I think he was left tackle at Notre Dame last year."

—The Student W World.

Hey, Charles Nordin! You've been holding out on us about your summer adventures. It took an English theme to find out you've been skiing on the skies.

Riley people have aroused the interest of some of our Eagles, namely Eddy Thompson and Chet Bussert. They have been seen with Portia Troyer and Carol Whitmer. Kay Frash is interested in a 6' 2" senior from Washington-Clay. They grow 'em awfully tall out there, Kay. "Long John" Jim Kanouse has been seeing a lot of one of Central's prize "short-stuffs", Wendy Heron.

Joe Rich: "Oh darn. I missed four of the easiest questions on that big Latin test." Paul Linscott: "That's nothing. I missed sixty-five of the hardest."

Ah, swimming—a great sport. Jerry Wiseman could tell you all about it for he spends a lot of time at the Natatorium. Of course, he couldn't be watching Margie Molnar (Central).

Adams is happy to welcome June Hall and Carol Noble, two freshman transfers from Central. We're glad to have you, girls, and we hope you'll like us.

The Drama Club's big production of the year is a thing of the past, but there is some swell entertainment coming up at other schools. Rehearsals are already under way for two fine plays. The Barnstormers of Central are working on an honest-to-goodness melodrama, "Under the Gaslight". Members of the Riley Drama Club are planning to present a wonderful modern favorite, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" by Cornelia Otis Skinner. Watch the Tower for further information.

Most juniors have a little difficulty with their History at times. We wonder if Junior Jim Riddle could be helping Junior B Sue Angus with her study of our nation's illustrious past. There couldn't be any other reason for these two to be together, so often—or could there?

One of our chief Eagle spies reports that Central people don't know the meaning of the word "pep." If in doubt, consult your dictionary before 7:00 this evening. That's when we're having one of those "you-know-what" rallies complete with bonfire. All Central students who don't understand "pep-Adams variety" will be tutored by a staff of experts. Right??

Broke?? Need pin money?? Interested in a non-union job with short hours? Then note the bulletin board next to the main office. Many calls are received for students to care for children and do other odd jobs, both after school and on Saturdays. If you are interested in any bulletin see Miss Burns for details.

Woman driver to friend: I'd drive fine if it weren't for the steering part.

Many of you know Mrs. Tash because she teaches one of your classes, and other may have just seen her in the halls. Regardless of how well you know our new Commerce and English teacher, we'd like to help you know her better. Mrs. Tash graduated from Tipton High School. Then in 1947, while at Ball State Teacher's college, she was an active member of a local social sorority and an education and an English honor society. She was also president of a business honorary. After her graduation from college in 1947, Mrs. Tash taught at Cowan High School in Delaware County and at Aurora, Indiana. At Aurora she was advisor for the school newspaper and yearbook.

In her free time she likes to read and square dance, although she claims that her efforts in the latter are that of an amateur. Her favorite hobby is fishing. Each summer she and her husband spend a week in Northern Michigan, where they have their own boat and tent. They like the portable home because they can always be where the fish are biting.

Mrs. Tash and her husband are planning to stay in South Bend permanently. They hope to have their own home very soon. Mrs. Tash fears that the outdoor work which will accompany the new home will keep her away from her television set. She thinks T. V. is wonderful and now spends a great deal of time "just looking."

"HOT ROD DRIVERS" TOPIC OF ASSEMBLY

On October 9 at 8:25 a.m. an assembly will be held. Mayor John Scott, Mr. Eddie Hanyzewski, director of traffic around all schools, and Mr. Ralph Powell, driver education teacher at Adams, will speak. The topic for consideration is "Hot Rod Drivers."

Student representatives on the assembly committee are: Jack Sostack, chairman, assisted by David Beiser and Charles Apelgreen.

Our new Commerce teacher can't recall why she entered the field of education, but she believes the most logical reason is that both of her parents were teachers. Her mother is still teaching and her father is now a letter carrier. She has three sisters; one married, one a sophomore at Ball State and one at Tipton High. Not only do the Tashes go fishing each summer, Mr. Tash works on his Master's degree at Ball State. Mrs. Tash works in the Administration Building. The Commerce students will find Mrs. Tash very helpful as she has done a great deal of office work.

Mrs. Tash feels that her fondness for eating is her problem. Nevertheless her favorite foods are thick steaks and fried chicken. We also know that she likes the friendliness of the faculty and students at Adams. Our wandering Mrs. Tash, who must move to a different room each hour, is very happy that she could easily adjust herself to her new school. We are very happy to have Mrs. Tash as a part of our school.

LET YOUR "SPIRIT" KEEP YOU WARM

Ah hear thar's been some trouble
A springin' up anew,
'Bout "Whatcha gonna wear tonight
When cheerin' Red and Blue?"

Now if it's very chilly
And your knees are knockin' hard,
I advise you take a warm coat
Lest the chill catch you off-guard.

But trouble will come up again
'Cause, ya see, the truth will be,
That "ah can't cheer for Adams cause
Ah'm all wrapped up in me".

So try to take a jacket
That is thin and very light.
You'll see the biggest difference
And you'll cheer the team just right.

When ya get right down to them
"brass tacks",
Who cares who's cold, who's not?
Jest as long as our own Adams boys
Puts "visitors" on the spot.

So Adams team you go right out
And show 'em how to fight.
We'll forget about our freezin' bones
And yell with all our might.

-- Julie Harris

What do you like to do on dates?

Bev Netherton—That's a good one (ask Bob)

Lois Vance—Depends on whom I'm with

Shirley Johnson—Nosey people don't live long (shudder)

Shirley Lee—You get serious, will ya'?

Sue Pascoe—Sit and talk.

Dick Moffett—Usually like to have a good time.

George Nemeth—You don't know, do you?

Phil Long—What can I think of that's good?

Trent Hilborn—Not saying.

Doug King—Mix it up a little.

Jerry Thompson—I don't go on dates.

EXTRA POINT PROVES MARGIN OF VICTORY

The Adams Eagles won their second straight one point decision last Friday defeating Ft. Wayne North Side 20-19.

Adams drew first blood, driving from their own 19 in four plays. After Goldsberry got three yards, Sessler picked up two to move the ball to the 24 yard line. Then after Ray Loar drove for 11, Dick Wedel broke through the center of the line for 65 yards and the touchdown. Goldsberry's placement was good to make the score 7-0.

Late in the first quarter Adams started its second touchdown drive from the Ft. Wayne 40 after Dick Sessler had recovered a Ft. Wayne fumble. In the drive Loar carried for 0 yards, Wedel got 24, and Sessler got 11 including the touchdown. The extra five yards were due to an Adams penalty. Goldsberry again kicked the extra point, his fourth in a row this season.

Just before the end of the first half Ft. Wayne got its first touchdown. It came on a 24 yard pass from Riley to Murphy after Ft. Wayne had recovered an Adams fumble. Riley again passed to Murphy for the extra point.

When Ft. Wayne kicked off out of bounds to start the second half, Adams took over on their own 40. In three plays Adams had their third touchdown of the game. Dick Shaw accounted for all the yardage as he made runs of 29, 2, and 34 yards. Goldsberry missed the extra point.

After Adams had a first down on the Ft. Wayne 9 and failed to score, Ft. Wayne moved 68 yards to a touchdown.

Ft. Wayne's last touchdown came on a 56-yard pass from Riley to Murphy.

Netters Lose to Cavemen

The John Adams netmen lost to the Cavemen of Mishawaka by a score of 5 to 0. The matches were played on the Mishawaka courts. The Eagles lost three singles matches and two doubles matches in succession. The best effort made by Adams was M. Palmer's losing effort to C. Curtis by scores of 6-4 and 6-2.

On Thursday they also lost, this time to the Slicers of LaPorte. This time they lost by a score of 4 to 1. The one point was accounted for by M. Palmer in his singles match. Coach Reber used Palmer, Christman, Miller, and Green in that order for both matches.

The team made up a postponed match in Fort Wayne Monday, facing the North Side team.

"B" Team Spoils Clay Debut

Washington Clay's primary attempt at a football team failed as the Eagle B squad rimmed them by a score of 7-0.

Washington Clay held the Eagles in the first quarter to 0-0 score, but in the second quarter the Eagles began to click and their touchdown drive was climaxed by a 50 yard pass by Beiser to Selig in the end zone. Robbins kicked the point after touchdown and the Eagles held a 7 to 0 lead at halftime. The rest of the game was well matched but no scoring was done by either team.

EAGLES END LOSING WAY AGAINST GOSHEN

The Eagles, in winning over Goshen, snapped a string of fourteen consecutive conference games without a win. This "record" dates back to September 1950, when we rolled over Michigan City by the lop-sided score of 26 to 0 nothing for our only NIHSC win of that season. During this streak the Eagles landed in, or shared the cellar in the conference two years straight.

However, all of these games were not losses, the Eagles managed to tie Goshen in '50, and Elkhart in '51. Let's hope this win is a keynote to the future Adams' games and that we will improve our standing considerably.

—John Pence.

ADAMS vs. CENTRAL

Going into tomorrow's game the Eagles have lost to the Bears of Central 10 times, and we have beaten them only once—in 1947. To date, the Eagles are leading the Bears in 1952 conference play. The probable starting line-ups for tonight's game are as follows.

Adams		Central
Berta	LE	Molnar
Thompson	LT	Kajzer
Bussert	LG	Taylor
McKeon	C	Ringer
Dempsey	RG	Eichorst
Thomas	RT	Braunsdorf
Finch	RE	Greer
Goldsberry	QB	Dulcet
Wedel	LH	Coleman

FRESHMEN DROP TILT TO CENTRAL, 13-0

The John Adams freshmen after beating Mishawaka were blanked by Central 13-0 at school field. They played outside the stadium in the "dust bowl" on Thursday the 25th.

Adams held Central on even terms in the first half, stopping Central's drives time after time.

In the second half, Central took the kickoff and drove the length of the field. The drive was climaxed by a long run. They kicked the extra point to make the score read 7-0. Then in the latter part of the third quarter Central started another drive and the third quarter ended with them on the Adams two-yard line. On the first play of the final period Central scored, but the extra point was low. The balance of the game continued without further scoring.

EAGLES LOSE TRIANGULAR

In a triangular meet with LaPorte and Mishawaka, Adams was defeated by both schools.

Hupp of LaPorte turned in the best time for the 2-mile run by doing it in 10:34. Jones, top man for Adams came in fifth. The other two men who made up the top three from Adams were Good and Jurgovan.

LaPorte won the meet by beating Mishawaka in the runoffs.
