

BALL STATE TO HOLD SENIOR DAY APRIL 21 Annual Senior Day At Purdue March 24

Ball State Teachers College at Muncie, Indiana, is holding the Fifth Annual High School Senior Day Saturday, April 21, 1956. This conference is sponsored by Ball State in conjunction with Student Service Organizations and the Alumni Association.

The program and activities have been greatly expanded this year, and representatives from each high school in Indiana are being invited.

This is an excellent opportunity for John Adams High School students to come to the campus, visit various departments, meet students, and in general, "look it over."

Ball State offers degrees in the fields of elementary education, secondary education, business administration, nursing education, laboratory technology, and dietetics. Secretarial and pre-professional training are offered. The degrees in secondary education are in the fields of home economics, industrial arts, speech, radio, business education, music, art, physical education, English, foreign language, library science, social science, mathematics, and science. An Air Force R. O. T. C. program is also offered.

The tentative program for the day includes campus tours, departmental tours and exhibits, a panel on college life, and entertainment. Registration will be from 8:30 until 10:00 a. m., EST, and the day's program will begin at ten o'clock. The program will be concluded around 5:00 p. m. All seniors are encouraged to wear regular school clothes.

New features on the campus are the L. A. Pittenger Student Center, the new library wing, and the recently completed Practical Arts Building. The noon lunch will be served in the Student Center Cafeteria.

Please contact Miss Burns if you are interested in attending the Ball State High School Senior Day as they would appreciate your filling out a blank and returning it to the Graduate Office by March 25.

The "Keep Korean Kids Klothed" drive, is well under way now and this is just a reminder to all of you readers to see that those pennies, nickels, dimes, or quarters get "shot through the slot," not "barred from the jar." During the Lenten Season many of you practice self denial—why not donate the money which might have been spent on yourself to our needy Korean orphans?

Stamp Club Organized By 18 Charter Members

Tuesday, February 21, marked the first meeting of the newly organized Stamp Club of John Adams High School. The officers were elected as follows: Gerald Steinfeld, president; Duke Hobbs, vice-president; Carol Hegg, secretary; and Port Laderer, treasurer. Miss Myrtle Moberg is the club sponsor.

No official name has been given to the Stamp Club yet. It will meet every Friday after school in the Library. Everyone interested is welcome to join.

Plans For "Soci" Trips To Chicago Underway

Members of the Social Living classes will take three trips to Chicago this spring. The excursions, to be taken on March 23, April 13, and April 27, will cost $13.00 per person. Although no definite itinerary is yet planned, the groups will attend a show and spend the whole day in the "Windy City." Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Goldsberry and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rothermel will accompany the groups as chaperones. February 17 was the deadline for reservations.

J.A. Sponsors Dance

The Junior Achievement Organization will present the Third Annual Stardust Ball April 13, 1956. The dance will be held at the Knights of Columbus Hall from 9 to 12. Oscar "Baby" Jones will provide the music for the evening. The dance is semi-formal and no flowers are permitted.

Tickets are $2.00 per couple and may be purchased from any member of Junior Achievement at John Adams High School.

John Adams Glee Club To Sing For A.A.U.W.

On March 14, at the Oliver Hotel, a selected group from the John Adams Senior Glee Club will present a program to the American Association of University Women. Some of the selections are Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Carousel" which includes "If I Loved You," "June is Bustin' Out All Over," and "You'll Never Walk Alone." They will also sing "Let All Things Now Living" by Katherine Davis and "Now the Day is Over" by Joseph Barnby with Clifford Salkeld and Ken Stanek singing the solo parts. The Triple Trio will sing "Rain" by Pearl Curran. The accompanists are Ruth Jones and Carol Weldy. The group is directed by Mrs. Lawrence T. Pate.

On March 7, the Triple Trio sang for the noon Lenten Service at the First Presbyterian Church.

HI-Y CLUB HOSTS ANNUAL ADAMS EVE

Tonight at 7:00 p.m. in the gym, the Hi-Y Club will host the annual Adams Eve. This year's program will feature an innovation. The first game will find the Hi-Y cagers against the freshman-sophomore intramural leaders. The second game will feature the "Has-Beens," this year's varsity seniors, playing the junior-senior intramural champs. There is talk around the four corners that the faculty's incomparable athletes might drop by to display their skills. During the half-time of the second game, a trampoline exhibition will be given under the direction of Miss Mary Ann Bamberger.

The first game will be refereed by Mr. Richard Hunter. Coaches Warren Seaborg and Robert Rensberger will officiate the final game. It has also been rumored that the "Has-Beens" have planned some entertaining strategy, whereas the Hi-Y is liable to do anything because they have proven to be very unpredictable.

Following the games there will be a dance, the "Adams Eve Stomp," held in the Little Theater. The admission price of 25 cents per person will include the basketball games as well as the dance. Tickets are available from all Hi-Y members and at the door.

Purdue will have their annual High School Day, Saturday, March 24. Any John Adams senior who would like to attend this day at Purdue should register with Miss Burns. Students must find their own means of transportation. No one will be excused from class work on the preceding Friday.

The university has many activities planned for this day. At 8:30 a. m. there will be registration in the main lobby of the Union Building. Free donuts, milk or coffee will be served in the Union Building Cafeteria until 9:30 a. m. At 9:30 a. m. there will be a general meeting in the South Ballroom of the Union Building. Then at 9:45, students will receive conducted tours of the campus, classrooms, and laboratories. You should be ready to join the group which visits that part of the campus which interests you. Tours will visit the agricultural campus, engineering laboratories, home economics buildings, science laboratories, etc. From 11:30 a. m. until 12:30 a. m. you will meet with the staffs of the various schools to talk over the programs of study, admission requirements, employment opportunities, financial aid, extra-curricular activities, etc.

During the afternoon music by the Purdue Variety Band will be presented at 2:00 p. m., Professor A. R. Spalding will speak on "Academic Responsibility," and a student panel comprised of university students will present their views of the life at Purdue as they see it. To conclude the program the Varsity Glee Club will sing at 3:00.

"Erin Go Braugh" — 'Tis St. Patrick's Day Again

Sure 'n begorra, it's practically St. Patrick's Day once more! Many people celebrate the wearin' of the green on this Irish day, but few of them know the actual story of the man for whom the day was named.

Saint Patrick had a romantic life, full of adventures. He was captured by pirates from Ireland at the age of sixteen. They carried him back there, and set him to tending the flocks of a chieftain in Ulster. Six years of slavery made him a devoted Christian. He escaped to France and became a monk. In 432 a vision led him to return to Ireland as a missionary bishop. He worked zealously in various parts of the island for the rest of his life. His labors were so successful that he came to be known as one who "found Ireland all heathen and left it all Christian." Over 300 churches were founded by Saint Patrick, and more than 120,000 people were baptized.

Many legends grew up about this popular saint. One of the best-known is that he charmed the snakes of Ireland down to the seashore so that they were driven into the water and drowned.

Saint Patrick's feast day is celebrated throughout the world, wherever there are Irish people. It falls on March 17.

Remember When . . .

The rages were bunny boots, "Battle Cry," and droodles?

No one ever heard of baby-doll blouses?

Central won the State Basketball Championship and we all got a day off school?

Sue Metcalfe and Jim Sostack weren't dating?

Rosie Ferraro was basketball queen?

There was no such word in the English language as brown nose?

Miss Horner was just a student teacher?

Dick Green and the rest of his basketball friends appeared at Adams Eve with old-fashioned bathing suits on?

Helen Williams wasn't having boy friend troubles?

Every Glee Club member was scared to death that he would fall down the steps during the Christmas procession?

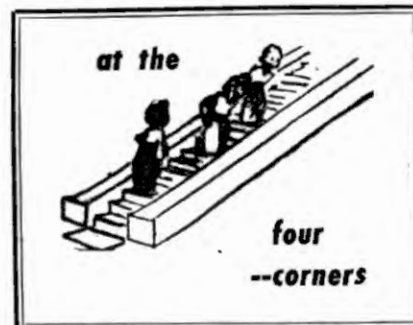

The Adams football team finished the best year in the history of the school?

When "Marie," "Sugar Lump," and "Cross Over the Bridge" were the most popular songs?

Your secret ambition was to have a date with a senior?

Jerry Thompson broke the record for individual scoring in the Adams gym?

When Bermuda shorts were uncommon and whoever wore them got laughed at?

Most girls I know claim that the guy they want to marry doesn't have to be a big handsome athlete nor does he have to be a smoothie with a line a few miles long. They will say that all that matters in the guy they are going to marry is his personality and good sense of humor.

But you boys just notice your girl friend and watch how she handles things. Where is it that she wants to go and how expensive is her appetite? Then draw your own conclusion on what she's looking for in a boy.

It seems Shirley Otalski received an autographed picture from Larry Jenkins (Dowagiac). I guess these summer romances do last.

Somebody said that Jan Conrey wrote Ronnie Farmer a "Dear John" letter a few days ago. What about that, Jan?

Look at the length of this "just dating" list! Mary Ann Kinsey and Bob Bennett, Shirley Norton and Joe Saratore, Sharon Wickizer and Bill Tatay (Riley), Phyllis Plotkin and Johnny Ross, Ernestine Jackson and Leroy Archer (West Mich.), Marilyn McKnight and Peter Boykins (Central), Brenda Shannon (Central) and Gene Phillips.

Marty Brannan ate some raw spaghetti. What will she think of next? And what makes Herb Krug so interested in Hammond and Gary that makes him go there so often?

Going steady now are Phyllis Neddo and Cliff Salkeld, Sherry Longbreak and Denny Murphy, Marsha Hewitt and Joe Jacks, Carol Morrical and Al Flack, and Paula Bryant and Bob Vargo for four months and three weeks.

We will play when our keeper's away. Isn't that right, Mike? And who is Dave Keller's secret love? Sandra S., on whom has your roving eye settled this time?

Margie Lloyd has chosen J. E. from Riley to add to her collection. And seen together quite a lot lately are Judy Kelley and Jay Stackhouse, Janet Moore and Jerry Williams.

The Bolling girls had a party, and what a party!!! It seems they really raised the roof. Jim Hoehn tore up the rug doing the chicken with Connie Schuler, and Wendy F. sure had a good time with Dave Getzinger. Some of the kids there were Ed Brylewski, Brenda Barritt, Charmian Burke, Ellen d'Alelio, Terry Rothermel, and Dave Hartenbauer. Of course Mr. King was there, too.

Gone separate ways now are Rosie Griffith and Bob BonDurant (Culver), Norma Esarey and Larry Wygant, Judi Sheets and Doug Eichorst — momentarily separate, Helen Williams and Bill Wiley.

The return of two Adams girls from Florida has made two guys here very happy again. The boys are Fred

MISS MAGOO . . . A LA ADAMS!!

Oops! There I go again. That was the third boy I bumped into this morning. "Pardon me." Gee, from what I could see, he looked pretty cute. Hope I didn't hurt him.

Who's grabbing me? "Oh, hello, Miss Chamberlin." Gee, that's the school nurse. Wonder what she wants with me!! "Oh, my glasses? Well, you see I, ah . . . well, they ruin my appearance and actually they don't fit either." I hope she doesn't call home and tell Mom that I'm not wearing my glasses anymore.

I hope I can find my way through this crowd to the typing class. I think I go there this hour. "Oh, hi! How are you!!" I wonder who that was. She sounded very nice.

Everyone's going this direction, so I guess that's the way I want to go. Well, here I am in my typing class. I sure was lucky that time. It sure is a good thing that my typewriter is right next to the door or else I wouldn't ever find the way to my seat.

It must be time for the bell to ring. Everyone's making noise and I think this guy next to me is putting his typewriter away. Yeh, there goes the bell.

I wonder what's on the menu for lunch today. Since I'm on this new diet, I won't be able to eat it anyway, but I love to smell.

I think this is the counter with the salad. Yes, I can feel the lettuce and tomatoes. I hope I took the one I touched.

Oh, how embarrassing. I didn't put the glass under the water tap and the water sprayed all over my skirt. I hope none of the teachers are watching me.

Three more steps and then a left turn and that's where we girls usually sit during lunch hour.

Why, that sounds like a boy across from me. Oh my heavens. I sat at the wrong table!!! And all the things I've been thinking I was saying to the girls. Oh, how mortifying. I'll never be able to face these guys again. They must think I'm awfully silly to have said all I did while I was eating.

Well, I sure have learned my lesson. I went right home from school that night and put on my glasses and I haven't taken them off yet. Of course, I've only been home an hour, but I'm positive of one thing. I'm not going to school anymore without my glasses.

Mr. Casimer Swartz, a favorite teacher of yours and mine, was chosen to be "Eagle of the Week" this week. His weight is 152 pounds and he is 5 feet 8 inches tall. Mr. Swartz has green eyes and brown hair.

When asked what television program was his favorite, Mr. Swartz answered, "Red Skelton." His favorite in the line of food is steak. He likes to listen to the record Poor People of Paris.

Mr. Swartz often is seen on the golf course and enjoys other sports other than golf. Most of his spare time, however, is spent with the two little Swartzes, Mike and Cindy.

In answer to the question of what is your pet peeve, he answered, "Inconsiderate people."

Mr. Swartz is better known by the nick name "Swartzie." Besides teaching remedial math and introduction to business, he has a fourth and fifth hour study hall.

Not only is "Swartzie" a well liked teacher, he also does a terrific job of coaching our baseball team. And we all know that from now on until school is out, Mr. Swartz will be in the sports limelight with his wonderful baseball team.

—Connie Kuhn.

"Where do your thoughts turn in spring?"

Paula Bryant: "Well, my thoughts naturally turn to Bob. I guess that's where they always are."

Judi Sheets: "Doug will finally get his license back."

Shelba Rice: "Spring vacation is near and soon school will be out. Not that I don't like school!!!"

Marilyn Rainier: "Jim! But that's not much of a change."

Becki Wetter: "My thoughts are a little too snowed under now. When spring comes maybe then they'll be unhidden and then I'll know." (Why are they all snowed under, Becki?)

Pete Sherman: "Summer!"

Gary Wallman: "I guess baseball!"

Ronnie Strang: "Outdoor theaters open and I will be going steady for six months."

Mr. Weir: "The math contest."

Margaretta Hemphill: "All the ironing that goes along with summer clothes."

Frances Davis: "Graduation!!!"

Jane Martin: "I can throw away my boots."

Sue Wood: "They're always at Northwestern."

Barb Waechter: "Graduation and summer vacation."

Judy Kelley: "Two months 'till summer vacation."

A father: "Income taxes."

A mother: "House cleaning."

SOSTACK'S TEAM WINS CROWN

Jim Sostack's team, composed of Don Bell, Ronnie Sternal, Dick Blake, Jim Fox, Bruce Dwyer, and Jim Smith, won the Junior and Senior Division title in the intramural competition. Little difficulty was encountered in winning this title but the teams of Fugate, Magnuson, and Malcolm did attempt to thwart their chances. The Sostack team suffered their lone defeat in the game played with Magnuson's team.

However, the Freshman and Sophomore Division race between Lydeen and Williams was not decided as both teams won their final games so ending this race in a tie.

Sostack's team with the help of a few other intramural players will play the "Has-Beens" on Adams Eve tonight in the gym.

Beagles End Season Central Eliminated With 10-10 Tally

The John Adams "Beagles" closed out their basketball season with a middle of the road record this year. The Beagles finished the season with a ten won, ten lost record. The Beagles defeated Washington-Clay, Gary Lew Wallace, Sheridan, Elkhart, Washington, East Chicago Roosevelt, Mishawaka, Riley, and Auburn. The Beagles did not manage to sneak by Goshen, East Chicago Washington, Michigan City, Riley, Central, LaPorte twice, St. Joe, Elkhart, and Fort Wayne North Side.

Although the Beagles started the season as a strong contender, several key players moved up to the varsity and much of the scoring punch was lost. Among the many ball players on the "B" team roster were Cates, Phillips, Marvel, Rowe, Turner, Hirou, Fischer, West, Endres, Alford, Smith, Messick, and Caron. The team is coached by Mr. Robert R. Rensberger, who also teaches social studies.

Many of the boys who played on the "B" team this year will make up the varsity in a few years.

All local South Bend schools are eliminated from this season's state tournament. Central was the last team to bow out of it from this area, last Saturday night in the championship game at the Elkhart Regional losing to Elkhart 59 to 53. Central in the afternoon, however, leaked out a victory over Warsaw; while Elkhart had an easy time with LaPaz. The final game saw the crowd continuously booing and throwing things on the court. Before the full bleachers, Central took an early lead and at one time led 25 to 16. Central outscored the Elkhart bunch, who had the advantage of their own court, in three of the four quarters, but the third period was fatal to the Bears, getting outscored 22 to 10.

Elkhart's Murleson and Kollat were high point men with 16 points apiece. Tulie Coalmon with 15 points paced the Bear attack. Lee McKnight playing guard, without the aid of Herbie

Lee who was sitting out, scored 10 of his 12 points in Central's last quarter of the game.

This closes up high school basketball in this locale for this season. Next year basketball should be stronger in this section with Central, again fielding just about the same team, Mishawaka, Madison Twp., Lakeville, and Adams showing some promise.
—Bob Ziker.
