Eagles Face Sectional Champs, St. Joe, Tonight

After tonight we will know how great the Basketball Eagles of 1968-69 are. For tonight the Eagles face a very stern test at St. Joseph against the defending Sectional Champions. St. Joseph has lost two from last year's team but has Paul Fredlake and Mike Denning, who is a questionable starter tonight's game, back.

Four Letterman

Coach Don Barnbrook has a nucleus of four returning lettermen; center Richard Davis, guard Greg Roberts, Rick Sayers who will play either guard or forward, and Alonzo Warnell who will play either forward or pivot. Others on the roster are Timm Barnbrook, a forward, Matt Busch a guard, forward Tom Ehlers, forward and center Karl Hardy, guard Tim Madison, pivot and forward Mike Newbold, guard Jim Szucs, forward Scott Young, forward Ed Freel, and forward and pivot Lamar Jones. As of press time Barnbrook was uncertain as to who would start in tonight's game. "Anyone of the six seniors (Busch, Davis, Newbold, Roberts, Sayers, and Warnell) could start as well as a couple of underclassmen" said Barnbrook.

Good Speed

Offensive the Eagles will have a pattern offense and hope to utilize their speed. "I hope we will be able to use the fast break, but whether we can or not depends primarily on our rebounding strength."

If the Eagles have one strong point this year it is depth. They have six men over six feet, a fact the opposition will not like, needless to say. In addition to the height they also have some quick guards.

Unity Important

Barnbrook sees team unity as the key factor in the upcoming season.

"We could be successful if the boys make up their minds to play as a unit instead of individual or super stars" says Barnbrook. "Team play is necessary but unity is most important".

This year's Northern Indiana Conference race should be extremely close. Central once again should be very strong. Outside the South Bend area Michigan City and Goshen will probably be strong contenders for the Conference Title. There does not appear to be any one strong team. Nor does there appear to be any team considerably weaker than the rest of the league.

The success of this team is very uncertain. They have practically the entire starting line up from last year returning for the '68-69 season, but it is hard to tell what that can mean. A team can have a lineup of men with three years experience but if the players are not good enough, experience is not enough. The Eagles appear to have skilled players. The whole season will boil down to one big question mark-unity.

Seagles Shoot For Fourth Straight State Title

In 1966 they were confident. In 1967 they were uncertain. In 1968 they are doubtful. I am speaking of the Adams' Swimmers, who have won more trophies than any other Adams team and this year face their most serious to the State Crown they have occupied the last three years.

Chances Smaller

This may be the toughest year the Seagles have had under Coach Don Coar. The entire student body whether or not they know a thing about the team, assume the Seagles will take the State Title hands down. The truth is the Seagles will have to overcome a number of obstacles to take the title.

Coar rates the teams chances as "minute". Our chances are smaller than they "were last year" says Coar. "We have weaker team depth, graduated eight boys, and are missing about five boys in the school who did not even come out". It will take a tremendous amount of hard work to win it. You can rest assured that they will get plenty of hard work. The Seagles undoubtedly go through the roughest practice of the ten varsity sports. They practice in the morning and after school doing nothing but constant swimming.

The Seagles currently own a 64 dual meet winning streak. This provides the opposition with even more motivation.

Jackson Toughest Opponent

The entire team is pointing towards the meet of the year against Jackson on January 16. The Tigers are the team to beat in the area and will be the toughest team we will face during the year.

The Seagles open their season tomorrow with their own Adams Relays. The Seagles lost this meet last year because were limited to two events per man while the other teams were allowed three events per man. This year there will be no restrictions.

Strong in Freestyle

The Seagles' strong event this year will be the freestyle especially the 200 and 400 yard events, where Bill Fitzgerald could be a contender for the state championship. Other freestylers are Tom Schrager and Jeff Clark who were members of last year's free relay team that was second in the state, returning letterman Dave Feldman and senior George Keely. Returning letterman Scott Wise will be aided by Doug Pichard, Ralph Zablocki, and Pat Hickey in the breast stroke. Jeff Clark, Scott Wise, and Dave Feldman will swim individual medley.

The butterflyers will be Jim Peltz and John Ford, and Denny Daniels will swim backstroke. In diving veterans Jeff Lichtenfelds and Rick Allen return as well as sophomore understudies Chuck Petterson and Steve Anderson.

Favored in Conference

Probably the only certain thing about this season is that Adams will win the Conference Meet. Although Riley will provide the toughest competition. The most uncertain part of the season is the State Meet and who will win the title. When it is all over look for the following teams to be the top competitors for the Seagle's State Crown; Kokomo, Columbus, Lawrence Central, Southport and South Bend Jackson. The Seagles chances, although they look bleak now, should improve with a lot of hard work.

GOOD LUCK SEAGLES!

Seagles Open Season Tonite

Prior to the Adams-St. Joseph varsity game tonight Coach Dave Hadaway will field an all-sophomore B-team against the St. Joe reserves at 6:30. Hadaway inherits a team who last year as freshmen won every game but one, that one to LaSalle by a single point.

This year's Beagles have an abundance of height which is rare for a B-team. T.C. Jamison is 6-4 and Vernon Lighthall and Tony Lawrence are both 6-3. Other members of the team include John Alexander, Wesley Dixon, Ed Haak, Pete Kohen, Rick Madison, Jerome Mincy, Glenn, McKenzie, Bob Moore, and Tim Scheu.

This year's Beagles should be an exciting team to watch. They will be well balanced. Last year as Frosh, they were a high scoring team. This, coupled with the fact that Hadaway's teams are usually defensive-minded, should provide an interesting year for the Beagle Boosters.

Cheerleaders Work To Boost Teams on to Victory

The Conclusion of the football season left school spirit at a new high. Through the redoubled efforts of the varsity cheering squad, tonight's opening season basketball game will be an especially rousing one.

Senior Captain Janet Canen heads her squad of four seniors, Chris Morrow, Barb Allin, Joann Pitts, Joni Samuels, and junior Pat McLure. These girls, all members of Booster Club, assist in the club's various activities and make a special effort toward installing spirit in fellow Booster members.

Organizing pep assemblies which will encourage school spirit through the use of new calls and old favorites is one of the most important roles played by these girls.

Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday finds Jan working her squad until 4:00 P.M., perfecting those skills required to give a peppy performance.

In addition to their full time job of encouraging school spirit, the cheerleaders involve themselves in other activities. First year participants Janet Camen and Pat McClure belong to Booster Club, while Chris Morrow in addition to Booster Club, is a member of student council.

Second year member Barb Allin is a member of Booster Club, Student Council, historian for Eagle Ethics, and an Album section editor. Joni Samuels belongs to Booster Club and the National Honor Society. Joann Pitts is a Booster Club member, in the National Honor Society, and belongs to the Senior board.

The B-team cheerleaders, led by Captain Becky Riley, along with Marian Miller, Brenda Hurd, Dianne Philabaum, Beverly Dixon and Laura Meilner are a great factor in promoting school spirit.

In order to remain adept at this difficult task the girls practice three hours a week on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights. Clever tips are often interchanged when B team and varsity squads share a practice session.

In addition to cheering the teams to victory these girls assist the varsity at regular games and in the pep assemblies. They also make the hoop through which our Eagles burst onto the court.

Both the varsity and B team cheering squads are under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Jane Bauer.

ADAM'S FIGHT SONG

Oh the Adams Eagles have got that fight,	There's not a team that can compare,
They've got that special fight that's out of sight,	We know our fighting men are really rare,
They've got that spirit, drive, ability;	So let's cheer them on and show our pride, that Eagle drive,
And everywhere they play they leave another victory,	Fighting men of Adams' Senior High!

Five Return For Wrestlers

The Wrestlers of John Adams open their season on December 3 against Michigan City on the Red Devils home mats in hopes of repeating last year's victory over City. On December the Wrestlers will host a highly touted Central team that Adams Coach Moe Aronson rates the team to beat in the city.

At the outset things look a little brighter than they did last year at this time. Where as last year they had only three returning lettermen this year they boast five veterans. In addition to the five returnees they appear to have excellent team depth. They will be aided by a Freshman team that captured the City Championship during the 1967 campaign and a few individuals that are incoming freshmen this year.

Many of the twelve weight categories appear to be undecided as to who will start the season. Beginning with the 95 pound division returning letterman Charlie Martin will be battling with Roger Jones for the top spot. Wrestling at 103 pounds will probably be Eugene Russell, whose brother won the state championship while at Adams. At 112 pounds there appears to be a three way battle between freshman Eddie Scott, junior Randy Sayers, and sophomore Scott Sult. At 120 pounds will be returning letterman Wayne Welter or sophomore Jerry Collins. The prospects at 127 pounds are captain Jerry Muncie, Dan Chomyn and Elliot

Janicki. At 138 Matsushima returns, while Dick Hawkins will go at 145 pounds. Among the candidates at 154 pounds are Bob Nyikos and Tom Westfall. Returning lettermen Vince Fragomeini will be the starter at 165 pounds and Marty Powers and Dick Burns will be after the 175 spot. Filling Tom Kruyer's position as heavyweight will be Mike Kluszczinski. Jeff Tulchinsky will wrestle at 185 pounds.

Because of their depth the Grapplers should fare well in the dual meet season. As far as choosing a State Champion this early in the year Coach Aronson sees Elkhart to win the title for the second straight year.
