

Tickets On Sale for Mid-Year Prom

The All-City Senior Prom, one of the highlights of senior activities, will take place on Friday, January 27, 1956. The dance will be held at the Indiana Club from 9:00 to 12:00 p.m. Tickets are now on sale for Adams seniors and alumni at $2.00 a couple. Mickey Isley and his orchestra will provide the music for the evening. There will be no corsage expense as they will not be permitted.

At 10:30, the four social chairmen of the Prom and the senior class officers of each school, with their dates, will lead a grand march. The social chairmen are Kay Anderson from Riley, Dan Millar of Central, Arline Rogunia from Washington, and Sharon Gyorgyi of Adams.

Tickets may be purchased from Larry Barnes, 106; Bill Givens, 113; James Sostack, Cafe Mezz.; Mildred Lantz, 201, Cathy Naftzger, 206; Lynne Lachmann, 207; and Barbara Waechter, 208. Do your best and buy a ticket to help make your prom a big success. Every year Adams has had a better ticket sale than the other schools. Let's show them that the Class of '56 can do it, too!

Seal Sale Amounts Named

In the article recently printed about the $222.06 collected for the T.B. Seal Sale, the names of some of the home rooms collecting the highest amounts were omitted. Room 215 turned in the most money from the sale of T.B. seals. Their total was $19.00. Rooms that sold over $10.00 received a Christmas seal bond. In this group are: 213, $18.25; 109, $11.04; 112, $10.51; 102, $10.50; 101, $10.15. Rooms that came close to the $10.00 goal are: 203, $9.91; 214, $9.17; 106, $8.01; 22, $7.70; 111, $7.47; 103, $7.26.

Keller Fencing Candidate

Kent Keller, a 1955 graduate of Adams, is a candidate for the freshman fencing squad at Yale University.

Fencing is one of the 17 branches of athletics in which Yale teams compete. At all levels of competition, more than 80 per cent of the undergraduate body of the University participate actively in some form of athletic endeavor.

While Kent attended Adams, he was on the track and cross-country squads, was president of the student council, and the valedictorian of his class.

WHICH ONE OF THE PRETTY CANDIDATES will reign as Queen of the Adams vs. Riley game, January 26?

GLEE CLUB ALUMNI REUNION HELD DEC. 23

This year the annual Glee Club alumni reunion was held in the music room at John Adams rather than in the home of the director, Mrs. Lawrence T. Pate. This year's president and vice-president, James Hoehn and Charmian Burke, respectively, and last year's president and vice-president, James Dincolo and Janet Golba, respectively, greeted approximately one hundred and fifteen alumni on Friday, December 23, from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. Ruth Jones and Carol Weldy accompanied the groups throughout the evening as they gathered about the piano to sing their favorite Glee Club songs. Punch and cookies were served from an attractive tea table. A committee of junior girls was in charge of the table.

Many colleges were represented, the University of Michigan, Purdue, DePauw, Indiana, Ball State, Yale, Franklin, and Northwestern, as well as branches of the armed services and many industries.

Tea Honors Adams Staffs

On Wednesday, December 21, from 3:30 to 4:00, the Foods II class, assisted by the Foods I class, gave a Christmas Tea for the faculty, office staff, and the maintenance staff in the home economics rooms. Dr. Alex Jardine and Miss Laura Deephouse attended as special guests.

TOWER SUBSCRIPTION RENEWAL DATE SET

Have you renewed your Tower subscription yet? To receive all issues on time, subscriptions must be renewed by February 3. The last Tower of this semester will be out on Jan. 27.

The homeroom representatives with whom renewals should be arranged are as follows: JoAnne Bartels, 101; Pat Hansen, 102; Jeanne Martin, 103; Janet Barth, 105; Nancy Champaigne, 106; Billy Williamson, 107; Dixie Davis, 108; Julie Ebeling, 109; Gwenn Flack, 110; Larry Lieberenz, 111; Patti Gollnick, 112; Pat Fenimore, 113; Judy Jacobson, 114; Tom Kuhl, 203; Susie Maurer, 204; Carol Ritter, 205; Carol Noble, 206; Suzanne Hofmann, 207; Mary Alice Wappenstein, 208; Carol Halasi, 209; Judi Sheets, 210; Becki Wetter, 211; Billie Jean Woodall, 212; Bill Rupert, 213; Sandy Sellers, 214; Janie Weidler, 215; Sue Shotola, Library; Marsha Hewitt, 22.

Each girl in the class worked on a committee. They served an assortment of Christmas cookies, nuts, and mints with tea or coffee for refreshments.

The serving room acquired an atmosphere of Christmas with its gay decorations. The class used green table cloths and the individual centerpiece was an epergne with red candles surrounded by Christmas tree ornaments.

Coronation Planned For Riley Game

On Monday, January 9, each home room selected its candidate to enter the race for basketball queen of the Riley vs. Adams game which will be played with Riley, January 26. Those candidates were: Sue Wood, 208; Nancy Champaigne, 106; Beverly Shafer, Cafe Mezz.; Connie Kuhn, 207; Linda Bussert, 201; Glenda Hackett, 113; June Verhostra, 212; Barbara McIntyre, 111; Darla Doyle, 110; JoAnne Bartels, 101; Judy Jacobson, 114; Jeanne Weiss, 215; Judi Sheets, 210; Dorothy Nickols, 103; Janice Conrey, 108; Suzanne Schwanz, 213; Judy Heron, 109; Karen Keller, 203; Freya Finch, 209; Barbara Kirkendall, 214; Shirley Krug, 22; Marilyn Rainier, 205; Sharon Wickizer, 211; Lee Ann Tuttle, 105; Judy Widmar, 107; Joyce Resler, Library; Pat Kasa, 102; Joan Gustafson, 112; Jacquie McKinney, 204.

Each of the girls was presented with a red rose tied with a blue ribbon, symbolic of Adams school colors, and introduced to the student body at the Central pep assembly on January 12.

On Monday, January 16, each home room voted for the one girl on the ballot which it felt ought to be queen. The following girls were selected: JoAnne Bartels, 101; Nancy Champaigne, 106; Glenda Hackett, 113; June Verhostra, 212; Sue Wood, 208.

STUDENT TEACHER OF THE WEEK

Miss Irene Mesko, a senior student at Indiana University, is Miss Anna-jane Puterbaugh's student teacher in room 207. She has big dark hazel eyes and very dark brown hair and stands 5'8" tall. Miss Mesko has lived in the South Bend area most of her life, and she graduated from Greene Township High School. Having almost completed her college requirements, she will graduate from I. U. in February. She has majored in General Business, and she has a minor in Social Studies. Miss Mesko would like to teach either in northern Indiana or in the Southwest. She said that John Adams would be fine with her. She enjoys teaching here, and she likes the students. Miss Mesko loves a good meal of breaded chicken. She likes to swim and read, among other things, in her spare time. Her favorite color is red, of course. (Indiana's school colors are crimson and cream.)

SOMETHING TO WATCH FOR

Joe Snob is considered a very popular boy around school. He's in all the clubs, works hard (so everyone thinks), and he even speaks to people who speak to him in the halls. What is the reason for all this work? Surely it's not school spirit or loyalty. Oh, come now, Joe! No, it's not loyalty or any other virtuous cause. It's because Joe is an egotistical, stuck up, snob. In other words, he likes the limelight; he basks in it.

All the kids are envious of Joe because he holds offices in so many clubs and is on so many committees, but if some kind of a poll were taken, very few people, if any, would say that Joe was really their friend. Joe would smile with all sweetness to your face, but the minute you turned your back, he probably would say something unkind about you.

Do you know of anyone who is like Joe Snob? If you do, you'd better watch out. Don't be too jealous of him. One of these days, he's going to be pulled out of the limelight with a big thud!

Now not everyone who adheres to these outside descriptions is a Joe Snob, but it's up to you to find out which ones are which. — Charlotte Brambel.

Et Cetera: Let's get busy and buy those Robin Hood hats! Then let's wear them to all of the games, and that means YOU! . . . The team is out to stop their nosedive against LaPorte tonight, so get there and help to cheer them on to victory!! Good Luck, Team!

Know Your Teachers

1. Here is a teacher who has great fun keeping the kids in the lunch line. Her hobby is sports and her pet peeve is Monday. She seems to like steak as a favorite food.

This teacher was practice teaching here at Adams last year. She has bluegreen eyes and brown hair. She attended Indiana State Teacher's College and she will be seen driving a '53 Buick.

This teacher has no trouble keeping her students in line and interested . . . especially the male students. Can you guess who she is?

2. This teacher keeps himself rather busy being baseball coach and freshman football coach. You'll find him in the cafeteria during "B" lunch hour.

His pet peeve is to go to the show and have the person behind him put his feet on this teacher's chair and push.

His favorite food is steak. You'll see him driving a Pontiac Station wagon. He attended Central Normal Teacher's College. Of course, you know who this teacher is.

3. Here we have a teacher who is the senior class sponsor. She hails from room 207 where she teaches business courses.

You can find her and her student teacher enjoying a "C" lunch hour. As a hobby, she likes to sew or do just about anything with her hands.

Her favorite in the food category is French fried shrimp. She can be seen driving a Chevrolet. Her pet peeve is individuals who forget to say, "Thank you." Can you guess who this teacher is?

4. Hi-Y seems to keep this teacher rather busy. If you come to the basketball games, and we surely hope that you do, you most likely will see him on duty.

His hobbies are gardening and working with plastic. His pet peeves are boys with ducktail haircuts and boys who don't wear a belt.

His favorite food is pork chops. He can usually be found in either room 106 or the machine shop.

He usually walks to school since he lives so close, but he can be found driving a Ford. Here at Adams he has a daughter and a son. Now, you name this teacher! — Susan Cole.

WORD WISE

Since one of our main reasons for going to school is to expand our vocabulary, today we will have a lesson on word definitions. Maybe if you would look them up in the dictionary, the definitions would be a little different, but that makes no difference.

Senior picture—What a senior can use in case he has an accident in chemistry.

Quarterback—The back side of a quarter.

Crinoline slip—An article of clothing to make fat girls look fatter and thin girls look bottom heavy.

Date—Something everyone "eats up."

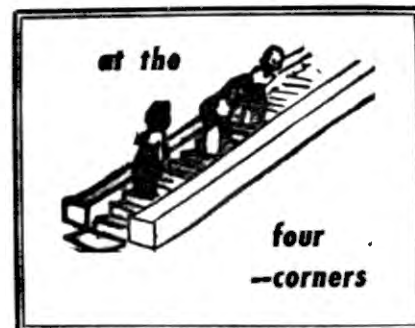

Mirror—An object ugly girls hate and pretty girls love.

Shorthand—Frustrated chicken.

Student directory—The place to go when you're looking for a date.

Frustrated—Those seniors who can't find a date for the Mid-Year Prom.

At last! This is the certain year in four that every girl, who is even half way normal, likes to go to parties, and loves to spend even a little bit of her time with a guy, has been waiting for. Of course, it's leap year.

Since these years are four years apart, unfortunately, by the time the next leap year comes, we may all be old and grey. So girls! One and all! If you have ever wanted to leap, now's your chance. And you boys better watch out. You may find yourselves going steady within a few months if girls are like they've always been.

Sharon Barts has already leaped! Just a few days after the new year began, she asked Rich to go steady. It was time she did something about it. He asked her first about two months ago.

Here are a few words of great importance to every Adamsite. Bob Ziker, take over!

"From the talk floating around town, everyone seems to have fallen in love . . . with our colorful Robin Hood hats. Other schools are not only jealous, but are becoming panicky for an original idea to compare with our hats.

"Just pretend you are visiting Adams in a basketball game and see all the Adams students wearing these hats. You're going to say, 'What a cool school, dad.'

"I think everyone in the entire student body sees the need for the hats and has a good time wearing them and cheering Adams on to victory."

A new addition to the steady list is Ellen d'Alelio and Terry Brady. The proof is a certain ring that Ellen is wearing around her neck.

Congratulations to Linda Bussert and Jack Venderly. They're engaged. If you see Linda walking around the halls in the morning looking rather lost, it's because Jack is going to Central in the morning. Of course, he still is a 100% Adamsite, but they have a certain subject there that he wants to take.

By now everybody knows that Wayne Benner has found his perfect girl. He's now going steady with Joan Burkhart from Central. (Sorry we had to mention that school's name twice, but we hope you'll forgive us.)

Also dating quite a bit lately are Barbara Waechter and Tom Goldsberry (Western Michigan and Mr. Goldsberry's son).

From an unknown source, we hear that a very close relative of one of our cheerleaders is musically inclined. Who could this be, Johnny Guitar?

Eagles Attempt To Stop Nosedive Tonight

The John Adams Eagles will meet the LaPorte Slicers at the LaPorte Gym, Friday, January 20. The Slicers boast Bob Wilkinson, who will attempt to better the Eagles' Jerry Thompson's record 42 points. The Eagles will boast no one big scoring threat, but a big, well-rounded team. The Eagles will be seeking their first conference win. The Eagles will meet the Columbus Bulldogs the following night at home.

Cagers Lose to Mish.

A fourth quarter rally of the John Adams Eagles fell short January 5 and Leroy Johnson and Company won a 71 to 66 decision. Johnson tucked in 27 points, ten buckets and 7 free-throws, to take high point honors. Jim Carnes, a Mishawaka guard pumped in 17 points for a very respectable evening's score. Four Eagles got into the double figures column, Paul Edgerton collected 12 to lead the Eagles, but Wesley Rachels and Roland Davis each collected 11, while Ken Parker put in 10.

The Mishawaka Cavemen led easily through the first half and continued unabated through the third period, but when two starters were benched with five personals and Johnson took to the bench with four, the Eagles started to move. Adams began to use a press that hogtied the Cavemen. In the first five minutes of the fourth quarter the Eagles raced from a 60 to 42 score to a 60 to 52 score. Roland Davis, Don Moffet and Ken Parker combined to

EAGLE WRESTLERS DOWN HOWE

The Eagle wrestling team made it 3 wins in a row when they trounced Howe Military 38 to 8 at Adams Friday, January 13. This victory avenged our defeat last year at the hands of the cadets. Coach Murphy's boys have showed great promises thus far.

Winners by pins for Adams were Hoyt, Williams, Conley, and Nickols. Hogan, Sheolnik, Watkins, Scott, Oler, and Captain Baird all won their matches on decisions.

—John Ross.

bring the score up to 64 to 61. Parker then stole a pass at mid-court and scored to bring the Eagles to within one point of the Cavemen. Johnson then dissipated all Eagle hopes with a quick five points. The Eagles managed to get three more points and really give Mishawaka a scare but the big center turned out to be the big difference.

Tankers Even Record

The John Adams Tankers evened their swimming record at 3-3 by downing LaPorte, 46-31, and Gary Lew Wallace, 42-35 during the past week. Olander, Barnette, Hoehn, Fett, and the medley relay team of Givens, Kowals, Fitzsimons, and Stowers took first place honors against LaPorte to lead the team to victory. In the Lew Wallace meet, Fett and Olander sparked the Eagles with double victories while Hoehn, Fitzsimons, and Hartke also won their individual events.

—Bob Fitzsimons.

Bears Defeat Beagles

The Central basketball team visited the Adams Auditorium Thursday, January 12, and in the preliminary game, the Bear five set down Coach Rensberger's B'teamers 47 to 34.

Jerry Alford was the high contributor to the Eagle cause with 15 points. Adams started Alford and Rowe at guards, Caron and Cates at forward, and Marvel at center.

—Pete Sherman.

Central Downs Eagles

The Adams Eagles again met defeat January 12 at the hands of the fine Central Bears 75 to 49. Central impressed everyone with a balanced scoring attack with all five starters making double figures. Dale Rems and John Coalman each netted 15 points to lead the explosive Bear attack. Roland Davis again led the Eagle attack this time with 10 points.

The Coalman brothers, John and Tulie, along with veteran Rems, took complete charge of both backboards giving Central control of the ball for the most part.

The game was saddened more for the Adams cause because guard Ken Parker re-injured his leg. The Adams record now stands at 3 wins and 10 losses.
