CAGERS PREPARE FOR SECTIONALS

STILL CONTEMPLATING!!

The John Adams Eagles will participate in the South Bend Sectional to be held February 20-24, at the Washington gym.

South Bend is one of the 61 sectional sites around the state. This year, there is a total of 488 schools participating in the State tournament. This figure is down from last year's total of 513 schools.

The winners of these sectionals will advance to one of the 16 regional locations. The 16 survivors will journey to the 4 semi-state sites, and then the 4 remaining teams will journey to Indianapolis, where the 1968 state champion will be crowned at Hinkle Fieldhouse.

Taking part in the South Bend Sectional will be eight teams: Adams, Central, Washington, Riley, St. Joe, LaSalle, Clay, and Mishawaka. Central has the best record of these schools and is the favorite in the tourney, along with St. Joe.

Coach Barnbrook will not cut the team down to 10 this year, as in previous years. Richard Davis is the leading scorer, followed by Terry Schaper and Rick Sayers. Also on the varsity are John Williams, Greg Roberts, Craig Scheu, Alonzo Warnell, Jim Smith, Bob Morlan, Bert Fleming, Mark Beaudway, and Stan Neal.

Sadie Hawkin's Dance to Happen At Adams

Attention students! Something new is about to happen at Adams! A Sadie Hawkins Dance--how 'bout that! It will be Friday, February 23, from 8 p.m. until 11 p.m. Benjamin Franklin's Almanac will be playing, plus the folk singing group called Partly Dave! Tickets are only $1.50 per couple, and listen to this girls--you get to ask the boy this time! Tickets will be on sale all next week from each TOWER home room representative until the end of home room on Friday. If you haven't made up your mind by then, and decide you want to go later on on Friday, then you can still purchase a ticket from Mrs. Myers in the Tower Office after school. By the way, you can also ask a student from another school if you check him in with Mrs. Gadowski in room 130 sometime before school begins. If you don't check your date from a different school in with Mrs. Gadowski, neither of you can be permitted to attend the dance.

Another thing which is new and different about this dance is that you can dress hillbilly style: overalls, dirndl skirts, cut offs, weird hats, all kinds of country bumpkin type stuff. One thing, you wear cut-offs, they can't be if too short-- 2" inches above the knee is the limit. After all, Adams doesn't need any Daisy Maes. Also, since shoes are rather hard on the gym floor, please wear either your tenny's, or socks with your shoes so you will have something on your feet besides skin when you take off your shoes!

Don't forget now, February 23, Sadie Hawkins Dance at Adams. Tickets are only $1.50 per couple! Get your date early and be sure to come!!

Seagles Take State

Students Ride Bus to State Swim Meet

The third annual bus trip to the State Swim Meet will be made Saturday to Bloomington.

The bus will load and leave at approximately 3:30 Saturday morning and stop at Kokomo for breakfast. It will arrive in Bloomington for the morning session which starts at 9:30 with the afternoon session beginning at 2:00. The students will have two hours between sessions to walk around the campus and eat at the Union.

The bus will leave late in the afternoon and will stop at Kokomo for supper. Mr. Drapek will be the chaperone.

EAGLE ETHICS TO PRESENT ASSEMBLY

The Eagle Ethics Committee will present the Panel of American Women at Adams on February 21. The Panel of American Women was started in Kansas City, Missouri by Mrs. Paul Brown eleven years ago. Mrs. Brown is now the national coordinator of the panels. There are thirty panels in the United States, and the South Bend panel has been in existence for three years. Mrs. Henry Paskin is the South Bend co-ordinator. It has given almost two hundred programs throughout Indiana.

The purpose of the Panel of American Women is to help to stop prejudice and interfaith and inter racial misunderstandings. There are five positions on the panel. Twenty-five South Bend women participate on the panel at various times. The panel members for our assembly are Mrs. Joseph Moriarty, moderator,

Mrs. Adam Arnold, Mrs. Ralph Weissert, Mrs. Harold Slutsky, and Mrs. O. D. Wissler. This assembly will be very informative and will help each of us not to judge people by their religion or race, but by their character.

News In Brief

BASKETBALL

Tonight with Jackson, there. DON'T FORGET

To get your date for the Sadie Hawkins Dance, coming up next Friday, February 23!

ASSEMBLY

The annual Brotherhood assembly will be next Wednesday. GOOD LUCK

To the cagers at the sectionals. To the swimmers down state. To Tom Kruyer down state.

Have fun on the bus trip!

Good Luck Tom

Celine Krizmanich and Karen Kamp catch their men (Pat Jackson and Eddy Golden) early for the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

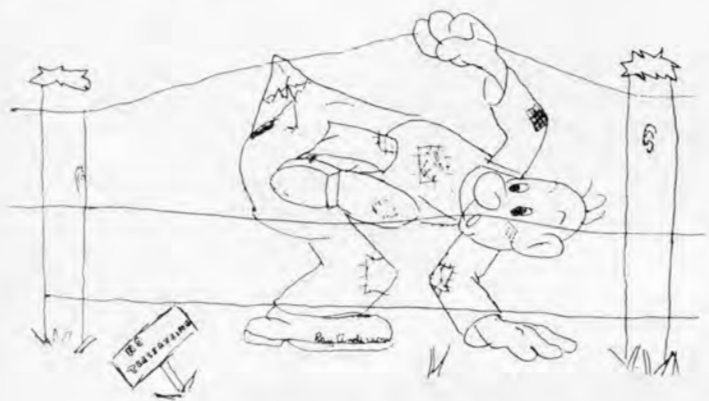

Support the TOWER!

Come to the Dance!

By now each Adams student certainly has heard about the Tower dance, Sadie Hawkins style, to take place next Friday. The purpose of this dance is to raise enough money so that the Tower can be printed weekly until the end of the school year. Unfortunately not many students realize that this year the Tower staff started with a deficit of several hundred dollars and that it costs approximately one hundred and twenty dollars a week to publish one issue.

The upcoming dance can and will be the best Adams has ever had if the student body would come with the attitude of enjoying themselves. Unlike most school dances, girls do not have to wear skirts and sweaters and boys can wear blue jeans. By all means, however, this does not mean that you cannot come in school clothes if you so desire. This dance is for couples only, but you can ask any high school student in the city. Make sure your date is approved if he or she does not attend Adams. If you prefer not to be alone with one date all night, get together with your friends, urge them to come, and your fun will multiply.

Your support by your attendance at this dance will help the Tower staff in their urgent financial worries. At the same time, the Tower's Sadie Hawkins dance could be the best dance ever held at John Adams.

Come to the dance (any way y'all can!)

OWNERSHIP

So you say, "It's my life and I'll live how I want."

Is it? and

Are you?

Think small unimportant one.

Use that tampered and molded and narrow mind that you say you own.

Aren't you a puppet, a tool of something immobile and powerful called Society?

As a baby, Society plants its seed. As a child, it sprouts and quickly grows.

Perhaps in adolescence, the seemingly invisible growth is attempted to be understood.

Or even destroyed.

But it is too deeply planted into the depths of the soul to be touched, and the attempt is futile.

At maturity, the work is complete. The result is

A Mechanical Monster, stripped of all individualism and left hard and cold and

Senseless

Never to be undone

Never.

So small unimportant one,

Continue to believe that this time called Life is Yours.

After all, your blind, whimsical belief is the source of power in Society's incessant plan.

Viet Nam Policy Discussed

What should U.S. policy be in Viet Nam? That was the topic question of the Forensic Society's first '68 FORUM, held last Wednesday. Quite a number of interested students came to air their opinions in the already stuffy room 301, where Tim Shula attempted to preside.

The first cure-all suggestion, submitted by Dave Vance, was an echo of the popular "immediate escalation" theory. Since negotiations have proven to be "no good", Dave called for a "removal of all restrictions" on bombing.

Dennis (Thomas), wary of the "imperialistic aggression" title, agreed with the seeming majority that getting into someone else's war was "a mistake in the first place." Dennis called for "an immediate cease fire" for the sake of negotiations.

The highlight of the meeting came when an excited Joe Raymond demanded a two-month withdrawal to give North Viet Nam time to "get to the peace table." If Saigon refused, Mr. Raymond would then begin an all out war with low-yield nuclear weapons and inhumane chemical gasses. This suggestion turned out to be so mad that in the following discussion, Tim Shula had to call for order so often that the head of his gavel gave up and took off for the rest of the evening.

Bob Syburg, despite some of the gross theatrics of Vance and friends, succeeded in explaining his suggestion for peace. Since indiscriminate bombing might well bring the not-so-blood-thirsty Chinese into a giant land war, Bob submitted his plan for a "physical barrier" to be constructed--or destructed--on the north and west borders of South Viet Nam.

Many points of all suggestions were hotly debated by Joe Radding and Howard Smogor in particular. One clear thought did permeate the mad confusion in this reporter's mind--I'm glad I'm not the President of the United States, trying to correlate all the views of the American people on Viet Nam policy.

What would you do if you saw an elephant walking down Mishawaka Avenue?

Lynn Annis - Run like heck.

Steve Bokor - I'd go buy some peanuts.

Cindy Boyer - I'd faint.

Cindy Denslow - I'd run, scream, and disappear fast.

Kurt Kaufman - I'd report it to the nearest humane society.

Laura McNabb - I'd pretend I was a mouse.

Rob Colbert - Hope he couldn't fly.

G. G. Miller - I'd ask him where he was going, and then I'd go in the opposite direction.

Pat Condon - I'd feed it to Mr. Przybysz.

Mark Miller - I'd ask him for a dime.

David Woo, Adams senior, has been chosen as this week's Eagle of the Week because of his wide variety of interests in his four years at Adams.

David's present interests include Mu Beta, Math Club, Eagle Ethics, Adams Waltons, and National Honor Society. He has also been kept busy since his freshman year with the tennis team and the chorus.

During his freshman year, David was president of prep glee club and is now a member of the Mixed and the Concert glee clubs. Being active in tennis, David has acquired the title of an Adams letterman.

After graduation, David hopes to attend Purdue and study electronic engineering. Later, then, he hopes to branch off into a new field of medicine, medical engineering.

How Not To Study

By The Loser

I have a very special method of studying. I wish everybody could learn from me. Before I go on, however, to reveal my secrets, I must prove to you that I am qualified to write on the subject. On my last report I had but one D. All the rest were F's.

I'm one to save time. In order not to take any books home I do my studying for one class in the class before. In this way I have all the material fresh in my head. But I do this only if I have a test scheduled. I never pay attention to what my teachers are saying; they don't know what they are talking about anyway. Instead I spend my time devising better study methods.

Here they are: I glance at my books and make a mental picture of the material in my head. It works like a camera. I always remember the pictures. When I have a matching test I match a long word with a short word. The paper looks so nice when all the words are balanced out. Of course I give an apple to each of my teachers every day. With all this preparation I just don't see why my report card doesn't improve.

Top Artists to Come to South Bend

During the coming months many of the nations top recording artists will be featured at the Morris Civic Auditorium. On February 24th Marvin Gaye and Tami Terrel will team up with the Stonepines to sing such hits as "If I Could Build my World Around You," and "Different Drum."

On the second of March the sounds of soul music will ring again the auditorium. "The Man," better known as James Brown, is returning to give everyone a chance to see him. Remember last November?

The Cowsills will be coming to town on March the 16th. This will be their first appearance here. The Cowsills' "We Can Fly" is currently on the charts.

Henry Mancinni, the man who has won more academy awards for his music than any other composer, will come on the 29th of March. To see him is a must.

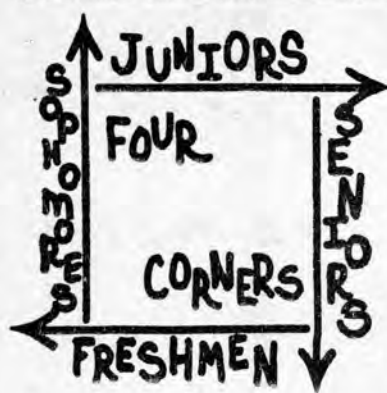

Mancinni will be followed by Ed Ames, who made it big with "My Cup Runneth Over." Ed Ames will perform in concert on April the 20th.

The famous news commentator, Paul Harvey, will speak at the Morris Civic a week later. Rounding out the entertainment for the next four months will be Peter, Paul, and Mary on May 4th.

Cheerleaders Karen Kamp, Jo Ann Pitts, Joan Samuels, and Audrey Niespodziany are viewed leading a cheer at the Washington game. Their new outfits were paid for by the girls themselves and were made through the combined efforts of Terry Waters, Mrs. Samuels and Mrs. Austen. The outfits made from Abbey Flannel lend color to our games.

How many Vietnamese Fought at Gettysburg

The relevance of this query is indicated by the fact that the front page of any contemporary newspaper is at least half covered with the Vietnam war stories. Indubitably, war is good business—think how it stimulates the economy and lowers unemployment figures. But who wants to invest their sons?

All across our grand and glorious nation, orators are proclaiming both support and dissent toward our government's policies. Mobs demonstrate and violence frequently erupts even here on the homefront. No one seems to have an answer to end the war—(oops, I meant to say "conflict") in which we are now enthusiastically (?) engaged.

Because we are the world's richest and mightiest nation, is it necessarily our duty to protect and defend the world's smaller nations? Some politicians became infatuated with this obsession, and consequently earned the very popular title; hawks. Their counterparts, the doves, seem to prefer to make love instead of war.

Meanwhile, the beat goes on. You win some and you lose some, and sometimes you get rained out by the annual monsoons.

The situation inevitably affects the high school students. No young man looks forward to graduation and eligibility for the draft, while no young girl relishes the prospect of losing a potential promised husband.

Man is a historical creature, according to Marx. Throughout his history he has been involved in many wars and certainly there has never been a "good war."

Dear Pen Pal

Dear Pen Pal,

My problem is very embarrassing to me and maybe even other kids around school have the same problem. My curfew is 11:15. All my friends stay out until 12:00 or 1:00, but not me, and Mother dear won't take any excuses for being late. I'm only a freshman girl and my mother thinks that I can't stay out any later than my brother. My brother's curfew is 11:30. The dance I'm going to ends at 12:00. What do I do?

The Earlybird Satellite

Dear Earlybird,

I strongly suggest that you leave the dance early. Your complaint has no actual basis. You are only a freshman, and certainly you can accomplish everything you need to in one evening, by 11:15 or 11:30.....can't you?

Dear Pen Pal,

There is a boy I like in my homeroom. I've had a crush on him since I was a freshman, but he has never seemed to like me. We always goof around and have fun together. But my problem is; how can I get him to like me as a girl friend, instead of a buddy??

Homeroom Hannah

Dear Hannah,

Could the problem be that you treat him like a buddy? You can't expect him to take you seriously, unless you give him some indication that you're more interested in him than just being buddies. Perhaps you could ask him to some girl ask boy affair. Remember, most boys hate it when a girl chases them, so don't overdo it.

SWIMMERS, TOM KRUYER IN STATE FINALS

Seagles Seek 3rd State Title at Bloomington

Tomorrow in Bloomington at Indiana University's Royer Pool, the Adams swimmers will try to accomplish their goal for the entire season, the State Championship. Should they succeed, it would be their third straight state title. This year their chief competition should come from Columbus, Southport, and Kokomo. These three finished behind the Seagles in last year's meet. The Seagles send 8 individuals and 2 relay teams to the meet. The trials in the diving and the 400 yard freestyle will be tonight and the finals will be tomorrow.

Qualify 8 & Both Relays

Last week, at the Sectional, the Seagles qualified these swimmers for the state meet, won 7 events, set 3 records, bettered 8 times recorded in last week's NIC meet and won the team championship. Coach Coar termed this as "not as good as usual." Not as good as usual for the Seagles is like a "super human" effort by most teams. The Seagles piled up 99 points to Jackson's 67.

2 New Records for Fitz

The 200 yard medley relay team of Scott Wise, Frank Fahey, Tom Schrager, and Bill McCloughan finished second in their event but still qualified for the state finals. Last year's team finished 4th. Frank Fahey and Schrager were on that team. Mike Fitzgerald set 2 new records by swimming the 200 yard freestyle in 1:47.6 and the 400 yard freestyle in 3:50.6. Bill Fitzgerald finished second in both of these events. Mike was state champion as a sophomore and last year finished second in the medley and butterfly. Bill finished third in the 400 free and 4th in the 22 free.

Jeff Clark finished 2nd in the 50 yard freestyle and qualified for the meet. Jeff was 5th in last year's 200 and 400 yard freestyle. Jim Herreman won the 200 yard individual medley and the 100 yard breaststroke in a record breaking time of 1:05.5. Herreman was 3rd in the breaststroke of last year's meet.

Frank Fahey won the 100 yard butterfly. He finished 5th last year. Jerry Decker also qualified for the meet by winning the 100 yard freestyle. The 400 yard freestyle relay team of Scott Wise, Jerry Decker, Tom Schrager, and Jeff Clark won their event. Last

Kruyer Enroute To State Finals

Mishawaka High School captured the Regional wrestling crown at East Chicago last Saturday. Adams came in tied for sixth in the meet.

Tom Kruyer was the only Adams wrestler to advance to the state finals tomorrow. He defeated Ron Smith of Calumet, 7-1 to win the Regional heavyweight crown. This is the first time that Tom has been down state.

Mike Quimby was beaten in the first round of the meet by Tom Simpson of Merrillville, 9-6.

Mishawaka and Central will each send 2 boys to the finals tomorrow.

Tom Kruyer has lost only 1 match this season, against Jerry DeMeyer of Washington.

Beagles Lose to Elkhart and LaSalle

On Friday and Saturday night, Coach Hadaway's Beagles suffered successive defeats to Elkhart and LaSalle.

Downed by Blazers

The Beagles dropped their 5th game of the year as they were beaten by Elkhart, 52-45. After a 9-8 first quarter lead, the Adams fans saw the Beagles offense stall under the sticky Blazer defense. Adams committed 21 costly turnovers as compared to the 6 mistakes by the Blazers.

The Beagle scoring was led by Mike Newbold's 18 points, and 5 points each by Jim Szucs, Tom Ehlers, Ken Ivory, and Karl Hardy.

LaSalle Wins

On Saturday night, Adams was beaten by LaSalle in the Lions gym, 56-46. The Beagles, in losing their sixth game against 14 wins, were led by Mike Newbold and Karl Hardy.

Eagles Hope to End Season on Winning Note

Tonight the John Adams Eagles will try to end their regular season play on a happy note when they play the Jackson Tigers away. The Eagles bring their 8-11 record into this final game of the season before the Sectionals. The Eagles have beaten Jackson once before this final game of the season before the Sectionals. The Eagles have beaten Jackson once before this season.

Adams 54 Elkhart 63

Last Friday night, the Eagles ended their home season with a lost against a strong Elkhart team. Elkhart is co-leader in the NIC, along with Michigan City.

The Eagles seemed very slow in the first quarter and fell quickly behind. With the scoring of Terry Schaper, the Eagles were able to stay close enough in the first period to put the score at 17-10 at the end of the quarter.

A low scoring second quarter left the Eagles behind, 32-21, at the end of this period.

3rd Quarter Jinx

An Elkhart 3rd quarter jinx and the spirit of the Adams team brought the Eagles back into the game. During this rally, the Eagles closed the gap and tied the game, 39-39. This was the closest the Eagles were to get. The quarter ended 41-39.

Elkhart broke the game wide-open in the fourth period, with some fancy play-making and some hot shooting from the field.

Terry Schaper, playing his last game in the Adams gym, chalked up 17 points. Two juniors, Richard Davis and Rick Sayers, scored 15 and 10 points, respectively.

free throws came to haunt them again as they lost to a tough LaSalle Lions team.

With a change of lineup again against LaSalle, the Eagles went down to defeat, 60-52. Alonzo Warnell and Craig Scheu starter against Elkhart and LaSalle.

A Close Game

This game was definitely closer than the Elkhart game. The first quarter ended up in a 14-14 tie. LaSalle with a scoring streak at the end of the second period grabbed a 30-29 lead.

A very closely fought second half gave LaSalle the decision. The difference between Adams winning and losing was the hitting of free throws. Adams outshot LaSalle from the field of 4 field goals.

Schaper led the Eagle scoring with 11 followed by Scheu's 10 and Davis and Sayers 9 points.

Frosh Defeat Clay and Central

Coach George Griffith's freshmen basketball team continued their winning ways as they rolled up two more victories.

On Tuesday, Feb. 6, the frosh downed Clay, 58-42, at Adams. Rick Madison led the Eagles with 15 points and Tony Lawrence had 9 points. The Eagles showed a tremendous amount of strength in the backcourt.

The following Thursday, the Eagles traveled to Central, where they met the Bears for the third time this year. The Eagles won their third game from them, 65-54. This was a high-scoring contest, where Madison scored 22 and Lawrence had 20 points for the victors. These two victories boosted their record to 17-1.
