

SUE WOOD CROWNED 1956 BASKETBALL QUEEN

Sandra Roberts To Be Prom Guest

Sandra Roberts, an Adams senior, will be the guest of John Robbins, senior class president, for the Mid-Year Prom tonight.

Pictured above is Sandra Roberts, senior from homeroom cafe mezz., who will be the guest of John Robbins, senior class president, at the Mid-Year Prom.

Sharon Gyorgyi is the social chairman for the prom from John Adams. She, along with Kay Anderson from Riley, Dan Millar of Central, and Arline Rogunia from Washington has helped to coordinate all plans for the dance.

Tickets are now on sale for Adams seniors and alumni at $2.00 a couple. The following people may be contacted for tickets today: Larry Barnes, 106; Bill Givens, 113; James Sostack, Cafe Mezz.; Mildred Lantz, 201; Cathy Naftzger, 206; Lynne Lachmann, 207; and Barbara Waechter, 208.

Letter from Korean Orphan

September, 1955.

Dear Friends of
Adams High School:

Thank you very much for your help. I am enjoying my schooling without any worry. After the school I like to hunt insects such as dragon fly and locust.

I am always thinking very hard to learn much and be a great person in my future.

I like flower, dog, and pig very much.

Though I thought I have many things like to tell you I cannot write them all in this letter.

I shall close for now sending my best wishes.

With much love and thanks,
Yours very lovingly,
No Jae Sung K-2038.

USHERS EARN AWARDS

The Ushers Club has had a very busy season so far this year. They have been on duty for South Bend Symphony Concerts, Civic Music programs, football games, all of the Adams home basketball games, and the holiday tourney.

Each time an usher participates in an activity of the Ushers Club, he receives one point for his participation. Awards are given when an usher meets his requirements.

Devere Guernsey has been awarded the Ushers Club gold pin set with rubies.

Two ushers have received the gold pin set with pearls. These ushers are Scott King and Scott Ramsey.

The ushers who have earned the right to wear the regular Ushers Club gold pin are Paul Goodwin, Fred Stave, Robert Sweet, and Norman Mayer.

A second chevron award has been earned by Arthur Hobbs and Larry Miller.

The first chevron award has been made to Wayne Krieg, Ronald Smith, Don Guernsey, Tom Harbin, and Donald Baker.

Mr. Volney C. Weir is the Ushers Club sponsor and Robert Harbin is president, Devere Guernsey is vice-president, Robert Wilson is recording secretary, Fred Stave is activities secretary, and Scott King is treasurer.

Tri-Hi and Hi-Y Sponsor Annual "Swingheart Sway"

On Friday, February 10, the 18th annual "Swingheart Sway" dance will be given at the Indiana Club by the Tri-Hi and Hi-Y clubs of St. Joseph County. The dance is semi-formal and will be held from 9:00 to 12:00 p. m. No flowers will be permitted since this is a school affair.

The music will be furnished by the Eddie Kay Orchestra. As has been done in the past, a door prize will be given. The price of tickets is $1.75 per couple, tax included, and beginning the first of next week may be purchased by students from any Hi-Y member.

Remember to renew your subscription to the TOWER before February 3, 1956!

WHERE ARE THEY?

In 1955 there were 233 graduates of John Adams in January and June. Of these there are ninety-five in four-year accredited colleges and twenty-three in training less than college or part time at I. U. Extension. These four-year college students are in thirty-two different colleges across the nation. There are twenty-two at Indiana University, twenty-one at Purdue, two are on the Eastern Coast, two are in Florida and one is in California. This makes an average of 50.64% who are continuing their education beyond high school.

Sixty-one boys and girls have obtained various business positions and thirty-one boys are in industrial occupations or service. All of these except three are employed in the South Bend-Mishawaka area. The other three are scattered from Elkhart to Ohio to California, making an average of 39.49% of the 1955 graduates who have full-time employment. There are only six who are unemployed as yet.

Marriage has claimed two boys and eleven girls. Uncle Sam acquired the remaining graduates whose number totals twenty-one.

Lunchroom Employees Six Women, Twelve Students

The John Adams lunchroom, almost three years old, serves between 400 to 450 students daily. This is approximately 100 more students than last year. The staff consists of six women and twelve students.

Mrs. June Strickler is the lunchroom manager. Before she came to John Adams she was a teacher of Home Economics and was a cafeteria manager in Detroit, Michigan.

Mrs. Strickler is assisted in her management by Mrs. Wava Stone, head cook, Mrs. Hazel Wenger, in charge of pastries, Mrs. Margaret Lederer, Mrs. Hazel Brant, and Mrs. Stella Davis.

The student help consists of Gene Personnett, head cashier. Other helpers are Robert Wilson, Ed Kuzma, Mary Ann Kinsey, Lance Hanna, John Snyder, Larry Martz, Tom Tucker, Marshall Nelson, James Fenimore, LaMar Ritenour, and Art Cotherman. These students dry trays, help with the dishes, or assist in other phases of cafeteria work when they are needed.

HI-Y BOYS ESCORT GIRLS

Sue Wood, a senior from home room 208, was crowned queen of the Adams vs. Riley basketball game during half time, January 26, 1956. Sue and members of her court, Nancy Champaigne, Glenda Hackett, JoAnne Bartels, and June Verhostra, were presented to the audience at half time escorted by members of the John Adams Hi-Y club as were Riley queen Carol Land and members of her court, Kathy Krauser, Sharon Kronewitter, Roberta Terry, and Mary Alice Mikel.

Show-Ya-Round for Frosh

One hundred and one new freshmen will be welcomed to John Adams with a Show-Ya-Round Tour on Friday, January 27 at 10:00 a. m. Twenty Student Council members will act as guides.

On February 7, 14, and 21 the 9B's will attend assemblies where club presidents and other school club leaders will give speeches and show displays of the club or activities' work.

The freshman home rooms will be 201 and the Cafe Mezz.

COUNCIL TO HONOR STRAIGHT-A STUDENTS

The Student Council is planning to give another breakfast honoring the students who receive straight A's in solid subjects this semester. The breakfast will be held on February 9, from 8:00 to 9:00 a. m., in the cafeteria. Dr. Alex Jardine will be the guest speaker.

13B's Leave January 27

The 13B's who have met their high school requirements and are leaving at the end of this semester are: Gloria Chambers, Phillip Darr, James Dillman, James Foos, Colleen Grayson, Elaine Hartz, Dave Kollar, Tom Marriat, James Martz, Robert Metcalfe, James McCoy, and Carol Wilhite. They will return on June 5 for graduation exercises.

REINCARNATION OF HOPE 1956

A squat, pathetic figure, shoulders slumped,
Plods slowly through the snow.
A lone brown shape with battered hat
Carrying a threadbare carpet bag.
But this form has a mind, has sorrows, hope, a soul,
Groping, shuffling, seeking, yet not knowing
What he seeks,
Looking, but unsure what it is he hopes to see,
Hungry, halting, desperate for a will, a goal,
Continually falling short, rising, turning again
He loses hope.
He scuffs the snow,
Then smoothes it out again and sighs.

—Jim McCoy.

Et cetera: May we extend bouquets to our pretty queen, Sue Wood, and her court, Nancy Champaigne, Glenda Hackett, June Verhostra, and JoAnne Bartels. You certainly painted a pretty picture for Adams last night at half time! And brickbats to those students who didn't show at the Columbus game! Our team really showed their stuff!

EAGLE OF THE WEEK

Our "Eagle of the Week" this week hails from home room 113. This brown-haired, hazel-eyed, 5-foot-three-and-a-half-inch senior is Sharon Gyorgyi. She was born on July 22, 1938.

Sharon is on the Tower staff, is one of the club editors of the Album, a member of the Senior Guidance Committee, on the Senior Cabinet, and she also is the Senior Class secretary and belongs to the booster club. She has also been accepted into the National Honor Society.

Sharon's favorite movie was "Magnificent Obsession," and she likes to watch football on television. Her favorite recording star is Perry Como, but she has no choice as to a favorite record. As to a favorite food, Sharon likes them all, especially filet mignon.

She likes to see a boy dressed in a mint green shirt, brown pants, mint green and brown argyles and cordovan chukka boots.

Sharon's opinion of Adams is that it's a good school for learning with a little room for improvement in school spirit.

Her pet peeve is people who put on a false front.

Among many memorable events at Adams, Sharon has three outstanding ones. First is her invitation into the National Honor Society, second was when Keith was voted football captain, and third was the success of our football team this year.

After graduation, Sharon may go to business college, but she is sure she is going to be her dad's private secretary.

—Linda Flick.

TODAY'S EASY LESSON

"Attention, boys and girls! A little less noise, please! Now today we are going to have a little spelling quiz. I want you all to learn how to spell JOHN ADAMS HIGH SCHOOL. Anyone who thinks he can spell it, please raise his hand." (Silence falls and hits the teacher with surprise.)

"Why, yes, Nancy. You had your hand up. Would you like to try to spell it?"

"J is for JUSTICE that Mr. Crowe decided to forget

O is for the ONE and ONLY that Lynn Berry is always writing to. (His name is Paul Healey.)

H is for the new HIT "Rock and Roll Waltz" by Kay Starr

N is for the NICE feeling from receiving A's

A is for the ADORABLE girls who were chosen to be on the Queen's Court

D is for DUMB feeling that you get when taking a test for Mr. Krider

A is for ANDY Cobb who has very special interests at Culver nowadays

M is for the MISTLETOE which we didn't really need at all

S is for the SHOUTING that was heard from the Adams cheering section during the Central game

H is for the HEAVIEST guy in school who still hasn't been chosen between three on the basketball team

I is for the INTEREST that everyone showed who went to the wrestling meet last week

G is for GIRLS who have their chance to leap this year

H is for HIGHPOINT man on the basketball team who usually is Deacon Davis.

S is for the SCHOOL SPIRIT that the student body is finally beginning to show

C is for CORNER to stand in for those who misspell school

H is for the HALLOWED HALLS of John Adams High which we all revere

O is for the ORIOLE that feeds many of our Adamsites during and after school

O is for the OBSTINATE people who won't come to the basketball games and wrestling meets

L is for LIKEABLE student teachers which we will miss next semester.

"Well, that was wonderful, Nancy. You certainly know a lot about Adams. I guess you'll get an A on your report card for this semester."

This weekend is going to be a pretty big one for the seniors, 'cause tonight is the Mid-Year Prom. To acquaint you with some of the couples who will be seen at the dance, a little "atom" has been sent by the editors of this paper to find out who's going. Here is his report:

"It seems likes jist bout everybody's agoin ter this here dance tomarreee night. Thers agoin ter be quite a buncha partis befer the dance 'n ther'll probly be some afterwords to.

"I was askin' some kids rounhere who they's goin wit, 'n I com'd up wit quite a list. "Oh, jist one more thing. Tomoree will be an extrispecial day fer Gwin Garforest and Pauline Edgewater. It'll be there one yearth annavorsory. (Im sori. I dont think i spelled that wert rite.)"

Thank you, atom. (We apologize to you for his poor English. He's quite young for an atom and he hasn't had Mr. Krider for English yet.)

We hope that you all are very satisfied with your report cards. It's getting to be a habit with this school to hand them out every nine weeks. There's really not much we can do about it.

Belated congratulations to Norma Esarey and Larry Wygant, Joan Jacobs and David Koto, and Sandra Vandenburg and Stanley Valentine for going steady.

Also going to the Prom are Barbara Waechter and Tom Goldsberry, Sue Wood and Larry Van Dusen, Marilyn Rainier and Jim Warner, Sharon Barts and Rich Szabo, Joan Bass and Howard Matthews, and Joan Burkhart and Wayne Benner.

On the "Underclassmen Steady List" we find Marsha Hewitt and Joe Jacks, Karen Keller and Kenny Marvel, Carol Morrical and Bob Sheets, Susie Schwanz and Bob Magnuson, and Lynne Palmer and Gary Wallman.

It seems that with all the girls who like Terry Cates, there ought to be a special fan club for him.

It seems like Friday the 13th was really an unlucky day for Janice Givens (sister of Bill Takeins). What seems to be the trouble, Janice?

Congratulations to our queen who was crowned at the Adams vs. Riley game. We certainly were proud of our pretty queen and her court.

We want to thank all those people who went to the wrestling meet last Friday after school and those who went to the LaPorte and Columbus basketball games. We certainly can be proud of our teams at Adams.

DOORPULES' DILEMMA

My name is Doorpules and I am a little mothmiller that lives in Anna Hooker's purse. Now I've been living in Anna's purse for almost two years and Anna doesn't know I exist, but I've grown to know and love her. I go everywhere with her via her purse. She has a desperate problem which she is keeping all to herself! I, Doorpules, come to you on bended wings for your help and cooperation in this dreadful matter. I've overheard this and I want it kept secret — her case goes as follows:

Anna Hooker lives the average life of a senior girl, except in one respect. She has no date for the Mid-Year Prom. Poor Anna! Really, I don't know Anna too well, but she sits next to me in Mr. Crowe's fifth hour homework hall, so I've overheard the whole problem.

Now, mind me, keep this between you and me . . . this little tale of Anna's.

Anna walked into her homeroom on January 13, to find her best buddy, Patsy, had a terrific date for the prom and wished to double with her. Anna made a quick decision; everyone, just everyone goes, and she really wanted to go. Whom would she ask?

Anna thought, "Now let's see. Who do I think is sharp and nice. Oh, yes, and he must have a car, too, which automatically cuts out all Notre Dame students. Most of the sharp senior boys are caught, let's face it." (As Anna soon found out.)

Anna had thought for quite some time that this one Adams cat, Joe, was pretty sharp, but he was the "I won't be caught kind." Anna finally got up courage to call him:

"Oh, ah, hello. Is Joe there? Oh . . . this is you? This is Anna Hooker — yes, from Adams. Yes, that's me. What? Well, you see, I called to ask you a question. What? Oh, yes, the question. Ever heard of the Mid-Year Prom? Of course? Well, would you . . . want . . . to go with me? You don't want to? You don't like dancing? Oh,

AN IDEAL FINAL

According to a recent survey of high school juniors and seniors, the following is a report on what they think would be an ideal final.

1. Who discovered America and when?
2. Whose face appears on an American one dollar bill?
3. Name the two countries which touch the United States?
4. What happens if you pour water on a fire?
5. What time is it in South Bend if it's 7:00 p.m. in Chicago and Chicago and South Bend are on the same time?
6. Who was the President of the United States who played the piano and had a daughter who sang?
7. When was the War of 1812?
8. Write a paragraph on what you did last weekend.

Answers to Know Your Seniors

Bill Baird

Joan Berry
Keith Miller.

I see! Sure that's okay! I understand. Bye."

"Oh, nuts," she continued. "Am I that bad? Now what will I do?"

Now January 27 is here and so is the Mid-Year Prom. Anna has tried everything. She's even used her mother to ask Tom Tinker's mother if he has a date. No, he hasn't but he'll be in Chicago. Desperate. She's desperate. What can be done? She's even been wearing "Bewitching" behind each ear. Time marches on.

So if you know of any boy who wants a date for the prom, please get in touch with Anna Hooker or any other girl answering her description.

Eagles Face Panthers From Washington February 2

Come eight bells next Thursday city rival Washington will tussle with the Adams basketball team. Ed Jerzak is the Panthers' main scoring and backboard threat. Another veteran from last year's talented Washington squad is Ronnie Milewski (Conference Football M.V.P.) who, with other Panthers, possesses fine shooting ability. The Eagles still could not find the winning combination in last week's losses to LaPorte, 66 to 52, and Columbus, 55 to 52, although a new productive scorer was added to the starting five. The player mentioned in the preceding line is freshman Gene Phillips who in these two encounters totaled 28 points. In the home battle with the Columbus Bulldogs there was a new life or rebirth in the Adams cheering section to which the players responded. If you trust your memory back a few months you will remember that Adams beat Washington in an exciting football engagement. It is being predicted that history will repeat itself, only in basketball next Thursday, February 2, 1956.

—Bob Ziker.

Freshmen Show Increasing Promise

The freshman basketball team showed increasing promise winning their last four games.

The freshmen also support a fine record of 9 wins and 1 loss. Elkhart Roosevelt became a victim of the Eagles 47 to 27 in a conference game. Dave Christman was high point man with 10 points. The seventh win came at the hands of Michigan City 38 to 37. Dave Christman in this battle over in Michigan City netted 19 points. The Eagle win came over Elkhart North Side 47 to 32. Jim Rea was the leading scorer of the game with 15 points. Tough city rival Washington put up a great fight, but still could not overcome the boys of Adams. In this conference game the final score was in Adams favor 38 to 37.

—Ron Shapero.

MAT MEN VICTORIOUS AS SEASON WEARS ON

The Adams wrestling team won their first and second matches of the season against Bishop Noll on December 16 last year and Riley on the 19th.

The Eagles started their 2-match streak by defeating Noll 30 to 23 at Noll. Hogan, Johnson, Skodinski, Baird, and Nickols all pinned their

Interlude Editor Previews Tournament

Before I begin this article, I must say it surely was a pleasant surprise last Saturday evening when your Sport's Editor Bob Ziker asked me to write a guest shot for The TOWER.

Being an avid sport's enthusiast, I find that I like to write sports articles more than frequently for the Central INTERLUDE of which I am Editor. Well, enough for an introduction and now to the business at hand.

I told Bob that I intended to preview the coming Indiana High School Basketball Tournament. He responded in the affirmative, reminding me however, that I was writing for the Adams paper and not to make the article too much Central. Well, I won't.

Many games have been witnessed by the INTERLUDE Sport's Staff this year. By a process of pooling our information, we can arrive at some semblance of an idea of what to expect come the end of February and the first three Saturdays in March.

In looking at the South Bend Sectional, we find a very unusual situation prevalent. Your own Adams Eagles characterize the situation. Though you have a rather dismal record (excluding last night's encounter with cross-town rival Riley) Coach Warren Seaborg is building for next year. This sport's prognosticator noticed last Saturday, against Columbus, a decided number of underclassmen on the squad. So next year will prove brighter for Adams. This is pretty much the case for a number of schools in this area—building for the future.

Coach Elmer McCall's Central Bears are (partiality intended) without a doubt the strongest team in this Sectional. Whether they win the laurels this year is another question. On any given night Washington's opponents gaining 5 points each. Hoyt decisioned his man; Scholnik battled to a draw.

The first home meet with Riley was very successful for all our matmen as they shattered the Wildcats 60 to 0. In Riley's wrestling debut they took the worst possible beating a team can take, score wise. Men scoring pins for Adams were Kuhl, Hogan, Johnson, Scholnik, Skodinski, Oler, Baird, Williams, and Conley. Wilson, Hoyt, and Nickols won by forfeit. At that point the season record stood at 2 wins and a loss.

—John Ross.

Panthers could give anyone a battle, long to be remembered. For that matter, Riley's Wildcats could be tough, if Coach Stewart left men in the fray for a reasonable length of time. While we are on that subject, it seems to this scribe as if Coach Stewart at Riley would rather substitute than win a ball game. I, for the life of me can't understand his substitutions.

Back to Central—If they can stay together and keep that balanced scoring attack which they have parlayed so many times this year, then they will be hard to stop. Leroy (no defense) Johnson and his Mishawaka Cavemen are in the midst of a lousy season after last year's surprising successes. They won't cause any trouble this year.

As for St. Joseph and the county schools, well, they might upset someone, but the chances are they will kill each other off.

With a minimum of crystal ball gazing, we see Central the Sectional Champion. From there it will be Elkhart and the Bears battling for the Regionals. Of course Central would have to be our choice despite present ratings which show Elkhart rates (we should say over-rated) fifth in the State.

As far as the Semi-Finals go, the Bears should find it rough sledding from there on. But the Elkhart Regional winner gets a break in going to the Fort Wayne Semi, instead of the Lafayette Semi which will probably have rougher teams—Hammond, Hammond Noll, Lafayette, and Logansport.

While we're looking into the future, we will predict that Indianapolis Attucks (Adams lost to them) will not win the State. They will get knocked off along the way.

As for a State Champ—Well the pairings aren't even announced, the season is not over yet, luck of the draw has not emerged, and just plain luck, itself, can't be determined until the final whistle. So we won't go crazy with prognosticator's power. Let's say that we're pulling for Central, Adams, Riley, Washington, Mishawaka, or anyone who wins this Sectional, to go all the way. We might be dreaming, but it could happen.

Well, that's all for now. By the way, HOPE ADAMS BEAT RILEY LAST NIGHT.
