Guidance Program Ends

On May 25, in the auditorium, Reverend Daniel W. Fowler, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church spoke to the members of the junior class about the relationship among our home, school, and community in regard to moral and spiritual values. In doing so he concluded the series of programs planned by the junior guidance committee chairmaned by Nancy MacIvor.

At an earlier Tuesday morning meeting Richard Bolesky and Margaret Carter, both seniors at Purdue and Adams alumni, spoke in regard to the gap between high school and college.

On another Tuesday Judge Daniel Pyle discussed the topic, "We, the Citizens."

Miss Farner as faculty representative assisted the planning committee in arranging these programs.

AN OPEN LETTER TO JUNIORS

In a few weeks we shall all probably be calling ourselves seniors. Just to get ready for that day of triumph, why don't we follow Kent Keller's famous suggestion which he made in an assembly — try on the shoes of the seniors just for size — not literally this time. They're a little large aren't they? Yes, the seniors shoes are big because they have a big job to do. Will we be able to fill them by next September?

Just a moment — why should we bother growing into the shoes of the seniors? What is a senior besides just another name? Why will we as seniors be important to the school? We seniors will be in a position to greatly influence the type of school we will have next year through our influence over the remainder of the student body. We will still be "one of the crowd" and yet will also hold the position of an ideal in relationship to the underclassmen. The seniors set the pace of attitude and action for the school year. If the seniors show good sportsmanship in athletics and an interest and cooperative attitude, it will follow that the other students will copy these attributes. Unluckily, however, both our attributes and our faults emulated by other students and put on the "do" list as just "the" thing to do. Besides as an influence over incoming students, the position of senior is important because on the seniors fall the job of directing school clubs and activities. The position of senior offers problems and yet at the same time it offers a challenge to leave Adams a better school when we graduate than when we entered as freshmen.

Perhaps in order to see more clearly what our job will be next year, think about the seniors that you know and try to define the qualities that make them leaders. I think we all know many qualities such as friendliness, enthusiasm, and leadership, but it doesn't help very much toward being a better senior leader just to list them or recite them.

We may, however, prepare actively to become seniors by accepting responsibilities now, by following and co-operating with the present leaders of the student body, and by accepting the leadership of small groups and leading them in the right direction so that we shall be better qualified to take on the heavy responsibility of senior leadership next year. We may also prepare for senior leadership by immediately adopting a cheerful attitude of understanding and friendliness so that in the fall the new freshmen won't be frightened by that "over serious senior look." Let's discard that blaze, aloof attitude and show through our enthusiasm, maturity, and interest that we still have a great deal to learn and let the underclassmen in on our little secret that we aren't quite perfect yet.

—Nancy MacIvor.

WORDS OF THE WISE

Happiness, in one respect, is like potato salad — when shared with others it's a picnic.

A dictionary is frowned upon by women because it has the first and last word.

The shortest interval of time is between the change of the traffic light and the honk from the car behind.

Capital punishment is said to be the anxiety a person feels for the lack of funds.

You cannot convince an insurance company that life begins at forty.

The foolish and the dead alone never change their opinions.

A small item in the Henry Ford archives reveals something of the industrialist's philosophy. It is a little card he had saved on which was printed the words: "Help the Other Fellow." Underneath, Ford had written in: "To help himself!"

Talk about a case of love's labor lost! Poor Jess! I guess Mr. Crowe just doesn't realize his interest in the Library fourth hour.

'Tis rumored there's a new fad among the gals. Hear tell the instigators were Mary Orzech and Pat Bourdon. How 'bout it, instigators?

Vital item of interest to Mr. Laurita: In case there would be an open in the broad jump on our track team, Lynne Lachmann could fill in quite expertly. She proved her kangaroo skills at the lake last week.

Gwen Garwood isn't satisfied with the regular argyle pattern it seems. Her latest socks have beer mugs with angora foam, no less!

Pears Pat Moynihan and Tom Haugel have been seeing quite a bit of each other lately. Sharon Reber and Jim Miller have been, too! Results of the Prom, maybe?

Nikki DeRose and Dave Selby have agreed to disagree.

Seniors: If you are curious about what to do after 12:00 p. m. on the college campus next fall, ask Mr. Carroll — homerome 101 or phone 2-7527.

Please take note: Maggie Sue Reed and Dick Shaw (Alum.) are going steady (again).

Noticed any seniors moving uncomfortably 'bout lately? Seems some certain "upperclassmen" held a "Poison Ivy Prom" the next day at Cherry Beach. Results? Quite a few cases of the "itches" for Jim Miller, Marilyn Wood, and Sue Armstrong.

Sally Buchanan and Chuck Taylor are making a date duo once more.

What goes with DeeDee Wicker's tete-a-tetes with Mr. Krider?

Somebody should give Dave Engel a sleeping pill as an award for his fine performance last Wednesday morning!

One of the seniors is really a fish at heart. At least, he was still going strong late Sunday afternoon; just one of a few haggard seniors left over from the Prom.

Bein' seen by us'ns: Shirley Johnson and George Biggs; Bev Norton and Bill Stevenson; Linn Wickizer and Jo Ann Bartels; Jack Venderly and Linda Bussert; Bill Walton and Marcia Hoelscher; Jim Hoehn and Helen Williams; Punky Crowe and Dick Green.

Steadies of the moment include: Bruce Dwyer and Lynne Heintzelman; Lynne Thomas and Charlie Morse; Tom Smith and Janet Golba; Bev Miller and Les Selig (Alum.) one year; Rita Stull and Van Young (Buchanan).

Congratulations to Carol Korlowicz upon receiving her engagement ring from Hanny Distch (Alum.).

Isn't it odd that Susie Frehse and Chuck Christman should be seen reading a newspaper through the front windshield of his car at an "outie"?

Broken strings: Jay Charon and Marilyn Mueller; Jim Dincolo and Helen Williams.

Just Be Happy With What Ys' Got

Since ever'ons is as busy as a beaver 'round this time of year, it brings me to mind a story I heard long 'go, way befo' you was born. Et's about Bre'r Beaver.

Now Bre'r Beaver was sorta queer. He weren't born right like you an' me was; he didn't have no teet'. Thaz right, the whole fronta his mouf was naked. And o'course he couldn't chew no how. Him was plum out o'luck and teet'. But Bre'r Beaver didn't care none. Him was as happy a beaver as you ever seen.

Bre'r Beaver was the oldest o' his brothers and sissuhs, so naturally he learned to swim first. He had long pow'ful strokes and had a natural talent for swimmin' it looked like. But the rest o' his brothers and sissuhs had a sure 'nuff hard time learnin' the swimmin' skills.

One day Mrs. Beaver had to go to the dentist in town, so she left Bre'r Beaver to sorta beaver sit. While Bre'r Beaver were a sittin' thar watchin' the lil' kiddies run 'bout, him heard a huge splash!!! He looked in the water and see'd his lil' sissuh, Ima Beaver, just thrashin' about and raising cane in the water. O' course she couldn't swim fer diddle and ever'one thinkd she were a gonner.

She were under, but Bre'r Beaver dove in headlong and grabbed her in his mouf. Yo' see, wif no teet' der, he could carry her easy like.

So Ima was saved, and was Bre'r Beaver ever a hero! He was glad den dat he didn't have no teet'. And dat kin go fer you, too, son. If'n sometime you' really wonda if yo' got all your'e 'sposed to have and yo' kinda tend to let go an' gib way, I think if yo' perk up a bit and think 'about what you doz got, y'all get along fine.

—By Gwen Garwood.

Seen together: Ginger Anderson and Phil DeLong; Rosie Ferraro and Dick Phoelman (St. Joe); Kathy DeLeury and Dick Smith.

Who is this way up in Benton Harbor that Naomi Shulman is talking about?

More finished duos of late: Liz Tarvin and Bob Johnson; Jana Borecky and Chuck Oberlin; Jeanne Wiess and Chuck Taylor.

Wedel Captures Third in State Meet

Dick Wedel, Adams only participating cinderman in the Hoosier state meet, took a third in the grueling 440-yard dash. He finished behind Clyde Austin of Washington and Len Snyder of Fort Wayne North.

Max Truex smashed the national interscholastic record in the mile, running it in a terrific 4 minutes and 20.4 seconds. Abell of Riley won both the hurdle events.

Gary Roosevelt took team honors with 20 points. This low score illustrates the tight race that took place in the meet.

CENTRAL TAKES CITY

Central's track team walked away with the city championship last Tuesday. Adams, last year champs finished fourth, while Riley took second and Washington a third. Central took six firsts, Riley four and Washington three. Adams failed to tally a first place.

Dick Wedel collected  $6\frac{1}{2}$  of Adams total of seventeen. He placed second in the 100-yard dash and the 440. He was also on the mile relay team that collected two points. Other contributors to the Adams scoring were Pete Smith who took a second in the mile run and Jim Sostack who collected a third in the high hurdles. Adams half mile relay was able to collect four points. It consisted of Conley, Skodinski, Osmon and Troeger.

The final score was Central 62, Riley 55, Washington 31, and Adams 17.

Thinlies Lose Finale

The track team, competing in their only triangular meet of the season, met two teams from Michigan, Benton Harbor and Niles. The meet was held at Benton Harbor with the home team coming out on top with 62 points. Niles was second with 57 and Adams third with 18.

Pete Smith and Terry Heater were the only Eagles to take blue ribbons winning the mile and shot put. Other point winners for Adams were Dick Wedel, Jim Sostack, Bud Goddard, Paul Elliott, Gene Personette, and Norm Grimshaw.

Robbins Blanks Blazers

Downing Elkhart 7-0, Adams maintained a share of the league lead and avenged an earlier defeat. Adams scored 3 runs in the first inning, 3 in the fourth, and 1 in the fifth.

John Robbins, displaying excellent control, struck out 8 and didn't pass a man. Bob Klowetter paced the team with 2 hits in 4 times at bat. Elkhart managed only 3 hits, two of which were in the first inning.

Goldy Whips LaPorte 4-1

Tom Goldsberry chalked up another win at the expense of the LaPorte Slicers to keep Adams on top with Central in the conference standings. Goldsberry wiffed 12 and walked 4 in going the whole seven innings. Adams banged out four hits for four runs and committed four errors.

How Now Howe?

Using four pitchers and five hits Adams downed Howe Military 3 to 0. Harris, Severeid, Sexton, and McMillan allowed the Cadets five hits but a run never crossed the plate. Paul Edgerton slapped out 2 of our 5 safeties to lead the Eagle attack.

Crew Outlasts Saints

Rallying in the last two innings of the game, our Eagle diamond crew handed St. Joseph a 9 to 6 defeat. Things looked bad at the end of the fifth inning when St. Joe led 5 to 1 but 4 runs were tallied in each of the last two frames to "ice" the game. Tom Sternal rapped out a triple in the seventh to spark the inning. Sam Rice went all the way for Adams.
