ADAMS STUDENTS TO GO ABROAD ON A.F.S.

A number of John Adams students have applied for the American Field Service Scholarships for trips to Europe this summer. All members of the junior class, their names will be announced when they are notified by the A.F.S. provided they are named recipients of the scholarships. The Tower will announce the winners in a future issue. The following article is a brief explanation of the American Field Service.
To qualify, a student must be 16 by June 1956, preferably from the junior class, and have had two years of study of a foreign language. The application papers for each of the candidates must have been sent before February 1, 1956 to the American Field Service in New York where final selection was made.
The AFS is an organization of volunteer ambulance drivers, formed in France during World War I, which also served the British and French armies in World War II. Since 1947 it has continued as an organization to promote good will among nations by offering scholarships to foreign teen-age students. American teenagers are being offered scholarships made possible by the enthusiasm of former AFS foreign students who are eager to give Americans the same opportunity to know their countries as they had to know the United States.

A student chosen to go abroad on this scholarship is afforded more than a routine sightseeing trip. He lives as a member of a family and as such, has the opportunity to gain friendships and learn about the people and life of the country. The AFS committee in each country is responsible for finding and screening families with whom the student will live, for placing the candidates in the home, and acting as official hosts to the Americans.
AFS arranges for all students to travel to Europe as a group and handles details and instructions concerning passports, visas, insurance, necessary clothing, etc. They arrange travel from New York to their destination and return. The travel expense which will not exceed $$ 415$ must be borne by the student or his sponsor in the community. A student should plan to take approximately $$ 200$ for pocket-money. The student has no expense for room and board as the host family takes care of this

> If anyone has found a 1956 senior class ring in study hall, 106, please return it to Marsha Root in home room 206. The ring is gold and the initials MJR are engraved on the inside of the band.

EAGLE OF THE WEEK

Gwen Garwood, a senior from home room 113, was chosen as this issue's Eagle of the Week.

She refused to reveal her weight, but she has dark blonde hair and "sorta" blue eyes.

Her many extra-curricular activities include feature editor of the TOWER, treasurer of Glee Club, secretary of Student Council, a Drama Club board member, Thespians, Booster Club and National Honor Society.

Gwen's favorite extra-curricular activity is Paul "Edgie" Edgerton, who is often with her at her locker location on the corner of Hollywood and Vine. Her favorite food is chicken.

Her favorite record is "The Great Pretender." Her favorite TV show is George Gobel.

In her very rare spare time, she likes to knit, see movies, watch basketball, baseball, and eat.

Gwen's most appealing classes are English and Social Living.
When asked this question she replied, "My pet peeve is a person who is insincere or puts on a false front."

She attended Jefferson school before coming to Adams and upon graduation, she plans to attend the University of Miami in Ohio, or Indiana University and study elementary education.

She is often teased about being plump, but naturally "Gar" takes it laughingly and says that someday she will attain her secret ambition to become a cheerleader.

EXASPERATION LTD. JUNCTION: PARENTS

It is an extremely blue Monday morning and you are involved in a dream, when the spell is broken by your mother coming into your room to remind you that it is quarter of eight. You try to tell her that you don't feel well and then she blames this terrible disease that you have contracted on the late hours you kept Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights. This infuriates you. Why does she care if you go to school or not? You had intentionally forgotten to set your alarm clock Sunday night and had hoped she would think you had gotten up at seven o'clock as per usual, but she didn't! You finally flounder out of bed and step on Junior's tinker toys which cut the bottom of your foot which is blistered from the dance you attended Saturday night. Oh well, you make your way into the bathroom, throw some water on your face, and stumble back to your room to find that the sweater you had planned to wear is gone. After asking mom where it has disappeared to, you find that your younger sister has decided to wear it and your mother thought it looked so nice on her that she should just keep it! So you put on something less glamourous, run out to the kitchen to find that your mother has forgotten to get your breakfast, so you run out the front door, books under arm, to these words: "Come home early after school, your room is a mess!" How exaperating! You know it's a mess, but you didn't have time to clean it. You are ever so glad to get out of the house, but coming to school doesn't seems like much of a consolation.

You spend the entire day deciding whether to run away or go home. When you arrive home, mom says, "I forgot to tell you about the dentist appointment I made for you at four o'clock." Instead of letting you drive the car to the dentist's office, she thinks it would be safer if you took the bus. When you leave the dentist's office, you are minus a tooth plus a swollen jaw. What if that certain "he" drops over this evening? Won't you look nice with this jaw! Why did you have to go to the dentist anyway? Upon arriving home, you are too sick to eat with the family, so your mother insists that you take some pain relief medicine which makes you feel even worse. Why won't everyone just leave you alone?

At seven o'clock "he" arrives and you are just beginning to feel better when at nine dad hollers downstairs and says, "There is school tomorrow and you haven't felt good; better go to bed now." How positively embarrassing! This is terrible! You are in bed by ten o'clock. What a day! William L. Phelps certainly had the right idea when he said: "No one should make a statement like 'Youth is the happiest time of your life without being able to accept its intellectual consequences.'"

Well, I'm not a hall guard any more. I just can't understand it!
-Linda Hammes.

Well, everyone has the Sectional fever now, and this is very common throughout the State of Indiana about this time of year. This disease will probably continue until the State Championship has been won. So let's all back the teams from South Bend and hope that one of them can go cown state!
First of all, we'd like to congratulate Mr. Litweiler and June Verhostra for putting on such a wonderful assembly for us last week. Those who took part in the assembly were John Thompson, the senior, and John Thompson, the sophomore, Tom Cox, Sandy Mitchell, John Davis, Gary Miller, Linda Harvey, Beth Ryan, and last, but certainly not least, was the pride and joy of the Heron household, Tony, their cute little black French poodle. Wanda Jo Hayes and Delbert Beyer were absent, but their projects were shown. We certianly want to express our appreciation to those who made such an enjoyable assembly for us.
We sure wish Dave Christman would make up his mind about somebody. There are a bunch of girls ready and waiting, but they don't seem to be getting anywhere.
Bill Givens has been keeping pretty steady company with Dianne Hartter lately. How about that? And say, Bob Walker, what is this we hear about you walking out on a new "bride?" These things that go on in English classes!
Carol Booth has been studying "Gookology" quite intensly lately. Now, what in the world is that, Carol?
On our steady list this week we find June Groose and Bill Mack, Pat Hansen and Jim Nash (Mich. City), Marla Carter and Bob McAllister (LaPorte), and Lois Hertal and Larry Lowman.
Nancy Aitchison and Jerry Starret (Riley) will have their one year's anniversary in just a few days. Congratulations!
Dianne Smith has broken the chain with Gary Hargraves (Niles). But Janice Taylor and Ronnie Lesher have done the opposite . . . they're back together again.
Karen Keller and Kenny Marvel have decided to call it quits, and already there are at least five girls who want to go out with him! Ruff life! The TOWER staff wishes to give their condolences to Ellen d'Alelio. It seemed her drive shaft fell out while she was cruising around with Tim Pettit, Gwen Garwood, Charmian Burke, and the two Bolling sisters after Glee Club. We also hear that Dave Getzinger, Harold King, and Larry Callsen came to the rescue by rendering the use of their car. That must have been quite a car-ful!
Due to unfavorable conditions, namely George Kanoff (Riley) and his bull whip, Nancy Champaigne can be found typing George's chemistry in the wee small hours of the morning.

What is your favorite dessert and why?

Harian Fugats-"Butterscotch jello because it makes me sick."

Norma Esarey-"Cherry pie because I gave it up for Lent."
Marilyn Schwanz-"Chocolate pie because I'm allergic to it."
Bev Twigg-"That fluffy stuff because it makes me feel empty."
Denny Grimshaw-"Notre Dame sundae. Guess why?"
Judy Jacobson-"Angel food cake because it suits my character."
Kenny Marvel-"Devil's food cake because it suits Judy's character."
Sandy Weldy-"Pie because it reminds me of good ole geometry."
Bob Badger-"Cheese cake because it tastes like lard."
Nancy Champaigne-"Liver with catsup and onions because it builds strong blood."
Larry Smith-"Catsup sandwiches because Bob Fischer can't stand them."

Bob Fischer-"Raw eggs because they're easy to fix."
Becki Wetter-"Cherry pie 'cause I like to eat the cherries out of Dave Chizek's pie during lunch hour."
Dave Chizek-"The crust of the cherry pie after Becki eats the cherries out of the middle."
Anonymous-"Apple pie and pretzels 'cause it's free on all weekends.'

I am a hall guard-duh, duh, duh, dum. People don't know it, but I lead a hysterical life. They think I look at hall passes. Heh, heh, heh. That's not all I do. Why the other day when that little green man walked into Biology II, who do you think let him get by without a hall pass? Me, of course. He had a ray gun!

I am a hall guard-tweedly dee, ho hum, and all that rot. When things get dull, I go around to all of the classroom doors and mix up attendance slips before the attendance girl gets there. I also stick A.B.C. gum (already been chewed) on locker handles.
I am a hall guard-chomp, chomp. In my spare time, about five minutes in my period, when I'm not eating, singing, wandering around, or thinking about nothing, I study. It's quite hard on the gray matter though.
Hmmmm? Wonder who that is coming down the hall now? It looks like two men wearing white coats. They're carrying a strait jacket. I think I'll shoot them with my pop gun. Pop! Pop! Pop!

I'm just the jukebox in the Oriole, but oh, what I hear! Why don't you slip into a booth, order a coke, and listen for awhile?
I hear all "The Teenage Prayers." Lucy Wappenstein got her "Band of Gold" while the freshman girls are hoping for any "He."
It's "Mostly Martha" for Bill Walton, but Bob Walker is a "Great Pre-tender"-he's every girl's "Daddy-O." All of the junior boys are avoiding the "Tender Trap."
As Terry Brady enters the Oriole, Sandi Whipple, "Dungares Doll," whispers "My One and Only Love."
Helen Williams asked Bill Wiley "Are You Satisfied?" Sylvia Trethewey has the eyes of a "Woman in Love" while Bill Parsons (Indianapolis) is telling the guys "All at Once You Love Her."

Lakeville Trojans Knock Adams Out of Sectional

The Lakeville Trojans put a dismal end to their season in the second game of the sectionals for the Adams Eagles, 65 to 62 . The fine outside shooting of Lakeville's Correll was too much for the Eagles to overcome; he netted 25 points. The game was a see-saw battle all the way with Adams leading at the end of the first three periods. With five minutes left the Eagles led 56 to 53 , but the Trojans came back with inspired play and points.

Playing the last and their final game for the Eagle cause were seniors John Robbins, Don Moffet, Don Severeid, and Paul Edgerton. Gene Phillips with 17 points and "Deacon" Davis with 16 points led the Eagle attack. Don Severeid hit 9 out of his 11 points in the crucial fourth period. The Eagles controlled the boards till the late inspired drive by Lakeville. -Bob Ziker.

Eagles Claw Madison

The Adams Eagles Wednesday afternoon used mass substitution and mass scoring to down the Madison Panthers and qualify for the Lakeville meeting, 80 to 40 . Don Severeid and Wes Rachels paced the Eagle attack with 15 and 12 points, respectively. The Eagles had too much balance and too much scoring attack for the hopeless Panthers. The bench of Coach Warren Seaborg was cleaned and everyone got into the scoring attack. The Adams scoring went: Severeid, 15; Rachels, 12; Davis, 11; Marvel, 9; Robbins, 8; Edgerton, 8; Phillips, 6; Parker, 5; Rowe, 4; and Moffet, 1. Madison finished their terrible season winning only two games. By beating Madison Adams moved one closer to a Sectional title?

Wrestlers Eliminated in State Meet

Last Saturday two members of the Adams wrestling team went to the State wrestling meet held at Lafayette Jeff High School. The two were Larry Hogan and Paul Johnson, both of whom qualified the week before at the Sectional. Central of South Bend won the team title giving South Bend another state champion. Hogan and Johnson were eliminated in their first matches.
This meet closed the wrestling season for another year at Adams. As a team the boys won 5 and lost 3 and gave good showings in the Conference, Sectional, and had two men in the State meet.
