

"1967-68 CAGE SEASON A BIG?"

Tower Sports Editor On Friday, Nobember 17, third year coach Don Barnbrook and his Eagles will host the St. Joseph Indians. Last year, the Eagles defeated the Indians, 88-22. Tipoff time is at 8:00 P.M. and the Eagles will be there.

Two Returning Lettermen

Only two lettermen return from last year's sectional winners, John Williams, a senior guard who scored 166 points and shot a respectabel 67% from the charity stripe, and Richard Davis. Davis, the only sophomore to see action in the regional, scored 156 points. Coach Barnbrook was hard hit by graduation last year, losing six seniors. But to make up for this, Coach Barnbrook will depend upon juniors to take up the loss. The juniors when they were freshmen had a 19-2 record.

Team Effort

Coach Barnbrook says that "the success of the overall picture depends upon the ability of the team to play together." In other words, there must be team effort. "We lost a tremendous amount of height, but with our quickness and our determination, we will be in contention."

Same Type of Offense

Barnbrook hopes to use the same type of offense as last year, only modified somewhat. The type of offense is called the "A" with one guard and four forwards, as in an A-formation. This offense worked very well, as was evident in last year's regional game with Michigan City.

Davis will probably be center and then move to a forward after the tip-off. A senior, non-letterman, Terry Schaper, will most likely fill another forward position. He stands at 6-2. Seniors Mike Downey, Mark Beaudway, and Craig Scheu are vying for the other forward slots. Stan "Cotton" Neal, another senior, will be back-up man for Williams.

Greg Roberts, Rick Sayers, and Kelley Brownell are also making a strong bid for varsity action. Coach Barnbrook has not cut the team down yet, due to the fact that the football players began precticing only the past week. As in past years, Barnbrook will carry a squad of at least 12 men and he must cut this list down to 10 players by sectional time. This seems to be a hard task, since there is such good talent present.

When asked about the schedule, Coach Barnbrook feels that all of the surrounding teams will be tough to beat. The Eagles show only one new team on the schedule this year, LaSalle. The game will be played February 10 at LaSalle. They replace the Gary Lew Wallace team.

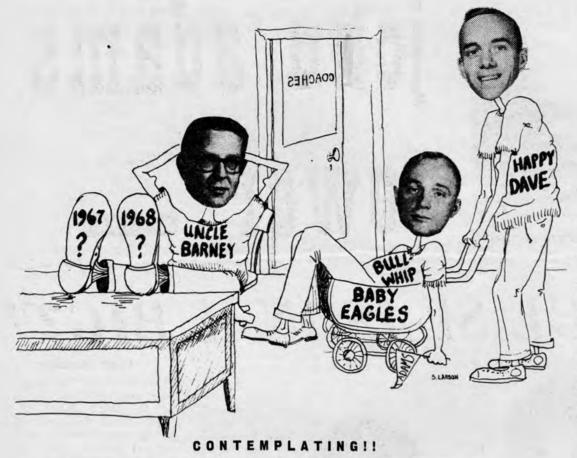

The Eagles will play two conference foes before the Holiday Tournament. In the second half of the '67-'68 campaign, the Eagles face six conference teams plus an always tough Gary Roosevelt five. They also face Washington on February 2, and they will try to get revenge on this season's football loss.

Year of Change

To sum it up, Coach Barnbrook said that "looking over the picture for the next several years, we feel we have some real good players coming up." The Eagles might surprise many people in this area as he described this year as "the year of the change."

The B team cheerleaders, led by captain Nena Zeiger, along with Janet Canen, Chris Morrow, Pat McClure, Becky Riley, and Becky Lindsey are great factors in promoting school spirit.

These girls cheer our B teams to victory; they also cheer at our pep assemblies, and help the varsity cheerleaders at regular games. They also decorate the football bus and make the well known hoop. Cheering a student body is not an easy task, and to be proficient the girls practice Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays after school. They sometimes receive clever tips from one of the varsity cheerleaders. The B team cheerleaders practiced along with the varsity three nights for two hours a week during the summer.

Each one is a member of the Booster Club; Nena Zeiger is its Vice President, and she is also a member of the concert, mixed chorus, and band. Chris Morrow is also in the student council, Becky Riley is a member of the sophomore cabinet, and Becky Lindsay is in chorus. The goal to which these girls are looking forward to is to bring greater pride and spirit into the student body.

Decker and Schrager were members of last years state champion relay team. Mike and Bill Fitzgerald, along with Clark and Herreman, each placed in two events in last year's state meet. Fahey also placed in the meet. Juniors John Ford and George Keeley, Sophomore Jeff Lichtenfelds, and Freshmen Dave Feldman and Ken Wilkinson, are also expected to see plenty of action.

Columbus and Southport Tough

Coar rates Columbus and Southport as the toughest competition in the state. Locally Jackson appears to be the best Seagle opponent. "The other teams haven't really inproved but we are a little weaker," explained Coar.

Coar will be assisted by diving coach Robert Reed. Last year the Seagles compiled a 13-0 dual meet record and the city, N.I.C. sectional and state champions.

Among the lettermen lost were two members of the state champion relay team and the state champion and runnerup divers Gary Gibboney and Dick Altman. In the past years diving has been TheSeagles have a nucleus of the strong point of the team but the Seagles lost all their divers with any experience through graduation. Scott Wise, Jeff Lichtenfelds captains, Jerry Decker and Jim and Rick Allen will be doing the diving this year. Coach Coar says the divers are "interested and and Frank Fahey; juniors Tom need a lot of hard work."
