JOHN ADAMS HIGH SCHOOL — SOUTH BEND, INDIANA

February 13, 1953

ADAMS HOST FOR ANNUAL WORKSHOP

The third annual Business Education Workshop for teachers of Northern Indiana will take place at John Adams High School on Saturday, February 14.

The workshop is sponsored by the Business Education Division of North Central Teachers' Association. Mr. William Rogers of Wakarusa High School will preside as general chairman. The local committee consists of Miss Mary Dunn of Mishawaka High School, and Miss Annajane Puterbaugh and Miss Florence Roell of John Adams.

Mr. T. James Crawford, co-author of the typewriting book used by John Adams students, will be the demonstrator. He will give forty-five minute typewriting and shorthand demonstrations which will be followed by a question period.

Shorthand students from John Adams were asked to be in the shorthand demonstration. Those participating are: Susan Angus, Sharon Beebe, Shirley Carlson, Sharon Coe, Shirley Cook, Myrna Cordtz, Rosemary Cox, Marlene Dahl, Jerry Flanagan, Mary Ann Hawblitzel, Betty Hulett, Marcia Kruck, Carolyn Mahler, Dixie Nidiffer, Patt Pask, Sue Stevens, Loisjean Vance, Beverly Verduin, Nancy Weintroub, and Ann Williams.

Workshop guests will be entertained at luncheon at Sunny Italy Cafe following the meeting.

STUDY GROUP TO MEET

As in previous years, the John Adams Parent Teacher Association has planned a series of study group programs. These programs are presented in the Little Theater of Adams High School and are held from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. The purpose of the study group is to acquaint parents with the problems faced by the youth of today and to bring the parent closer to the school and the child.

Five programs are scheduled:

- Feb. 4—"The Genesis of Good Citizenship."
Speakers: Mayor John Scott and Russell Rothermel, principal of John Adams.
- Feb. 11—"Discipline — But By Whom?"
Speaker: Merlin G. Richard, assistant principal at Central High School.
- Feb. 18—"Television: Problems and Possibilities."
Speakers: Galen Miller, assistant director of Visual

PUTTING THE KEYSTONE IN PLACE

The week of February 15-22 will be Brotherhood Week and its sponsors, the National Conference of Christians and Jews, will celebrate their 25th anniversary.

The NCCJ was founded in 1928. In 1934 a Colorado priest suggested the idea of holding Brotherhood Week. (NCCJ has sponsored the week since its beginning.)

The purpose of NCCJ is stated in its by-laws: "... to promote justice, amity, understanding and cooperation among Protestants, Catholics, and Jews, and to analyze, moderate and finally eliminate social and political relations, with a view to establishment of a social order in which the religious ideals of brotherhood and justice shall become standards of human relationships." From this basic purpose come the motives of Brotherhood Week:

- ... Rededication to the human ideals of respect for people and human rights.
- ... Demonstration of practical ways in which Americans can promote these ideals.
- ... Enlistment of more people in year-round activities to promote brotherhood.

John Adams will carry out the brotherhood theme with displays of globes, dolls, books, and posters in the library and social studies classrooms.

CAFETERIA TO OPEN; SCHEDULE VARIED

After much careful planning and hard work, the Board of Education has the cafeteria at John Adams High School ready to serve our student body. Our students will now be able to enjoy the benefits of having their own cafeteria for the first time on Monday, February 16.

The lunch period schedule will be worked as follows: There will be three different lunch periods: The first period will run from 11:35 until 12:15; the second will run from 12:10 to 12:35; the third will run from 12:40 to 1:20.

Each student will be told which lunch period he must use. If he is to have the first lunch period, he will go to the cafeteria immediately after his third hour class. At 12:15 he will go to his fourth hour class.

However, if he has the third lunch period, he will go to his fourth hour class immediately after third hour. He will remain there until 12:40 and then go to the cafeteria from 12:45 until 1:15.

Those students who have a fourth hour study hall will have an entirely different lunch schedule. After third hour, they will go to study hall and remain there until 12:10. Then they will go to lunch at 12:15 and will return to study hall at 12:45, remaining there until 1:15.

Fifth hour class will be from 1:20 until 2:15 for everybody. Sixth hour will begin at 2:20 and last until 3:15 when school will be dismissed.

Miss Miriam McCabe will be manager of our cafeteria. Mrs. A. E. Stone will be the head cook. Assistant cooks will be Mrs. Carl B. Lederer, Mrs. Louis V. Pierson, Mrs. John T. Ditto, and Mrs. E. L. Wenger.

WABASH GLEE CLUB TO PRESENT PROGRAM

Under the sponsorship of the Senior High Westminster Fellowship, the Wabash College Glee Club will be presented at 8:00 p. m. on Wednesday, February 18. The concert will be given in the Sunnyside Presbyterian Church, which is located at the corner of Francis and Washington Streets. Mr. Robert Mitchum will direct the glee club.

Everyone is invited to the variety program, which will include choral numbers, humorous and dramatic readings, and impersonations. Among the thirty-five members of the group are three Adams alumni, Jim Wenger and Fred LaCosse, of the class of 1952, and Dick Carlson, who was graduated from Adams in 1950.

?? ST. VALENTINE'S DAY ??

For centuries February 14 has been observed as Saint Valentine's Day, a day sacred to lovers. In medieval times young people in England, Scotland, and France assembled on Saint Valentine's Eve and drew names from an urn. Each person then became the "Valentine," or special friend, of the one whose name he drew. Throughout the next year the persons exchanged gifts, letters, or cards, many of them heart shaped, as expressions of affection. In 1953 it is still customary to send candy, flowers, and greetings on February 14. It is truly a day for lovers. It is spoken of by Chaucer and other medieval writers as the date when birds mated.

Even though Valentine's Day is one of our most popular holidays, its origin is shrouded in mystery. One story has it that there was a man named Valentine in a little town in England. He was loved by all the townspeople for his kindness and generosity. Because of Valentine's popularity, the King of England feared him as a conspirator; he was thrown into prison for the rest of his life. Each year on February 14, the anniversary of his imprisonment, Valentine sent letters and heart shaped cards to all his friends. The townspeople copied his deeds of kindness and affection, and the custom grew.

According to another story the day originated as a feast day commemorating the execution of two Saint Valentines, one a Roman priest and the other a bishop of Terni. That their feast day is also the day set aside for lovers seems to be a coincidence.

The Roman festival, Lupercalia, which occurred on February 14, may, also, be related to the modern celebration.

Whatever the origin, all of us are very delighted to receive that heart shaped box of candy or bouquet of roses on Valentine's Day.

—Janet Burke.

SUPERSTITIOUS? ME? NEVER!!

Today is that fateful day, that day among days, "What day is it?" you ask. Why, Friday the thirteenth, of course. I'm actually trembling. I'm almost afraid of my own shadow. Do you realize what's already happened to me today? So far I've had to back up on two different streets and go clear around the long way to get home because black cats were ready to cross my path. "What difference does that make?" you ask. Just let me tell you. A black cat crossing your path might mean all sorts of bad things, like having your slip showing just when that cute boy is watching you or even worse, driving the family car to the game with a group of girls and having your favorite beau ask to take you home afterwards.

"What happens next?" you ask me. I forgot my books this morning and I had to go back. Anyhow I needed my book, so I remember that the only way to keep the bad spirits away, if one must go back, is to sit in the first chair you come to. Did I hear you say why? All right, I'll tell you why. If the bad spirits are watching you, they'll think you're just resting and not trying to keep them away so they will leave. Anyhow I sat too long and I was late for school. Finally, after I got all that taken care of, I remembered that I hadn't put my lip-stick on, so I proceeded to do so in the middle of class. When the teacher saw me, she called my name so loudly that I jumped up and dropped my mirror. Of course, you know how bad that is. "How bad?" you ask. Only seven years' bad luck, that's all. Next thing I knew I looked up and saw my worst enemy walking away with my boyfriend. Now if that isn't bad luck, I don't know what is. What did you say? Me? superstitious. Are you insinuating that I'm superstitious? Why that's the silliest thing I've ever heard.

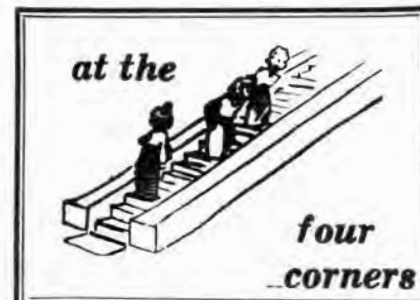

—Mari Anne Reish.

Mr. Ernest Kaeppler, who is a teacher of English and Math, came to Adams at the beginning of this semester. Mr. Kaeppler was born in Minneapolis, but his family moved to LaCrosse, Wisconsin, when he was old enough to go to high school. He graduated from LaCrosse High School and then went to Wisconsin State Teachers College. After some work there, he went to the University of Wisconsin. He completed his education with graduate work at Indiana University.

Before coming to South Bend, Mr. Kaeppler taught for one year in Almond, Wisconsin. In South Bend he taught at Nuner for twenty years before he came to Adams. During his years at Nuner, Mr. Kaeppler coached in all sports and taught a varied number of subjects. Mr. Kaeppler is married and has one son, Kent, in the fifth grade at Jefferson.

Mr. Kaeppler likes Adams but he says that he is a long way from being adjusted to the building. He also said, "I think Adams has a wonderful

St. Olaf's concert brought out two new twosomes — Kathleen Rose and Joe Rich and Sharon Pritz and Bob Lent.

It seems that Austin Jackson just can't keep awake in sixth hour English.

Why is Jerry Thompson afraid to return keys to the typing room second hour?

Rumor has it that Chuck Oberlin is interested in Sarah Walton. Can it be that he is also interested in Punky Crowe's boots and Jana Borecky's television set?

Janet Burke and Bob Shula have been seen together lately. Can it be just mutual friendship?

Bob Lent was applauded for his magnificent performance of a Beethoven Symphony in his English class.

Our congratulations to Pat Moynihan, who succeeded in spraying her associates with hand lotion during a recent fire drill.

Did you know that Mr. Thompson has a suede vest just like Bob Shula's?

Do we see a flame kindling between Pody Shafer and Bob Eddy?

How does Dixie Nidiffer find time to do her homework and write to Bob, Bill and even Peaches? Perhaps she is tutored in the ways of a time budget by her friend who drives the yellow convertible.

We extend our congratulations to the new steadies Kathy Brady and Norm Grimshaw, Nancy Weintraub and Mark Lielart, Gladys Miller and Paul Rice, Shirley Jester and Ed Thom (N. W. H. '51), Patri Carlton and Trent Hilborn, and Pat Zeider and Dale Lee.

Could it be that we should announce that Pat McNamara is John's brother? No resemblance, but they are brothers.

And then we have Sonja Hoover, who is worried about Pat McKeon's trip to Minnesota this summer. No doubt she is finding consolation in the knowledge that Fred LaCosse will be home from Wabash soon.

Newest addition to the cheering squad: Bonnie Angus.

Please beware Marilyn Moran, who almost got to her total of one-hundred red convertibles. How could she help but reach the top, with Ed Quinn and Bob Beale as assistants?

The Week's Eagles "GEMS" FOUND IN TYPING BOOK

Joseph Al Kreitzman, president of the Monogram Club, was born on July 10, 1935. Before attending Adams, he went to Horace Mann School in Gary, and Jefferson School in South Bend. He stands six feet tall, weighs one hundred sixty-five pounds, and has blue eyes and blonde hair. Joe is kept busy with his duties as vice-president of the senior class and vice-president of the Student Council. He is also a member of the basketball, cross country and track teams. While he was a junior he served on the junior cabinet.

Outside of school Joe is a member of the Sunnyside Presbyterian Church and serves as youth moderator there. He is also a member of DeMolay. Joe enjoys all sports, particularly tennis, golf, and basketball. He likes to spend his spare time listening to "Rock of Gibraltar" and eating chicken-in-the-rough and French fries. Joe likes to see a girl dressed in a wine-colored sweater and a grey skirt. He likes an easy-going person who is intelligent and has a good sense of humor. He dislikes one who is "stuck on himself" and discourteous to others. If you want to stay friends with Joe, don't avoid answering the questions he asks.

Judy Hunneshagen, treasurer of the senior class and of the Student Council, was born on March 11, 1934. She weighs 114 pounds, is 5' 4", and has hazel eyes and brown hair. A member of the Drama Club board, Judy is planning to attend either Butler or Indiana University after her graduation. She likes to dance, knit, and listen to records in her spare time, and especially enjoys the music of Stan Kenton. Judy is a member of the senior cabinet, and is in charge of junior pictures on the Album staff. She likes to see a fellow wearing navy trousers, argyles, and light blue sweater over a white shirt. Her pet peeve in the male department is a fellow who wears unshined cordovans.

Perhaps some of you, who have never had the honor of participating in a typing class, are intrigued by those ponderous red books used in typing classes. Those of us who have taken typing, know of the vast scope of the meaningful philosophy expressed throughout this book. On the philosophical side, I thought this passage to be particularly opportune for the tumultuous time in which we live.

"of it of it that that what what you are what you are it hit hit."

What insight into human frailties must the author have had to produce such a masterpiece of thinking. Wouldn't poor old Plato and Aristotle really be put to shame if they were to read that?

In addition to the mature philosophies expounded throughout the book, there are also perfect gems of journalism.

fdsa jkl; he led; he led a lad, she has a fur.

Could Keats or Shelly have expressed it half as well? Just the other day I came across a particularly moving passage which had some of the quaint nostalgia of Alcott's writing.

"3d 7j 37 37 Sue is 37. I read 73 pages.

We used 37 stamps 3d#d d#d Bill #73 is paid.

The other day when I was hunting and pecking away, I came across this little ditty. While it is not guaranteed to make you shiver and shake, it is guaranteed to do something for you. Most often it causes a hormone to be released stimulating the hair-tearing, mouth-foaming, and eye-rolling nerves into action.

it is; it is his; if it is his; if it is his light;
Hal had a light. Hal had just the right light.
Jake had a fight. Hal asked if he had a fair fight.

I am sure that after reading this article, all the new freshmen have definitely put typing on their four-year plans and that our enthusiastic typing students will be harassed by nightmarish remembrances.

TO LIVE AND LEARN

By JAMES J. METCALFE

If I learn just one little thing . . . This day will be worth while . . . and on the road of progress I . . . Shall pass another mile . . . It may be through experience . . . Or someone's good advice . . . Or some new article I read . . . And think it over twice . . . It need not be a genius or . . . A bit of ancient lore . . . It may be just the wisdom of . . . The guy who lives next door . . . But if I learn and profit in . . . The smallest of amounts . . . I know that I have truly lived . . . Another day that counts . . . If I increase my knowledge in . . . The lowliest of style . . . At least to that extent today . . . My life is more worth while.

EAGLES EDGE PANTHERS 51-44

Washington's Panthers forced the Adams Eagles to come from behind to take a decision in their Eastern N.I.H.S.C. game last week. Washington led at the end of each of the first three quarters by scores of 16-15, 29-25, and 38-33.

In the fourth quarter, however, it was a different story as Adams poured through 18 points to Washington's 6, Joe Brazier being the only Panther to score. Washington was led in the first three quarters by Jim Easton with 12, George Kovatch with 9, and Ron Latosinski with 7 points.

Although the quarter scores were fairly close the Panthers held brief 8 point leads at 27-19 and 37-29, just before the ends of the second and third quarters.

In the fourth period the Eagles tied the score at 38 all on Joe Kreitzman's two free throws. The Panthers moved back into the lead at 40-39 on Joe Brazier's push shot. They couldn't match the pace after this, as the Eagles steadily pulled ahead to their final margin.

Jerry Thompson led the Eagle scoring with 17 points and he was followed in order by Joe Kreitzman with 11, Larry Kedzie with 8, Rocky Ferraro with 7, Dale Gibson with 5, and Larry Van Dusen with 3 points.

"B's" Win Overtime

The Eagle "B's" fighting hard to protect their winning streak, knocked off the Washington Panthers, although it took an overtime to accomplish the feat. The game started slow and the scoring was low as the 7-3 score shows. The Eagles trailed in the first period, but in the second quarter they started their game winning drive and when the teams went to the dressing rooms at half-time Adams was on the long end of a 10-9 score.

Both teams found the range from the floor in the third period. At the end of the quarter both teams had doubled their score, however, the Panthers were far from surrendering to the hard charging Eagles as they found the range at the free throw circle and with but 1:13 to go in the game they pulled ahead 26-24. Now it was the Eagles turn to show that they had what it takes and when the final gun went off, the Eagles had tied up the game 28 all.

As the overtime started the Eagles dumped in two quick baskets which were the essence of the game. The Panthers fought hard, but could not overcome this hurdle and when the overtime gun sounded the Eagles had another win in the book, 33-30.

Good First Quarter "Frosh" Win Two Stops Auburn

The Adams Eagles turned in a good first quarter to stop the Auburn Red Devils 71-65. In the fast first quarter the Eagles jumped off to a 22-10 lead and the Red Devils got no closer than the final score. Adams held a 10-point lead until midway in the fourth period when Auburn began to close the gap.

In the furious fourth quarter the two teams combined to score 51 points to set a single quarter scoring record for this year. Auburn picked up 29 of the points, while Adams was getting 22.

Jerry Thompson and Larry Kedzie led the Eagle assault in the first period with 12 and 8 points respectively, but it was the Red Devils coolness from the floor in the first half that brought Adams victory. The half-time score was 31-18.

Auburn came back in the second half to score 47 points, but the better balanced Adams team held them at bay.

Jerry Thompson again led the Eagle point getters picking up 24. Larry Kedzie, Joe Kreitzman, Rocky Ferraro, and Tom Goldsberry picked up 14, 13, 9, and 7, in that order. Adams now has 12 wins and 5 losses going into its game with Elkhart tonight.

B-TEAM DROPS DEVILS

The first three minutes of the ball game moved very slowly, but toward the end of the first stanza, Adams picked up speed and led 11 to 8. Auburn then opened the second quarter much the same way as we ended the first, with their fast break working very smoothly. As a result, they piled up a 19 to 14 half-time advantage.

Adams then started to roll in the third quarter, and played like they were in a hurry to win the game. They rebounded and moved the ball very well as they outscored their opponents by a 16 to 4 count, and took the lead at the end of the third period, 30-23.

The Eagles then took complete control of the ball game, and again outscored the Red Devils in the final quarter to win 40 to 28. These forty points were a combined effort of Green (10), Troeger (9), Klowetter (8), Waechter (8), DeLong (3), Rodgers (1), and Rice (1). This win makes the team's record 14 and 4.

The John Adams freshmen "A" and "B" teams swept both of their games on Thursday, February 5, with twin victories over the Washington freshmen by scores of 45-29 and 21-9 respectively.

In the "A" game Adams led most of the way, jumping to a 14-5 lead at the end of the first quarter. The game was on even terms in the second quarter as Adams kept the same margin by 24-15. Washington tried to rally in the third quarter, but Adams stalled the rally and led 31-25 at the three-quarter mark. Then, Adams iced the game by pouring it on and won 45-29. Don Severeid was high point man with 11 points and Tom Angus countered with 10 points.

In the second game the "B's" grabbed a victory from the Panther "B's" by the score of 21-9. Clifford Salkeld was high-point man with 12 points. This game was only 15 minutes long, because the "A" game was due to start at that time.

Eagles to Face Blazers

Going into tonight's game, the Eagles will have their work cut out for them in several ways. First, Adams will be facing the defending Regional Champs, and the team that is now sharing the top spot in the Conference. Next the Eagles will be trying to break a 32 game winning streak on Elkhart's small home court. Last but not least they will be facing one of the best rebounding clubs in the state. Our record, going into tonight's game, is 12 and 5; as compared to a 15 and 3 record thus far compiled by the Blue-Blazers.

INTRAMURAL

Dyszkiewicz, with 12 points, led his teammates to a 34 to 21 victory over Jones in this week's intramural play. This moves them into a three-way second place tie. Phil and Worley paced the losers with 9 points each. Hawblitzel defeated Berta 17 to 12 in a low-scoring game. This dropped Berta into second place, but also moved Hawblitzel up to the same position. Halterman regained undisputed first place by downing Finch 37 to 24. Miller led the winners with 12 and McHenry scored 11 for the losers. In the final game McCallister trounced Quinn 47 to 34. McCallister dunked in 19 to aid the victors while Quinn scored 13 in the losing effort.
