Senior Class Elects Sherman President

'THE ROYAL FAMILY' TO VISIT ADAMS

Have you heard of "The Royal Family" that will be visiting Adams on October 4 and 5 at eight o'clock in the evening? "The Royal Family" will appear on the Adams stage through the courtesy of the Thespians and Drama Club. Mr. William Brady with the assistance of Jane Martin will direct the three-act comedy written by George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber.

"The Royal Family," who have been rehearsing since August, can be found every night after school in the auditorium discussing their family affairs. As a result of tryouts last spring, the cast consists of the following people and their roles, of which some are double-casted:

Gil Marshall Ron Weaver
Kitty Beverly Prohaska
	Donna Hogan
Tony Pete Sherman
Fanny Carol Schiller
	Julie Ebling
Joe Mike Seedorf
McDermott Bob Ziker
Perry Paul Troupe
Julie Gayle Heyn
Della Andrea Dean
Oscar Stuart Chaden
Chauffeur Lee Chaden
Gwen Sue Stoner
Gunga Fred Kuemmerle
Herbert Dean Duke Hobbs
Hallboy Jim Weir
Understudy Jerry Keller
	David Gilman

Behind the scenes many other people are doing their share to help make the play a success. Committee chairmen and members are preparing the sets and doing other essential jobs to aid the cast. The chairmen are Mike Stowers, general production manager; Dave Brownell, set construction; Ron Weaver, set designer; Susi Metcalfe, programs; Mary Horning, makeup and publicity; Virginia Davis, props; Sandy and Carol Weldy, tickets; Helen Williams and Beverly Prohaska, costumes; and Carol Hertel, prompter. These people are being assisted by other Thespian and Drama Club members.

John Adams Welcomes Ten New Faculty Members

Among the many new faces to be seen at Adams this fall are ten new faculty members. Last spring eight faculty members left Adams, but they have been replaced by ten new personalities who have come to share their knowledge with the Adams students.

Mr. Ronald Walton came to teach orchestra at Adams from Berne, Indiana, where he taught string instrumental and vocal music along with speech for three years. A native of Elkhart, Mr. Walton received his degree at Manchester College. The well-kept building along with the co-operation and pleasantness of Adams students has impressed him.

Adams' new shop teacher is Mr. Charles Bonham who is also the sponsor of a freshman homeroom. Receiving his degree from Indiana University, Mr. Bonham has taught at Fort Wayne, Central, and Riley before coming to Adams. The conduct of the students at the first assembly impressed him very much.

A graduate of Indiana State College, Miss Dorothy Wampler is a native of Terre Haute, Indiana. Although she teaches sophomore English at Adams, she majored in social studies and music. In her opinion,

Adams is great and everyone has made her feel right at home.

A native of Washburn, Indiana, Mr. Richard Zook taught algebra and geometry at North Liberty before coming to Adams. He received his B. S. degree at Manchester College and his M. S. degree at Indiana University. Although he has been impressed with Adams, he thinks there is always room for improvement.

Hailing from Columbia, Missouri, where he received his first musical training at the University of Missouri, Mr. Robert Ralston received his B. S. degree at Oberlin College in Ohio and his M. S. degree before he began teaching. Mr. Ralston likes teaching at Adams very much.

Another new faculty member is Miss Jeannette Bready who teaches girls' physical education. Her hometown is Chicago, but she resides at Hudson Lake. A graduate of Ohio State University, Miss Bready has taught commercial subjects in Indiana and Ohio schools before coming to Adams. In her opinion, the attitude of the students is fine.

Mr. Morris Aronson is familiar to many Adams students because he has

Pete Sherman is the choice of the 1957 Senior Class for their class president. Other successful candidates chosen to head the class were Joe Barnette, vice-president; Sandy Mitchell, secretary; and Shirley Norton, treasurer. The other nominees for class offices were John Ross and Dick Nichols, president; Ron Miller and Ron Weaver, vice-president; Marcia Hoelscher and Linda Rogers, secretary; and Paula Bryant and Sandie Brecht, treasurer.

A nominating committee of four representatives from each of the six senior homerooms was chosen to meet with the sponsors of the class. The representatives and their respective homerooms were Joe Barnette, Paula Bryant, Sandie Brecht, Tim Brown, 101; Carol Hertel, Roy Inlow, Joan Jacobs, Marcia Hoelscher, 102; Sandy Mitchell, Larry Lieberenz, Justin Kronewetter, Sue Metcalfe, 111; Judi Sheets, John Ross, Wes Rachels, Pete Sherman, 210; Linda Rogers, Shirley Norton, Tom Horn, Carol Weldy, 212; and Nancy Thompson, Jane Weidler, Ron Wallace, Bob Ziker, 215.

At the first meeting the nominating committee set up the qualifications for each office. The qualifications were good citizenship and character, a good speaker, a B or better average, wide acquaintance, time for duties of office, a good organizer, active in school activities, and leadership. The committee put names up for nominations at the second meeting and voted on them according to the qualifications.

The slate of candidates of each office were presented to the senior class by Sue Metcalfe in an Assembly on September 17.

Each candidate for president presented his ideas in a short speech. During the day the seniors voted by machine in their American government classes or during study halls.

960 Season Tickets Sold

Mr. Nelson has reported that the sale of football season tickets has been well-supported by the students and the public. There has been a fine acceptance of the new plan whereby all Adams games played at School Field are included on the student and adult season tickets. The previous plan was season tickets which were only good for Adams home games played at School Field. Out of an enrollment of 1178, seven hundred and twenty-eight students have bought

Do You Belong to John Adams?

It is a well-known fact that you are enrolled as a student of John Adams, come here practically every day, go to classes and do some home work. But do you really belong to Adams in terms of giving and receiving?

An old adage claims that a man gets out of anything what he puts into that thing. If you put an amount of money in a bank, after a while, you get that money back, plus interest.

Like putting money in the bank, if you take an active interest in your studies, you receive an education and a mind of your own. Many of you go through the daily routine of classes by force of habit and often times quite unprepared. You expect to receive all of the benefits of school without giving forth any effort to help yourself, your fellow students, and your school.

Participation in the school program of extra-curricular activities is a fine way to give your services and in return to receive the thrill of satisfaction and the experience of working with people.

These opportunities to belong are open to freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and it's not too late for the seniors to start belonging.

What Do We Stand For?

A little less than three weeks ago we seniors began our last year of high school. Soon we will join the ranks of alumni. No longer will Adams present a daily routine of classes, homework, exams and obligations to fulfill.

Since our entrance to Adams in the fall of 1953, we have given ourselves a good start on the way to social and intellectual maturity. The ability to think straight and sensibly has taken the place of immature judgments and evaluations. We have worked our way through the three years of apprenticeship to a position of admiration and respect by the underclassmen.

As seniors we stand ready to help, guide, and advise the underclassmen when we are consulted and are prepared to set the examples of right and wrong. In the ensuing year it is our responsibility to maintain high standards in all our endeavors and to give freely of our time and effort to improve our school for the seniors to come.

At the end of our senior year we will stand for the culmination of four years' development and preparation for life. We will have created a foundation of wholesome appreciation, useful skills, and warm understanding.

WITH MY COMPLIMENTS:

A hearty welcome to all of the new faces in our hallowed halls—freshmen, new students, teachers and our exchange students from Norway, Drude Koren and Edgeir Benum. . . . Thanks to those who returned to school after our first victory to cheer the team . . . to the boost of school spirit by the game slogans—From Wildcats to Mildcats and Let's Put Goshen Out of Motion . . . to the football team for giving us two straight victories to start the year out with. . . . Congratulations to the newly-elected Senior Class Officers—wish we could have twelve . . . to the Student Council Sho-Ya-Round Program for the Freshmen . . . to the speakers at the Back to School Assembly who did a fine job . . . to all of you who have already obtained your tickets for the Drama Club production "The Royal Family."

The Famous Five

If you happen to be walking down the hall one bright fall day, and spy five female members of John Adams High School walking together and dressed exactly alike, in red full skirts and white sweaters with a red "A" on it, don't be alarmed—it's just our cheerleaders. What would we do without them!!!! It's a common sight to see them hopping around in 10 feet of snow (or a reasonable facsimile) yelling their lungs out at a football game trying to get us to cheer.

The tiniest of our cheerleaders is Carol Boroz—she just barely reaches five feet—but that doesn't stop her from being a top-notch cheerleader. Carol is a busy girl in school activities—she's in Glee Club, Booster and Y-Teens. Carol hopes the student body will back the team to their fullest.

"Five feet two eyes of blue," describe the oldest of our cheerleaders, Marilyn Schwanz. She's a 12A this year and has been a cheerleader since her sophomore year—and wishes she had four more years to be a cheerleader. Marilyn is perhaps the busiest of the "Famous Five." She is Vice-President of Booster, on the Ex-Board of Glee Club, Features Editor of Album and Treasurer of Student Council. She says she admires kids who support their school.

Another of the "Famous Five" and also five feet two is Beverly Twigg, who's an old-timer when it comes to cheerleading. Bev was on B-team her freshman year and made varsity her sophomore year. Bev is also Treasurer of Booster Club, Secretary of Jr. Waltons, and Librarian of Glee Club. Her pet peeve is people who don't yell at the games.

Joanne Stouffer, who is noted for her tumbling throughout the cheerleading world, has been a cheerleader for three years. Booster Club and Glee Club are her main interests (besides cheerleading). Jo thinks the school body should get behind the team, win or lose.

Bonnie Hewitt, the last, but far from least, of our cheerleaders, has been leading cheers for quite a while. She is also kept quite busy with Glee Club, Booster and Drama Club. The only complaint Bonnie has is—she wishes that the kids wouldn't throw confetti at the games because it gets in all the kids' hair.

Another school year is upon us! The greenhorn freshmen are full of awe and astonishment and the big, bad seniors are looking forward to the excitement of their last year. Everybody is quite undecided as to just what kind of apparel to wear. Will it be summer togs or winter woolies? Football season started out with a bang and there have been parties to celebrate the victories.

Seen around: One male member of our student body, with the initials Terry Conley, running through the halls in the "purtiest" white sox.

Bev Prohaska had a celebration party after the victorious Riley game. Among the many present were such notables as: Jane Martin, Dick Nichols; Jan Conrey, Tim Brown; June Verhostra, Danny Kieffer (Purdue); Drude Koren, Tom Hubbard (Purdue); Sue Metcalfe, Jim Sostack; Sandi Brecht, Pete Sherman; Bonnie Hewitt, Fred Osman; Carol Hertel, Dave Hartenbauer; Ron Sternal, Dick Blake, Joe Cissell, Joe Barnette, Jim Messick, Fred Christi, George Henning, Justin Kronewitter, Denny Grabner, Bev Thompkins, Pat Barker, Sherri Quealy, Joan Jacobs, Lucy Wappenstein, Donna Hogan; Larry Smith, Barb Buntman (Riley); Margie Hemphill, Bob Wetter; Iris Kendall and Tom Horn.

Bruce Dwyer is usually too busy drinking tea in first hour Chemistry to get much done.

Bev Twigg has started a new fad by wearing her gym shoes to Short-hand 6th hour. They're air-conditioned, too!

Congratulations to Maxine Richards on her engagement.

Question of the Week: HOW DO YOU LIKE ADAMS?

Kathie Kerner—It's wonderful. The kids are all real nice.

Sandy Severns—It's different! I like everything I've seen so far.

Nancy Brinley—It's swell, terrific, dynamic. In other words, it will do.

Judy Carlson—I think Adams is a great place and loads of fun.

Denny Hubbard—Well, it's good—uh—it's great (Denny's lost).

Sandy Schock—I love it. I think it's real neat.

Susie Nelson—I like it. It's different from Jefferson because the kids are all older than I. I like the classes because I meet new kids.

Gary Eagles—It's very neat and clean compared to my old school. It's all very nice. The kids are all real friendly.

Judy Eich—I think it's a wonderful school and I like the teachers and all of the extra-curricular activities.

Honor Students Feted at Breakfast

One of the projects which is sponsored each semester by the Student Council is the Honor Breakfast. The purpose of this breakfast is to give recognition to the straight-A students of the previous semester. This fall the breakfast was held in the cafeteria on September 13, at 8:00 a.m. to honor the students of the 1956 spring semester.

Roy Inlow gave the invocation after which a breakfast of juice, scrambled eggs, bacon, sweet rolls, and milk was served. After breakfast, the guest speaker of the morning, Mr. Galen B. Sargent, was introduced. Mr. Sargent, former Principal of John Adams from 1940 to June of 1951, is now the Assistant Superintendent of South Bend Schools in Charge of Business. Other guests in addition to the honor students included Dr. Alex Jardine, Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Russell Rothermel, Miss Agnes Burns, Mr. A. T. Krider, Mr. J. Gordon Nelson, Drude Koren, Edgier Benum, the Student Council Board members, and the arrangements committee.

The honor students attending the breakfast were Terry Gerber, Barby McIntyre, Linda Harvey, Tom Price, Elinor Svendsen, Sue Welber, Sue Altman, Sue Bowman, Bob Chrest, Andy Dean, Jo Dobecki, Brad Eichorst, Doug Gill, Linda Hammes, Jerry Hobbs, Bob Ingalls, Gail Levy, Sandy Mitchell, Shirley Norton, Joyce Resler, Scott Ryburn, Beth Ryon, Carol Schiller, Marilyn Schwanz, Cynthia Wendzonka, Sue Schwanz, Joan Jacobs, Marcia Hoelscher, Carol Weldy, Larry Thompson, and Carol Hertel.

Susi Metcalfe was in charge of the breakfast, and she was assisted by Mrs. June Strickler and the cafeteria staff. A council committee consisting of Paula Bryant, Dave Chizek, Sandy Weldy, John Thompson, Dorothy Nichols, Eileen Schultz, and Jim Fett helped with the arrangements.

Representatives Chosen For Service Clubs

Three senior boys have been chosen to represent John Adams at three city service clubs. The boys meet every Wednesday noon for nine weeks to lunch with the members of these clubs. Dick Nichols represents Adams at the Lions Club meetings, and Joe Barnette was chosen to meet with the members of the Kiwanis Club. The Rotary Club meetings are attended by Tom Horn.

Ushers Club Prepares Busy Service Program

Preparations for a busy season have been made by the Adams Ushers Club. Their immediate schedule calls for the rendering of service at Adams football and basketball games, the fall play, "The Royal Family," and the North Central Teachers meetings in October.

The club officers who will serve for the fall semester are DeVere Guernsey, president and head usher; Scott King, vice-president and captain; Bob Wilson, activities secretary; Fred Stave, recording secretary; and Scott Ramsey, treasurer.

There are twelve openings for new members in the club this fall. Any Adams boy interested in joining the club should see Mr. Weir in room 112 or DeVere Guernsey in room 210 for more information and to fill out an application.

'Show Ya Round' Tour Taken by Freshmen

Two hundred and sixty-three new freshmen were welcomed to Adams on Tuesday, September 4, between nine and eleven o'clock in the morning by the Student Council. This welcome was the first step of an annual program sponsored by the council to help familiarize the new students with Adams. Thirty-two council members, headed by Wes Rachels, conducted the tour, "Show Ya Round." The purpose of this tour is to show the freshmen all the rooms and introduce them to the teachers. Printed information about the school was also given to each one.

During the next few weeks the program will continue with speeches given by the school club presidents and a program of yells presented by the cheerleaders. After this orientation, evaluation blanks will be distributed to the freshmen for them to fill out. Their opinions will help the council with future orientation programs.

Members of the council committee who helped Wes Rachels organize the tour and program were Sue Schwanz, Rosie Griffith, Diane Maurer, Bob Magnuson, Jeanne Weiss, Port Laderer, and Paul Waechter. Other council members served as guides for the tour and answered any questions the freshmen may have had. Later a handbook prepared by the council will be given to each student new at Adams.

WELCOME ASSEMBLY GIVEN BY COUNCIL

School was once again opened by a Back-to-School Assembly given on September 6, by the Student Council. The purpose of this annual assembly is to welcome old and new students and faculty members to Adams and to put everyone in the spirit of school after the summer vacation.

The program opened with the band playing the "Star-Spangled Banner." Carol Weldy, mistress of ceremonies, led the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. The guest speakers spoke on the theme of the "Flagship of John Adams" and its preparation for the journey of life. The opportunities and responsibilities presented on the ship John Adams to its crew of students were stressed. Katherine Ostrander, a freshman, spoke on the part a freshman plays on the ship, and Dick Nichols, a senior, spoke on the responsibilities of a senior crew member. Kent Keller, a 1955 Adams graduate and a sophomore attending Yale University, spoke on the role of a student who has just started on his journey of life.

Mr. Russell Rothermel addressed a few words of welcome to the student body and faculty, and Tom Horn, President of the Student Council, also greeted them. Adams' two foreign exchange students from Norway, Drude Koren and Edgier Benum, were presented along with the ten new faculty members. As each teacher was introduced, Marcia Hoelscher and Beverly Prohaska pinned a rose on the shoulder of each. The Glee Club also sang one vocal selection.

taught at Nuner for the past seven years. His hometown is South Bend, and his alma mater college is Purdue University. Besides teaching algebra and high school math, Mr. Aronson also coaches freshman football. He thinks Adams is great, and the kids are fine.

Another native of South Bend is Mrs. Ruth Hammond who teaches home economics at Adams. A graduate of Bradley University, Mrs. Hammond taught at Central and one year in Hawaii before coming to Adams. She feels very much at home here because she is a graduate of Adams.

Mr. John Schutz is also a native of South Bend and has taught at Three Oaks, Michigan, before coming to Adams to teach English and community civics. He is a graduate of Ball State Teachers College. Mr. Schutz is very impressed by the well-behaved manner of the students and the friendliness of the faculty.

Mrs. Mildred Schipper is from Inwood, Iowa, and she received her training at Iowa State Teachers College and the University of Iowa. She also taught in that state before coming to teach art at Monroe School and Adams. In addition to teaching, she is studying for her M.S. degree in art at Notre Dame. The cleanliness of Adams has made an impression on her.

Council Holds Third Leadership Clinic

Former mayor John A. Scott was the principal speaker at the Student Council's third annual Leadership Clinic which was held at 5:30 p.m. on Wednesday, September 19. The school club officers and sponsors, student leaders of school and other organizations, and students who wish to become leaders were given pointers on directing their organizations more efficiently.

After enjoying a meal of meat loaf, mashed potatoes and gravy, green beans, and pie a la mode in the cafeteria, the students assembled in the Little Theater to hear Mr. Scott give the main address. Then the group was split into three groups. Each group went to a different room to see a short film followed by a discussion period. The discussion leaders were Student Council Board members. After the first period, the groups changed rooms and saw a different film followed by discussion again. The procedure was followed a third time. The three films were entitled, "How to Get Co-operation," "Parliamentary Procedure in Action," and "Developing Leadership." The clinic was concluded with a summarization of all the discussions.

Eagles Seek Third Win Tonight At Fort Wayne

Adams Eagles will face the unbeaten North Side tonight at Fort Wayne seeking their third win of the season against no losses. Fort Wayne, led by All-State half-back Pete Lundell, are presently supporting two wins without a defeat. They have beaten Elkhart and Michigan City. Adams will play Elkhart later in the season. Adams, also unbeaten, is seeking to give Fort Wayne their first loss.

HARRIERS WIN FIRST DUAL MEET

The cross country team, coached by Mr. Ralph Powell, won its first dual meet of the season by defeating New Carlisle 22-33 on Thursday, Sept. 13.

Even though Adams did not win first place, they scored by taking the next three places. Winning for New Carlisle was Bartosiewicz in a time of 11:27. Bob Petzke, Edgeir Benum, and Tom Kaiser of Adams finished 2, 3, and 4. Some of the other boys who turned in good performances were Greg Miller, Jerry Barnette, Dan Gregory, Bob and Dick Wilson.

ADAMS DOWNS GOSHEN 33-26

Last Friday Adams came out ahead in a see-saw battle of touchdowns with the Goshen Redskins at Goshen by a score of 33-26.

Early in the first quarter Goshen made their first touchdown, but the extra point kick was wide, making the score 6-0 in their favor. Only a minute later Adams' Johnny Turner scooted from around his own right end for a 74-yard touchdown run. Gene Phillips was successful in his attempt for the extra point, making the score Adams 7, Goshen 6.

In the second quarter Goshen again put the ball over the Eagles' goal and with a perfect conversion made the score 13-7 in their favor. Barry Grady bounced back for Adams and plunged over to paydirt from the Goshen three-yard line to climax an 83-yard Eagle ground attack. The try for the extra point was wide, tying the score at thirteen-all.

The tie was broken when Dick Nichols intercepted a Redskin pass, and on the second play Dick Scott tossed a pass to Grady who raced into the end zone for the third Adams touchdown. The try for the extra point was missed, but Adams held a 19-13 lead at the half.

The fourth Adams touchdown came when Grady went untouched for five yards to cap a 70-yard march by the Eagles. Phillips' perfect place kick made the score 26-13 in Adams' favor.

The Redskins again scored, cutting the Adams' lead to 26-20. Adams bounced back when Grady made another touchdown. Phillips grabbed the ball and ran for the extra point, making the score 33-20.

Goshen was successful in their attempt for a fourth touchdown but missed the kick for the extra point, ending the game with the final score in Adams' favor 33-26.

EAGLES MAUL WILDCATS 20-0

Adams Eagles opened the gridiron season this year by once again defeating an old city rival. Due to the hard-charging line and the fine running of Barry Grady and Johnny Turner, the talented Eagles blasted the highly rated Riley team 20-0.

The first quarter of this game was fought very hard with both teams making much progress. It wasn't until there were less than three minutes left in the half that Turner set up the first score for Grady by fine runs of 17, 13, and twice of 11 yards. From the four-yard line Grady ran an end run to put Adams ahead 6-0. This touchdown seemed to be the turning point in the game. Within seconds of the kickoff to Riley, Grady came from nowhere and intercepted an Ulrich pass and ran untouched for the second touchdown in three minutes. Gene Phillips kicked the extra point to make the score 13-0 at half-time.

After the second touchdown, the puzzled Riley team couldn't recover to come even close to the Eagles. The final touchdown came in the fourth quarter when Grady made a fine run for 34 yards and crossed the goal. Phillips had three attempts for the extra point due to Wildcat penalties. He was successful on the third try to put the Eagles far ahead with the score at 20-0 when the final gun sounded.

A Note on the Eaglets

Adams' first freshman football game was supposed to be held September 6, and their opponent was Central. The Eaglets and Cubs never saw action on the gridiron that night due to a cancellation of the game. The reason? The officials failed to make an appearance.

NETMEN WIN TWO

The Adams tennis team got off to a flying start this year by winning their first two matches of the season. On September 11, the Eagles traveled to Mishawaka where they edged the Maroons, 3-2. Two days later, Adams was victorious again when they trounced LaPorte's visiting Slicers, 5-0.

Bob Fischer and Bob Chreist provided the winning points in the Mishawaka match as both took their singles matches in straight sets. Later these two netmen teamed up to take a grueling three sets in doubles just as it was getting almost too dark to see the ball coming over the net.

In the LaPorte match, Bob Fischer, Bob Chreist, and John Ross all won their singles matches in straight sets. Bob Fischer and Bob Chreist were victorious again in their doubles match for the Eagles. Terry Gibson and Gary Wallman also proved victorious in their doubles match against the Slicers.

NET NOTES:

The Adams netmen play all their home matches on the new tennis courts in the rear of Adams. They would be more than glad to have some onlookers, so come out and watch their matches if you can. They are held after school and watch the Tower for the schedules of games.
